

RULES OF ORDER OF CONVENTIONS.

1. Without the permission of the Chairman, no member shall speak when there is no motion before the Association, except in Committee of the Whole, or when a subject has been submitted for discussion.

2. Except to adjourn, to resolve into Committee of the Whole, to lay on the table, or the previous question, no motion shall be put from the chair until it has been delivered to the Chairman in writing, with the names of the mover and seconder attached.

3. The mover of a motion may speak to it twice, but no other member more than once, nor any member more than fifteen minutes, without the permission of the Chairman.

4. Should more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall decide who is entitled to the floor, and this decision shall be without appeal.

5. On a point of order being raised while a member is speaking, he shall at once take his seat; the point of order shall then be stated by the member objecting, and the Chairman shall then, without further discussion, decide thereon, stating the rule applicable to the case, without comment.
