"The Best Results Are Secured By Co-operation"

This is the rule of The Great-West Life Agency organization—to co-operate with the field men—to continually assist them as they need assistance—to see that they have suitable and congenial territory—and above all to co-operate with them by assuring that the policies they sell—the rates, conditions, and results—are the most attractive anywhere available.

Life agents with evidence of ability to show should investigate the opportunities offering in
