ember 16, 1920

REST

stly on the gr er branches of had only rece with them,

ontinued.)

SFORM GANGS CLUBS.

and J. McKer tly, in order to coblem of the This term in for his living n to organize which will instead of a to se now," said ry of the boys' ere are about reach this way responsible An important fe

be to secure bryo citizens, ntertainments, out the ac Canadian St ng Manual. asible proposition gs not used in convert them

Y KNEW.

ooys.

in a rural tly giving a ndards on the f e process of eva ice," he said, ing following mething rises e ponds. What is and gradually co

I can see you is it?" rogs."

N CONTROVERSY

an Englishman discussing the and after p ot to the point in agreement, hman, "we are have descended The Scot was and then re tly. Ma op h descended but stress was giving on fractions. he said, "here If I cut it in two

ANSWER.

d the class in chor it again?" ame the reply at o id half the class, intaining a dign

if I cut the P

in the class, but room. what is the answer. m, mincemeat."

A National Church of England Weekly

VOL. 47

TORONTO, SEPTEMBER 23rd, 1920

NO. 39

Industrial Questions

N outstanding and pressing duty of the Church is to convince its members of the necessity of nothing less than a fundamental change in the spirit and working of our economic life. This change can only be effected by accepting as the basis of industrial relations the principle of co-operation in service for the common good in place of unrestricted competition for private or sectional advantage. All Christian people ought to take an active part in bringing about this change, by which alone we can hope to remove class dissensions and resolve industrial discords.

IITE desire to emphasize our conviction that the pursuit of mere self-interest, whether individual or corporate, will never bring healing to the wounds of This conviction is at once exemplified and Society. reinforced by what has happened in and since the War. Nor is this less true when that self-interest is equipped with every advantage of science and education. only hope lies in reverent allegiance to the Person of Christ, whose Law is the Law of Love, in acceptance of His principles, and reliance on His power.—Lambeth, 1920.