Founded 1866

customer looked to the amazement burst into hysteriuit the shop.
say to you?" demandof the clerk. and any rain lately.'

was a very sensitive once at a harsh word profitable work and ympathy to his wife en started out to help to had bought a new ichine and was pre-field. Toward noon Mrs. Mudge sighed pathetically for the stand it,' said Owen,

'When I see that them roots out, it f the times I went to back teeth extracted. knew I was limp as a d all over and had to ptain Dugge of the in liner 'Prince Oscar' g with a seasick pas-said the captain, 'is ning. Some people's are far more atrocious nce carried a Philared dreadfully.

of his seasickness this beckoned his wife to id in a weak voice: is in the Commercial care. Everything is My various stocks v safe deposit box." ed and sighed. Then bury me on the other d this trip again, alive ee Advertiser.

ECONOMY.

De Winton Brown awing-room in town. et of softest hue, lestial blue. vas said to be mahoganee, was of facture rare uty in every chair.

e berth the family

-room-to save it.

as a splendid place. of surpassing grace sideboard, wide and

rnished with leather

ly wooed the feet. Winton Brown ing-room in town.

erth the family gave illery-to save it.

e Browns possessed

jual to every test. as it could be. v to see vere of nickel plate, e was up-to-date. ing could be found berth the Mistress woodshed-just to stayed there, I'll

ed-its living green and exceedingly by the fences high I and joy the eye hite as the driven that soil did grow. de Winton Brows sweetest yard in berth the children

muddy street -to

Farmer's Advocate

and Home Journal

REGISTERED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COPYRIGHT ACT OF 1875

January 13, 1909

WINNIPEG. MANITOBA

Vol. XLV. No. 851

EDITORIAL

The Alberta Farmers' Chance of alfalfa has been preached for some time. but unlike many another gospel, it has had persist in using their land exclusively for wheat productive agencies. and oats, they will shortly be met with crops of weeds and exhausted soils. It is a rare advantage for any district that the possibility settlement, but there also goes with the discovery a responsibility of making use of the to be offered than that given by Mr. Woolford in our December 30th number: "to prepare, plant and care for a plot of alfalfa.'

A Nation's Problem

South or hot springs in Wyoming.

insists that the country must conserve its sordid, but in modern business it is the all conviction holds that legislation, or the action resources. Both the United States and Canada powerful one. Men respond most energetically of the railway companies, can, in some measure, in the supply.

share of property and money, posterity is left in farming as well as in the rest.

been spending their capital and have not made country. We have to be shown. the slightest effort to live within the annual It has been pretty thoroughly demonstrated increment of this national wealth, while we

The Incentive to Improve

of growing legumes is discovered early in its to farm better are rather more amusing than practicable. Not long since we heard an so doing they would take pride in their labors, would seem to be the part of the stock breeders' in their broad, clean farms and would hold up associations to devote more of their time and their heads among men. A good deal of talk energies to the solution of the market problem. such as this is indulged in every time a few Probably it would not be impossible to get one Enquiry into the workings of the tariff in farmers gather together to be harangued by an or more of the abattoir men or a drover at the United States is setting people to analyze agricultural educationist. About every reason the live stock conventions who could tell pro-rived its great wealth. The commercial pro- Progress in agriculture is stimulated by the should set about improving them. gress of the country is reviewed by advocates same force that makes for progress in other of high protection and the inference drawn industries. Money is the incentive back of disposition to avoid controversial discussions, that protection is the cause of it, when in reality most human aspirations. To win the al- and attend strictly to their own side of the high tariff is but a coincidence probably af- mighty dollar:—that incites activity, fires live stock business, but there are times when fecting the wealth of the country less than the ambition and impels men to better and greater it is necessary to take some notice of how the circumstance of there being negroes in the things. It is the money-making possibilities other end of the trade is going. The country of a business that attracts men to it, holds cannot afford to let a small coterie of men work President Roosevelt, the leader of the high them, and draws from them the best they irremediable injury to its agricultural interests tariff party, is on the right scent when he have to give. The incentive may be rather by throttling the live stock industry. The are countries that were blessed in their in- where the wealth accumulating possibilities alleviate existing conditions. No definite fancy with a fabulous wealth of natural are greatest. Industries progress most rapidly statement has been made that satisfactorily resources. By a frugal, judicious handling of on those lines where returns are most readily or completely diagnoses the case. The meat these resources, either of these nations might earned. Money is still in these modern days commission reported that they found an averhave secured a continuous source of sustenance the root of evil, of more evil than it ever was of age profit of $31 per head on handling the for an indefinite period without any decrease old, but it is also the greatest stimulant to cattle slaughtered at Winnipeg, and the comprogress in the universe. It is to gain it that mercial editor of the Free Press determined But we were unable to see the limits of our most men labor. It is the desire to gain it in that there were 63,964 cattle consumed locally natural wealth and dissipated it as though ever increasing volume that is making this in 1908. When the situation is thus analysed, there was no limit, with the result that, while world so good a place to live in. Money is the next step is for the live stock associations a large number of people have secured a liberal about the only argument that talks in business, to take an active interest in securing better with much less to live upon than its ancestors The man who would be successful in intro- be said to be eminently satisfactory to the began with. Every one knows this is not a ducing better methods in agriculture has got to wholesalers. happy or desirable state of affairs. Our aver- present his argument in the language of the already importing hardwood from the States, uplifting of the agriculturists to somebody else ought to take it. and Americans are scrambling over each other who can. And he had better have a sure propo- Puffier, Alta.

to get control of our forests of soft woods. The sition, too, before he attempts demonstrating. people of the North American continent have We all live west of the Mississippi in this

Our Live Stock Markets

that alfalfa can be grown over a great part of have nursed fallacious ideas that, so long as In this issue Mr. Iverach makes the statement Southern Alberta and it is further known that we had a protective tariff, we would be able which will be concurred in by practically every the soil is benefitted by the crop. The gospel to count upon the continuous incomes. True, farmer, that the great need of the province of wealth has not been completely destroyed, Manitoba is an active, open, satisfactory market the fertility of the fields, the products of the for live stock and live stock products. It numerous demonstrations of the practicability forests, the contents of mines and the food need not be reiterated here that the artificially of its use. With alfalfa grown occasionally supply of the lakes have in some measure, been low prices for cattle at Winnipeg are responsible to rest and revive the land, the enervating converted into money and agents for the dis- for much of the wasteful methods of farming effects of winter wheat growing will hardly be tribution of wealth, which, though useful, they throughout the West. The producers of live noticed, but if the Southern Alberta farmers represent a conversion of productive into non- stock have chafed under the jewing system of marketing, and consumers have patiently paid monopoly prices until there is no confidence left in the trade, which, however, does not seem to worry those responsible for existing con-The reasons offered sometimes to urge men ditions, since the total receipts continue to

It is idle to complain of conditions without agricultural orator imploring an audience of suggesting some feasible remedy, or probably opportunity. There is no more urgent advice farmers to forsake their unprogressive ways the publicity given to them might have atand adopt better farming methods because by tracted more dealers to the West. But it the sources from which the Republic has de- for better work except the basic one is urged. ducers just why prices are so low and how they

As a class, stockmen show a commendable conditions. As it now exists, the trade can age crop yields are on the decrease, our forests dollar. If he cannot demonstrate that more I enclose $1.50 for the "Farmer's are on the verge of exhaustion, our supplies of money is to be made by careful than hap- Advocate," it is an excellent paper and coal and steel are nearing extinction, we are hazard farming, he had better leave the every farmer and stockman in the West S. W. BLACK.