

Aid and Supply.

XXXV.—That if any motion be made for any public aid, subsidy, duty, or charge upon the people, the consideration and debate thereon shall not presently be entered upon, but adjourned till such further day as the House shall think fit to appoint, and shall be referred to a Committee of the whole House, and their opinion reported before any resolution or vote of the House do pass thereupon.

Bills.

XXXVI.—That when a Bill or Petition is read in the House, the Clerk shall certify the readings, and the time, on the back thereof.

XXXVII.—That every Bill shall be read twice before it is committed, and engrossed and read a third time before it is sent up to the Legislative Council for concurrence.

XXXVIII.—That when any Bill shall be brought down to this House from the Honorable the Legislative Council, or when any Bill sent up from this House to the Legislative Council shall be returned with amendments, such Bill so brought down, or the amendments, shall undergo the same readings and formal consideration, and the same shall be committed and be subjected to the same order, form and stages, as are observed upon Bills originating in this House.

XXXIX.—That every public Bill shall be introduced by a motion for leave, specifying the object of the Bill; or by a motion to appoint a committee to prepare and bring it in; or by an order of the House on the report of a committee: and that every private Bill, shall be founded on a petition, notice of the intention of the petitioners having been inserted in the Upper Canada Gazette for the period of six months previous to the meeting of the Legislature.

XL.—That no Bill brought into this House shall have more than one reading on the same day.

Petitions.

XLI.—That all Petitions to be introduced, shall be brought in immediately after the minutes are read, and that such Petitions shall be read by the Clerk, after the third reading of any bills that may stand for that purpose on the order of the day; provided such Petitions shall have lain on the table two days.

Orders of the Day.

XLII.—That all Orders of the Day which by reason of any adjournment, shall not have been proceeded upon, shall be considered as postponed, till the next day on which the House shall sit, and shall stand first on the order of the day, after the third reading of bills and addresses and reading of petitions.

Accounts.

XLIII.—That all Accounts which shall in future be presented by any individual for work or labor done, or for articles furnished for the use of this House, shall be sworn to, and the affidavit specify that the charges therein contained, are the usual charges, and the commonly received prices for such work and labor, or for such articles furnished.

Printing.

XLIV.—That all the Printing done by order of the House shall be engaged by contract for the Session, on the lowest terms offered, and during the Session, be under the superintendence of a select committee; and during the recess, under the clerk.

Unprovided Cases.

XLV.—That in all unprovided cases, resort shall be had to the rules, usages and forms of the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland.

Truly extracted from the Minutes.
