Upwards of 15,000 sightseers visited the place before sunset on the first Sabbath to pass since the news of the mystery. Nearly every able-bodied resident of Laporte went to the farm.

The most definite information came from Olaf Lindboe, of Chicago. Hesaid that his brother Thomas worked for Mrs. Guinness three years ago and that the last letter from Thomas said that Thomas intended to marry Mrs. Guinness. Olaf wrote to Mrs. Guinness later and she replied that Thomas had gone to St. Louis and that she had had no word from him. Olaf Lindboe has not heard of Thomas since. He viewed the unidentified cornses but was unable to find any likeness to his brother in the bundles of bones and
