RAILROAD MAN HAD TO LAY OFF

Until He Took GIN PILLS

Buffalo, N.Y.
"I have been a Pullman conductor on the C. P. R. and Michigan Central for the last three years. About four years ago, I was laid up with intense pain in the groin, a very sore back, and suffered most severely when I tried to urinate. I treated with my family physician for two months for Gravel in the Bladder but did not receive any benefit. About that time, I met another railroad man who had been similarly affected and who had been cured by GIN PILLS, after having been given up by a prominent physician who treated him for Diabetes. He is now running on the road and is perfectly cured. He strongly advised me to try GIN PILLS which I did—with the result that the pain left me entirely."

F. COMPANY'S FINE SUPPER

A Theatre Party and Feud Greatly Enjoyed by Dufferins Last Night.

Fighting "F" Company of the Dufferin Rifles, under their popular Captain, Henry McLean, held one of the jolliest social evenings that has taken place in Military circles for many a moon, and one that will linger long in the memory of those who availed themselves the opportunity of attending.

Assembled
The men of the Company assembled at the armories early in the evening and shortly after eight o'clock Captain McLean gave the order to "fall in" and the men took their places and then the order "quick march" was given and the Company marched to the Colonial Theatre.

Theatre Party.
Manager Ed. Symons greeted the boys with a broad smile and ushered them to the seats which had reserved. After witnessing the bill, which was very much enjoyed by all, especially the musical act, the soldier lads "fell in" and marched back to the armories, where they captured the men's mess and proceeded to make themselves at home.

The Lunch
Caterer S. Crumback had everything in readiness for the soldiers when they returned and Captain McLean issued orders to the effect that a charge was to be made on the good things which the proprietor of the Tea Pot Inn had prepared. The Company certainly executed the command to perfection. "There was an abundance of everything to the right of them. A huge boiler of coffee to the left of them; C'sars all around them. And how they went after them. The gallant quarter of a hundred." Captain McLean left nothing undone to make one and all feel at home and spared no efforts to keep the merry affair humming and made it his aim to see that everyone enjoyed themselves.

Short Programme
After mostly everything in sight had been devoured and it might be said right here that the boys (and officers too) brought their appetites with them and used same to good effect, Captain McLean, who acted as chairman, laid his hands on the company and called the boys to "attention." Captain McLean arose and in a few well-chosen words welcomed the officers, N.C. officers and privates, and issued orders that everything would be in formal and did not want any long drawn out speeches and his orders were strictly adhered to.

The Commanding Officer.
Captain McLean called upon Col. P. Howard to address the assembly.

Doctors Did Her No Good—Testifies How She Was Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Zanesville, Ohio.

"Last fall I had female weakness very bad, and was nervous and run down. I was dizzy and had numb feelings and my eyes ached. I took doctor's medicines but they did me no good, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and now I feel stronger and better. I have told other women what Mrs. Pinkham's medicine has done for me and give you permission to publish this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. HULDA ERICKSON, 508 Maysville Avenue, Zanesville, Ohio.

More Proof.
Burlington, Iowa.—"For years I suffered a great deal from female troubles. I had awful pains and felt sick nearly all the time. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and heard that it had helped other suffering women so I felt sure it would do me good. Sure enough it did. The first bottle helped me and now I am a strong and well woman. I would not be without it in the house."—Mrs. ANNA HIGGINS, 1125 Agency St., Burlington, Iowa.

There need be no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to remedy woman's diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most sceptical. Why don't you try it?

Mammy Lou was visiting Lucindy. The latter lifted a boiling pot off the stove, set it on the fireless cooker, covered it closely and pushed it under the table.

"What's yuh a-going to do wid dat pot?"

"Ise a-going to cook dem beans in de fireless cooker."

Mammy rose, a scared, hunted look on her wrinkled face. "Does yuh mean to tell me yuh a-going to bile dem beans widout fiuh?"

Lucindy nodded. Mammy backed to the door and looked at the girl as at an apparition, then with defiance mingled with fear commanded: "Put on your bonnet. You sure is hoodooed. You ain't goin' to live in no house where the devil does de cookin'!"—Judge.

GALT TO-DAY BRANT

Several Front Streets Under Construction in Galt.

Ice Jam Broken in Galt.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

GALT, Ont., March 14.—Spring freshet of the Grand River came down at 8 o'clock this morning. The basements of the main buildings on the east side in the lower portion of the flooded and considerable household effects were carried down stream, smashed through the low and great pieces were among the machinery goods. No accurate estimate of the damage here can be made. Several other incidents along the bank with commission for a couple of days to the machinery being a result of the flood.

Water street north, lost himself up to higher ground. His son James led one of the animals in the barn out to his attempt to rescue it. He was thrown from the horse when the horse grabbed the clothes line. The horse was caught in the street and the road is blocked. Pieces of ice from the Grand River. Fortunately the water was at its height for only a short time and this was a great factor in limiting the damage which would have been wrought had the water remained longer.

Employees and factory owners on account of the operation of the Grand River.

The Grand River is on page one more but at present no signs of a flood and such is not anticipated.

West Brantford and Eggleton concerned, as the water has a clear course and is some distance past Onondago.

Ice Broke Last Night
The ice in the vicinity of Pridge broke away about eleven o'clock last night and was carried by a gentle wind and bridge at the time had a bye to the ice.

Took Precautions

Mayor Hartman called over the long distance eleven o'clock last night advised by a gentleman named that at that time the ice had been sold at that point.

Called Paris
His Worship then called Patterson of Paris, who advised that the ice was breaking up at half past eleven and that the ice was moving and a river had a clear passage.
