LORD STRATHCONA IS DEAD; FULL OF YEARS AND HONORS

Canada's Grand Old Man Passed Peacefully Away in His Sleep in London Early This Moring.

True Type of Laborious, Generous and Patriotic Gentleman Gathered to His Fathers.

High Commissioner Had Been Ill of Catarrh and Other Complications for a Week.

LONDON, Eng., aan. 21.-Lord Strathcona passed away peacefully in his sleep at 2.15 this morning. It was realized that from an early hour Saturday morning that the venerable statesman was passing into his rest. His Lordship on several occasions within the last few years has been or two, but at such times, despite his heavy burden of years, his frends always had confidence in his power to resist the illness. Unhappily such confidence could not be entertained on this last occasion. An attack of catarrh, which would be a comparatively trifling matter for a man in the prime of life, was too severe a strain or one who had passed four score and ten mark well over three years ago. The malady completely prostrated Lord Strathcona, eventually inducing heart weakness. The aged patient sank into a state of coma and

An Empty Boiler is Believed to Have Been the Cause of the Explosion.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 21.-Three persons were killed, half a dozen serously injured and property loss on the building and prize live stock to by an explosion of the heating plant at Howick pavilion this morning, where the eastern Ontario live stock show is being held. Howick pavilion proper is a huge structure of cement and steel with an addition of about 150 feet square at its eastern end, partly of wooden construction. It was in this addition that the fat stock show was being held and where the explosion occurred. This part of the structure is completely demolished at one corner, and the whole interior is a mass of wreckage from which it proved a herculean to extricate the dead and injured men and scores of killed or maimed animals.
