CAR SHOOTS OVER STEEP BANK AND
GIRL IS KILLED

Florence Mickler, Aged 19, of Preston, Fatally Crushed Under Automobile.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Preston, July 5.—Florence Mickler, aged 19, daughter of Mr. Jacob Mickler, was instantly killed, Mr. Mickler himself badly hurt, and two other members of his family suffered serious injury, when an automobile instantly threw the car across the road to a steep embankment near Glen Morris, about 1.30 Sunday afternoon.

The car was a new one and contained Mr. Mickler and his four daughters, the Misses Florence, Laura, Norma and Emma, the 19-year old daughter of Mr. Mickler.

The car was on its way to Brantford when the accident happened. The front wheels of the car got into a bad rut, and in attempting to clear it, Mr. Mickler threw the car across the road to the embankment, where it capsized.

Emma was the only one to be thrown clear of the car, the others being pinned under it in a ditch. The nucky girl immediately secured a first-aid kit and tried the overturned machine up far enough to liberate her father and two of her sisters.

Florence, however, was found to be dead having probably been killed instantly.

Dr. Hogg and Quinn were later called to attend the injured girls and their father, and it is said that Mr.
Mickler is dangerously injured. It is not known whether the results of the girls' injuries will be serious or not.

The fatality has cast a gloom over the entire town, as the Micklers are well known and have lived here for years.

LAUNCH CAPSIZES;
FOUR DROWNED

Well-known Wallaceburg People Victims of Squall Which Swept Lake.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Wallaceburg, July 4.—When a summer squall of unusual violence swept across Lake St. Clair and the river this afternoon a launch, carrying nine Wallaceburg people, was overturned and four of the party were drowned.
The other five were picked up by a Detroit launch near by, which weathered the sudden storm.

The drowned are Mrs. Wm. C.
Chester McDougall, Miss Eva Fother-gill and Mrs. W. Howard. The survivors are Mr. and Mrs. F. Davis, Mr.
C. Fothergill, Miss Eva Steinhoff and Mrs. Herb McDougall. The body of Mrs. Howard has been recovered and a party from town is at the scene, endeavoring to bring the others to the surface.

Early to-day the party left Wallace-burg in Mr. Davis' launch, which was considered fairly seaworthy and powerful. They proceeded down the channel past St. Anne's Island to Lake St. Clair, the weather being ideal for a cruise. They were on the return journey about 5.30 this evening when the squall overtook them near the "Willows."

CAPSIZED WITHOUT WARNING
With scarcely a moment's warning the craft was capsized and all its passengers thrown into the lake, some of them being swept so far from the spot that they were unable to fight their way to the keel of the overturned launch. Mr. and Mrs. Davis managed to reach it and assisted Mr.
Fothergill and Miss Steinhoff aboard.

Mr. Fothergill's sister and Mrs. Howard sank before Mr. Herb McDougall could reach them to render assistance, and he himself struggled back to a hold of safety only with great difficulty.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDougall perished together in an attempt to reach the launch. It was a perilous hold the survivors had on the boat, but they managed to cling there until the rescuing launch proceeded to their assistance.

Governor Willis welcomed Hubert B. Fuller, Cleveland author, with slaps on the back and laid him up with neuritis.

Bowling Green, Mo., mayor has ordered all weeds cut, paint and whitewash to look spick for the great Clark wedding.
