

TO AN OLD ELM.

Oh, stately elm, fair to see;
How oft in youth you sheltered me
With verdant shades
When young companions lingered near,
And headed out the passing year,
We 'neath thee played.

THE REPORTER.

FARMERSVILLE, SEPT. 6, 1887.

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

From the Fencil of our Own News-Gatherer.

Duck shooting began on the 1st inst.
Our local sports have not yet been heard from.

Mr. Stearns Ransom, of Delta, is buying hogs by the carload, and shipping them from Brockville.

The Rev. Wm. Blair, formerly of Farmersville, has returned to Almonte from a trip to the old country.

The Methodist Harvest Home last night was a great success. Our report is held over until next week.

The REPORTER from now to the end of 1887 for 25 cents. Order it if you want all the news about the farms in this county.

LOST.—On Saturday last, between Charles Lake and Farmersville, a black serge overcoat. Finder will please leave the missing article at the residence of the Rev. R. N. Jones, Farmersville.

On Wednesday last eight cars laden with silk and vermicelli, arrived in Brockville per C. P. R., en route from Japan to New York.

His many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. M. A. Everetts, of Easton's Corners, passed the recent solicitors' examinations.

Mr. Geo. W. Green is now a full fledged solicitor, having successfully passed the recent examination held in Toronto. We congratulate our fellow-townsmen.

FOR SALE.—Maro—eight years old; roan; also Top Harey and Harness, in good repair. All can be bought for $150. Apply to S. SHELTON, Farmersville.

Unionville Fair, Sept. 14th, 15th and 16th; Delta, Sept. 27th and 28th; Frankville, Sept. 29th and 30th; Lyndhurst, Sept. 29th and 30th; Newboro, Sept. 20th and 21st.

Mr. A. Coad, Toledo, has concluded a sale, at 12 3/16 cents, of the product of the Silver Creek, Robinson's Mills and Newbiss cheese factories, during the last three months of this season.

There was an interesting meeting in the Baptist Church, Brockville, the occasion being the bidding farewell to Miss Alexander, prior to her departure for India, whither she goes as a missionary.

A very promising two-year-old colt, of the Rysdik strain, passed through here on Monday. Its height is 15 hands 1 inch; weight, 915 pounds; color, a beautiful jet black. The colt is owned by Mr. D. McClarry, of McIntosh Mills.

Jerrold Arlington Cook, of New Orleans, the celebrated temperance orator, will this evening lecture in the North Church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Subject of Lecture: "Is Liquor Selling a Crime?" The chair will be taken punctually at eight o'clock.

A very serious accident happened at Greenhill yesterday (Monday). A number of persons were engaged in felling some trees on the grounds of the Methodist Church, at that place, to make room for some sheds that are about being removed to another position. Several persons were standing around, when an axe in the hands of Reuben Peav, jr., came off the handle and struck Omer Willoughby on the leg, near the knee, inflicting a serious and painful wound. Dr. Cornell was sent for, and dressed the wound.

The following, from the Montreal Gazette, will be read with interest by cheesemongers.—One of the largest transactions in cheese that has ever taken place on this market was accomplished on Saturday, when the balance of the make of the Allan-Grove combination, which comprises 66 factories, was bought by a Montreal firm. The quantity involved is about 25,000 boxes, and the price paid was 12 7/8 cents for August, and 18 cents for September and October. To give an idea of the size of the transaction it is only necessary to state that the 25,000 boxes represent a value of about $225,000.

The Rev. Mr. Emerson, of Westport, preached in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening. The congregation were impressed with the earnest and gifted eloquence of the preacher.

Messrs. Webster & Whelan, contractors for the portion of the B. & W. R. R. between Westport and Newboro, are advertising in Perth papers for 200 men to work on the line.

Yesterday afternoon a number of local sports assembled on the trotting track to witness an informal race between R. B. Algure's "Little Mac" and Lew. Wiltse's "Belle," for stakes of $10 a side. The pace was lively and the race exciting. "Little Mac" was the winner, taking two straight heats.

The Financial Meeting of the Brockville District of the Methodist Church will be held at Lyn, on Wednesday, 25th inst., beginning at 9.30 a. m. The Sunday School Convention in connection with the District will be held at the same place on the previous day. The exercises will comprise a children's meeting at 2.30 p. m., and a meeting in the evening for general discussion.

The Rev. Mr. Greener, of Lansday, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday morning. Mr. Greener is an old and much loved friend of the Rev. Mr. Rogers, and was a guest at the parsonage during his stay in Farmersville. Notwithstanding his advanced age, 75 years, Mr. Greener retains his mental faculties to a remarkable degree. For the last sixteen years he has been the financier for the Lindsay District, a post requiring first-class business tact and ability, and which he fills to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

The regular monthly meeting of the Farmersville Auxiliary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society in connection with the Presbyterian Church, was held on Thursday afternoon (1st of Sept.) at the residence of the pastor. Since its formation some time ago through the instrumentality of Mrs. Blair, of Prescott, the auxiliary has increased in interest and usefulness and at the meeting on Thursday last, three new members were received. The occasion was taken advantage of by the society to entertain their president (Mrs. Pullar) and family to tea, in what may be called the manse parlour, and with this object in view the visitors brought with them the materials for a recherche repast, which having found their way to the dining room table, presented a very rich and attractive appearance. The business of the auxiliary being concluded, the company sat down to tea, and enjoyed the good things so abundantly provided. The gathering was a most enjoyable one in every way, and it may be mentioned as an item of interest, that the china used on the occasion, some of which deserves to be described as antique, was brought by the President of the Society all the way from the metropolis of Scotland, and that amongst others, Mrs. Saunders, son, and Mrs. Dr. Addison were accorded the distinction of drinking tea last Thursday evening out of china cups over 200 years old.

The Presbyterian congregation, recently organized under the pastoral charge of the Rev. James Pullar celebrated their first sacramental communion on Sabbath the 28th ult. This being the first time such a service has been held here according to Presbyterian usage, the occasion was of more than ordinary interest to many. There was a large attendance, the church being completely filled. After the usual devotional exercises, the pastor delivered an appropriate discourse from Ex. xxiv. 11. "Also they saw God and did eat and drink." The elders elect (Messrs. Arch. Kincaid and Ed. Tennant) were then ordained to office by prayer and laying on of hands. These, with the minister, compose the session of the congregation. The roll of membership having been read, the audience joined in singing the communion hymn, (paraphrase xxxv.) during which the elders uncovered the sacred elements, and, with the minister took their place at the communion table. The intending communicants—upwards of fifty in number—including several members of other christian churches, (to whom a cordial invitation to participate in the sacred ordinance was extended) occupied the centre of the church. The Lord's supper was then observed in the simple but impressive form of the Presbyterian church, and after a brief address and the singing of a hymn, the solemn service was closed with the benediction. At the preparatory service held on the Thursday evening previous, the rite of baptism was administered to eight candidates for membership, who were afterwards received into full communion.

The whole course of instruction is thorough and practical. The building is large and commodious, beautifully located, and its external and internal arrangements are in every way calculated to promote the health and progress of the student. An excellent Library and Laboratory have been secured. Those wishing to prepare especially for teaching will find excellent facilities in this school. It is highly desirable that students should commence at the beginning of the term and continue until the close.

RECORD FOR 1887. One matriculated in Toronto University with Honors in Mathematics; one passed Law Society's examinations; two out of five obtained 2nd Class, and 23 out of 36 obtained 3rd Class certificates.

For further particulars apply to the Principal. I. C. ALGUIRE, Secretary.

Unionville Fair Notes. Entries are beginning to come in. The cattle stalls have been finished by the committee. The stalls numbered nearly one hundred, and are the best east of Kingston.

There are more enquiries for space this year than ever before.

Mr. W. A. Webster, of Kingston, will show a splendid collection of the products of Manitoba and the North-west.

The Singer Sewing Machine Co. will exhibit 27 different styles and sizes of sewing machines.

Mr. N. H. Beecher expects to make an exhibit which will astonish those who attend the fair.

Mr. J. H. Gallagher will make a fine display of organs and sewing machines.

The Gananoque Carriage Works Co., Messrs. W. L. Kelly and C. Cole, and others, are asking for room to show carriages, etc.

Mr. W. L. Maley, Brockville, will show one of the finest displays of boots, shoes and rubbers ever seen at a county fair.

Some of our most prominent stock breeders will this year try to surpass all previous efforts in making a large and creditable display.
