WHAT HE WEARS.

Comfortable Collars—The Convenient Cost Shirt in Favor.

It is the thoroughly well dressed man whose collar absolutely fits, and the precision herein expressed is carried into every detail of his apparel.
To such dressers it will be interesting news that a favorite brand of collars is now being made in quarter inch sizes. The former half inch scale proved inadequate to many men, a found a given number of inches a trifle small and an additional half inch just a shade too large. Splitting the difference has brought the fitting to a nicety never before attained, for with quarter, half, three-quarter and full sizes at command there is no possible excuse for man's discomfort in apparel, so far as his collars are concerned.

As far as styles in collars are concerned, fashion laws are not stringent, and conservative masculine dressers avail themselves of the blessed privilege of wearing whatever they consider is most becoming. More depends on how a thing is worn and when it is worn than just exactly what specific shape is worn. With a proper understanding of what items should and should not be worn in conjunction, and a reasonable compliance with the time and place requirements of dress ethics, a man is at liberty to follow his individual preferences.

Both wing and fold collars are popular, and, while the fold has heretofore been almost universally identified with strictly negligee dress, it will be particularly smart this season to wear with a plaited, soft bosom shirt a low wing collar, supplemented by—not a four-in-hand, but a soft, broad end tie. The latest shapes in fold collars show well rounded points, brought closely together, or having moderate spacing; also the ultra fashionable shape, with sharp points three inches in depth.

In all collars medium heights prevail. This is speaking comparatively, for medium to one man may mean high to another and low to the third, and the correct height must afford no suggestion of a whitewashed fence surrounding the ears nor, on the other hand, leave an expanse of bare neck

LATEST SHAPES IN FOLD COLLARS.

between the coat collar and hair. The former is bad enough, but the latter is positively criminal. Three of the newest shapes in fold collars are pictured on this page, and any one of them will prove comfortable for warm weather wear.

Shirts and shirtings are this season particularly attractive, showing a preponderance of fine, soft textures in delicate colorings and artistic designs.
Gray is strongly in the lead, and some of its combinations with either white or black are immensely effective. Gun metal colorings are even more in fashion than last summer and have a delightful coolness of appearance.

The vogue of the coat shirt steadily increases, and the only wonder is that any other cut can exist. Any shirt which opens all the way down the front comes under this title. The coat shirt in dress form as it originally appeared proved an immediate success and has now extended its province to all kinds, the latest development being the soft bosom negligee. The wash silk negligee shirt, by the way, has proved such a comfortable garment in the past that it will have neither the probability nor more summers of popularity.—Designer.

The Bolero in Its Latest Guise.
The sketch shows one of the season's latest productions so clearly that description is superfluous. The features

NEW BOLERO.

of the model obviously are the wing-like sleeves, cleverly contrived in one with the bolero, which, by the bye, is perfectly tight fitting at the back.

On the Day's Outing.
Before starting on an all day trip, anoint the face in the morning with a good cold cream or white vaseline well rubbed into the skin. This prevents its burning. A little face powder of good quality puffed on top of the cold cream or vaseline is better still and lessens the effect of wind and sun on the skin.

FOR WOMEN

Much That Every Woman
Desires to Know

About Sanative Antiseptic
Cleansing

And about the Care of the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands

Too much stress cannot be placed on the great value of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent in the antiseptic cleansing of the mucous surfaces, and of the blood and circulating fluids, thus affording pure, sweet and economical local and constitutional treatment for weakening ulcerations, inflammations, itchings, irritations, relaxations, displacements, pains and irregularities peculiar to females. Hence the Cuticura remedies have a wonderful influence in restoring health, strength and beauty to weary women, who have been prematurely aged and inviolated by these detracting ailments, as well as such sympathetic afflictions as anemia, chlorosis, hysteria and nervousness.

Women from the very first have fully appreciated the purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy which have made the Cuticura remedies the standard household remedies of the civilized world.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scabs and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for annoying irritations and ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

Cuticura Resolvent, liquid and in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Soap are sold throughout the world. Agents: London, 27, Chancery Lane; Paris, 1, Rue de la Paix; Australia, 2, Yvonne & Co., Sydney; Boston, 127 Columbus Ave.; Potter Drug &

How We Breathe.

Men and women do not breathe alike.
In a woman the breathing is from the thorax, or chest, while in a man it is mainly from the diaphragm, which is lower down. This peculiar difference is so marked that it is possible to recognize by a woman disguised as a man, although the disguise may be faultless in other respects. Most physiologists say that this difference is not due to sex, but owing to artificial conditions, such as the wearing of corsets.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS IS CAUS-ED

By a thickening of the lining membrane of the middle ear owing to prolonged inflammation from catarrhal germs. The only cure is catarrhal healing. Catarrhal deafness, one which is caused by the air you breathe to the remote parts of the throat and ear, it reaches the source of the trouble and cures deafness permanently. Every sufferer from impaired hearing should use Catarrhal Deafness, which has effected many wonderful cures. You simply breathe its healing medicated vapor—very easy and pleasant. Do this and your hearing will be restored. Catarrhal deafness never fails: it is guaranteed. Two months' treatment for $1.00 at druggists.

Minerva and the Flute.

A recent historian suggests a reason why the flute is not popular with ladies. "Minerva in ancient Greece," he says, "began to play the flute, thinking it such a beautiful instrument she needs must learn it. But one day, looking in a mirror while she was playing, she saw to her horror that the act of blowing the flute communicated a very inelegant distortion to her face, and in a pet she threw the instrument away.
Perhaps the feelings of the fair sex toward the flute have been insensibly influenced by a similar consideration." other. Mrs. Housekeeper—Well, why do you not use that? Weary Walker—Because, ma'am, that firm failed about five years ago.

STAINED GLASS WORK.

An Art in Which Methods Have Not Changed Much in Centuries.

The twentieth century American stained glass maker follows without important variation the simple methods of the French monk of eight centuries ago. The first requisite is the design. The artist makes a small water color sketch to show the general design and color scheme, accompaning it with detailed studies. From this two large drawings or cartoons are made, the exact size of the desired window. One cartoon shows where the leads will be placed—the thin strips of lead, hollowed on both sides and looking in a transverse section like the letter H, which form the framework to bind the pieces of glass together.
Another drawing gives the size and shape of each piece of glass. This cartoon is cut into its component pieces by a pair (or triplet) of three bladed scissors, which leave between their parallel blades a space sufficient for the leads. These cut out patterns are put together again on a large glass easel, to which they are attached by wax, and the spaces between are blacked in to give the effect of the leads.

The easel is then placed against a window where the light can stream through it. The artist or his substitute replaces each paper pattern on the easel by a piece of glass of exactly the same size, cut from a sheet of glass of the color called for by the color sketch.
The sketch is not followed exactly; experiment with the actual glass will suggest improvements. To a greater or less extent this stained glass is supplemented by painted glass, on which the colors are fired as in china painting. When all the pieces have been cut they are transferred to the "leading" drawing, the flexible leads are twisted into shape and soldered at the joints and a special cement applied to make the whole water tight. The window is now complete, ready to be put in position, where it is made secure by copper wires fastened to the transverse bars of iron.

Mark Antony's Mistake.

At a performance of "Julius Caesar" at Hurst college, England, some time ago, Mark Antony made a mistake when the dead body of Caesar was brought in. He apostrophized the fallen hero with impassioned eloquence, and the audience felt acutely for the poor citizens, who were all presumably horror struck and overcome with grief, when Antony gently but firmly grasped, as he thought, the face cloth and slowly, very slowly, began to draw it back. Just then an excited whisper came from the other end of the corpse, "This end, you fool!" But Antony was inexorably wrapped in grief. He persevered and disclosed to the intently gazing audience Julius Caesar's boots.

Clever Smuggling Trick.

Smuggling from Geneva into France used to be carried on at a great rate.
Alexandre Dumas tells how Beaute, a famous watchmaker of that city renowned for his skill in smuggling, got the better of the Count de Saint Cric, King Louis Philippe's director of customs, who was traveling as a detective. The count bought 30,000 francs' worth of jewelry on condition that it should be delivered free of duty in Paris. When he went up to his bedroom on arriving at the French capital he found his purchases on the dressing table. Beaute had bribed the count's valet to stow them away among his luggage.

Hard on the Doctor.

Weel, Tam, are ye gaun hame wi' your work?" was the invariable greeting of a doctor to a tailor of his acquaintance when he met him carrying a bundle. Once the tailor saw the doctor walking in a funeral procession, "Weel, doctor, are ye gaun hame wi' your work?" he asked.—From Reminiscences, by Sir Archibald Geikie.

Make Yourself Felt.

Let your education be so broad and thorough that, whether you paint pictures, write books, sell merchandise, make contracts or cultivate land, you will make yourself felt in your community as an all round man of broad ideas and general culture.—Success.

foot eat his words?"
"No. The tenderfoot turned out to be one of those fellows who would rather fight than eat."

Soothing His Path.

make a proposal in your life. Why did you tell Miss Prettie that you were engaged to two girls? George—So she'd want to get me away from them.

Artists' Difficulties in Painting Men.

Artists will tell you it is no easy thing to paint a man in a frock coat so that he shall appeal picturesquely to the casual wayfarer. The modern habilliments affected by the male person do not lend themselves to artistic reproduction on canvas. There are no scintillating colors, no fine lines of form, in a trousered poseur, and to achieve a successful portrait of a man is to spell the artist's capabilities in capital letters. With women models—well, there the story is of a different cast, just as woman herself is so wholly different, so enchantingly complex.
