(Toronto World, 27th.)

Those people who have been drumming it into our ears for weeks back that Mowat was going don't know what they are talking about. Mowat didn't go yesterday. He had no intention of going. He never had any such intention. He doesn't propose to go in the immediate fature, either. Mowat is a fixture. It's all very well for men to get up and shout, "Mowat must go," but how in the dickens are you going to make him go? That's what people are wan ing so know. It svalts nothing for Meredith and The Empire to rage like the heathen against Mowat and to tell the propie that they've go him on the run and that he's going this time, dead sure. What are the facts? When the game is over we find the old man seated at ease on his own verandiah, smoking his pipe of constentment and wearing in craggerated form the bland and guideless rulle that is won't to characterize the Mowat profile. Mowat must go! It's the other man who has to do all the "going." Mowat at least won't go. That's settled. Men may come and men may go, but he stays on for ever. There's no use running up against a brick wall. The "grand old capitain" has again been put in charge of the ship of state and away she sails with colors flying in the air. The man who got up that catchword, "Mowat must go," ought to be extracized for disturbing the peace. Mowat inn't of the going kind. Mowat will die in harness. Or if he resigns while in office they going kind. Mowat will die in harness and a silver medal. Jull ullinniased address and a silver medal, and his last days will be spent in that sort of peace that passeth all understanding. Mowat and the old silver medal and will die in harness. Or if he resigns while in office the policy. Make no mistake about it, Mowat will yet be canonized in St. Michael's Clathedral. He will be ionscribed the words "Saint Oliver." Thus do we prophesy of Mowat in this life and in the life to come. Toronto, June 28.—The changes in the elastion returns are the substitution in the Liberal column of West Algoma for Haldimand, Mr., Commes being again returned for the former, while Dr. Baster, who has represented Haldimand since Confederation, is defeated by a Patron. phesy of Mowat in this life and in the life to come.

As for Meredith let him inspect his armor. He will find it defective. Evidently he needs newer devices of warfare. Why doesn't he try smokeless powder? Why inn't he olad is Dowe's new bullet-proof clothing? The balle have coarrad him pretty badly this time. He should have been better prepared for the shower of lead that has fallen among him and his followers. The best word that we can say in his behalf is that he was over confident. He, like the rest of them, relied on the idea that "Mowat was going." whereas it is now evident that Mowat had no intentic whatever of going. We think Davy Oreighton must assume most of the responsibility for the disaster of yeslerday. He kept on saying, 'Yes, Mowat is going,' and it is hinted that he told Meredith he had got it direct from Bir Oliver himself that it was his intention to "go." Davy, it appears, is hard of hearing. What Mowat really said was that he was "going in." Davy's auditory lobes didn't gather up the last word, and he took it to mean that Mowat was "going" in the sense that I am the calf with a cough— I notice you people all laugh— But the cough is so cough that now I'm really a to cough that now I'm getting the petter—kerchoo! I've got the most preclous of threa you have to many Jamous bases.

Whenever I cough—kerchoo!
Each heeler awakes from his nap:
And the Province I love—with you—
Is shook from the wealth you—
Is shook from the map.
Is shook from the map.
And thousands at dollars would sooff
If they only could gaze upon me,
The wonderfulcalf with a cough.
Chorus—I am the calf, etc.

King Louis was wanting in wits, Old Abe was built like a pump Mahomet was troubled with fits, And Richard the Third had a hump. The future historian—see? Will at these unfortunates scoff; The pslm he'll award unto me, The world famous calf with a cough. Chorus-I am the calf, etc.

in," Davy's auditory lobes diffn's gamer up the last word, and he took it to mean that Mowat was "going" in the sense that Charlie Henderson uses the word when he is selling household furniture. Truly great events often turn on trifls the most inguisionst. How different might it all have been had Davy put a sound trumpet to his ear, or make use of one of those sounding boards that the man who is hard of hearing puts between his teeth! They're all very anxious for me, And they send me their love, poor sculs, In the hopes that I'm worse, they of see? I have not whenever I begin it.

For shekels I pass round my trough. The loud-iunged stump speaker sin's in it with the biae blooded call with a cough. Chorus-I am the calf, etc.
