

PERSONALS

Mrs. Eastwood of Toronto is visiting the Misses Parker.

Mrs. George F. McWilliam is visiting friends in Moncton.

Mr. Charles Rae attended the St. John Exhibition last week.

Mr. Hudson Sprout is attending Mt Allison Academy Sackville.

Mrs. C. C. Hamilton has returned from a visit to friends in Shediac.

Mrs. H. B. Cassidy attended the Exhibition in St. John last week.

Mrs. William J. Keating was in St. John last week attending the Exhibition.

Mrs. Lydia Copp is visiting her aunt Mrs. Thos. Petrie, of South Brewer, Maine.

Miss Agnes Russell, who spent the summer at Youhall returned home last Thursday.

Mrs. Allan G. Putnam and family have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in P. E. Island.

Mr. R. H. Armstrong was confined to his home last week suffering from rheumatism.

Mrs. Muriel Bate has returned to Montreal, to resume her duties in the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mrs. O. N. Brown and little son George have returned to their home in New Glasgow.

Miss Nan Nicholson has gone to New York where she will enter St. Luke's Hospital as a student nurse.

Mrs. Perley Brown and Miss Bertha Lindon were in St. John last week attending the Exhibition.

Mrs. Aiken was in Montreal last week, the guest of her son Lord Heavensbrook at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mrs. D. W. Stothart returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Moncton.

Mr. Samuel Russell of Bangor, Maine, who has been visiting relatives here returned to his home on Friday.

Miss Loll Keenan, has returned to Boston, after spending her vacation with her sister Mrs. Vincent MacEachern, Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McEvoy were delightedly surprised by a number of friends on Friday evening, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

HAPPY HOUR
WEDNESDAY
Mary Pickford"The Heart of the Hills"

Mary Pickford can shoot and she shoots to kill in this story, when it comes to avenging the death of her 'Pap' who is slain by a feudist bullet.

Matinee at 4 o'clock
PRICES
Matinee 10 and 25 cts.
Night 25 and 35 cts.

THURSDAY

Thos. Ince Presents

Charles Ray

"Alarm Clock Andy"

This youthful star, as Andy Gray has a tough time making a hit in the business world, with his stuttering and excessive shyness.

FRI. & SAT.

Tom Moore

"Dubs"

5th. Episode of
"The Invisible Hand"
Mutt & Jeff Comedy
Matinee Sat. at 4 o'clock

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

We are again making all possible preparations for the re-opening of schools and have now in stock books for all grades.

Scribblers, Note Books, Slates, (all sizes), pencils, the little Sundries far too numerous to enumerate.

Come early the rush during the first week is inevitable.

Strickland & Co.

OLLANSELE & Co.

NOTICE

After Sept. 9th, Str. Alexandra will not return to Newcastle on Thursday evenings. Commencing Oct. 1st Alexandra will call at Hardwick on Wednesdays and Fridays and one call a day at Bay-du-Vin on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Miramichi River Service Ltd.
37-2

WANTED

Laborers, Quarrymen, Derrick hoist runners, Locomotive crane runner, Engineer for stationary steam plant, Millwright, Machinist, Blacksmith, Carpenters, Chore Boy, Man and wife as farm hand and housekeeper.

The Miramichi Quarry Co. Ltd.
37-2 Quarryville

Notice

All persons are hereby notified that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted in my name by my wife Mrs. A. J. Maloney, or any other person. Signed

A. J. MALONEY

Lost

Will the person, who took the wheel-barrow from off my premises last week without my authority, kindly return same at once, and save expenses, as the party who took same is known.

Mrs. William Russell
Prince William St.
Newcastle, N. B.

their honeymoon, and on their return will reside in Newcastle.

GILL-POWER

St. Patrick's church, Nelson (N. B.) was the scene of a pretty wedding on September 5, when Richard Gill, of Barnaby River, was married to Stella Power, daughter of Mrs. Mary Power, of Nelson. The ceremony was performed with auspicious mass, by Rev. Father Power. They were attended by Miss Marie Power, sister of the bride, and George McDade, of Chatham. The bride was given away by her brother, Harry Power, and looked charming in white satin and georgette dress gown with veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore pale blue silk and georgette crepe with hat of turquoise blue velvet and ostrich plumes. There were many beautiful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check. Mr. and Mrs. Gill left on the Ocean Limited for Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and others cities.

LOGIE-HUBBARD

The marriage of Harry R. Logie, son of Mrs. M. R. Logie, of Chatham and Miss Mary A. Hubbard, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Hubbard, of Gaselle, took place on Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard, of Gaselle. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Perley, looked charming in a bit of dress of champagne georgette with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. Greenwood and the young couple were welcomed. With the bride and groom came Mr. and Mrs. Logie on a trip through the province and in the afternoon they returned to return Mr. and Mrs. Logie will reside in Chatham.

Millinery Exposition
FRIDAY SEPT. 17
MISS BLAINE will have on display for your approval, her personal selection of the latest Parisian and New York creations
PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN EACH PATRON

Just arrived—a full and complete line of Ladies Fall & Winter Coats
Over 100 to choose from, no two alike
A nice line of FURS
Ranging in Price from $20.00 to $150.00
Per Set.
Also a full line of
Men's Ulster Coats and Mackinaws
Give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Our prices are right
A. J. BELL & COMPANY

Lantic Sugar

THERE is yet time to preserve the autumn fruit for winter enjoyment. LANTIC "Fine" retains all the bouquet of sun-ripened Pears and Peaches. How your folks will enjoy the clear, white, delectably-flavoured pears, the rich peaches whole and luscious! LANTIC goodness is more melting, it dissolves at once in the hot syrup without over-cooking.

you will like it

fine!

ATLANTIC SUGAR REFINERIES, LIMITED, MONTREAL

2 IN 1

Save the Leather
SHOE POLISHES
THE BIG VALUE BOX
For black, white, tan, ox-blood and dark brown shoes

SOUTH NELSON

Labor day was an ideal picnic day. The Presbyterian Sunday School held their picnic in the grove adjoining the church about seventy-five children and grown ups sat down to a sumptuous repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Flett and son Vincent of Amherst visited Mrs. Flett's mother, Mrs. Allan Flett last week.

Miss Theresa McLeod spent Wednesday afternoon with her sister Mrs. Lester MacKenzie.

Mr. Andrew Flett has returned from a business trip down the bay.

Mr. Robert Anle of Douglasfield is the guest of his aunt Mr. Frank McLaughlin.

Miss Kathryn Brown has accepted a position as stenographer for Mr. F. Williston, Newcastle.

The many friends of Mrs. Everett Bateman will regret to learn she has been taken to the hospital for treatment.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Harry Brown on Monday evening in honor of her relatives who were visiting her from Amherst and Portland. Master Vincent Flett of Amherst, a promising violinist gave several selections during the evening.

Mr. Geo. Flett returned home Friday night from Fredericton, where she spent the week with her daughter Miss Rene Sherard of St. John is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. Sherard.

Miss Annie Flett is spending the week at the Exhibition, St. John.

Mrs. C. E. Brown and daughter Ethel left Thursday for the Nash-week to visit Mrs. J. A. McLagan.

Mrs. Will MacKenzie gave a tea on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. D. C. Fraser of Portland. Among the guests were Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Allan Flett, Miss Gusie Flett, Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Allan MacKenzie.

WEDDINGS

CREAGHAN-MACKENZIE

The marriage of Miss Annie Marie MacKenzie, daughter of Mrs. Ernest A. Ross of Logieville, and Gerald Francis Creaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Creaghan, Newcastle, was solemnized at Kenogami, Quebec, on August 30th, Rev. Father La Point, officiating.

GIFFORD-McMURRAY

On Monday evening, September 6th, at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. L. H. MacLean united in marriage Miss Ida M. MacMurray, youngest daughter of Mrs. Janie MacMurray, and William J. Gifford, formerly of Buxton. The bride, who was given away by her brother, James MacMurray, wore her travelling suit of beige velvet, with hat of silk beaver to match, an Alaska sable fur, and corsage bouquet of sweet peas.

The happy couple left by auto for a visit with friends in Moncton and St. John.

The presents received included cut glass, linen and silver, with a substantial check from the firm of the Lounsbury Co., of which the bride and groom were both employees.

LAWLOR-HENRY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Church of Our Lady of the Snows, Campbellton, N. B. Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock when the Rev. Father Melanson united in holy bonds of matrimony Miss Marion Marguerite Inez Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry of Campbellton, to Mr. John Landy Lawlor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lawlor of Newcastle.

The bride, who looked charming in a suit of navy blue with black picture hat and mole skin stole, carried a shower bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, to which the immediate relatives and friends of contracting parties were invited.

The happy couple left for a wedding tour to Detroit, Buffalo and Niagara. On their return they will reside in Newcastle.

RITCHIE-FRASER

A wedding of local interest took place last Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 6th, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, in New Glasgow, N. S., when Mr. David Ritchie of Newcastle, N. B., was united in marriage to Miss Marjorie Isabel Fraser, daughter of Mrs. Simon Fraser of 206 Washington Avenue, New Glasgow, N. S. Mr. Harold Ritchie of Newcastle, N. B., brother of the groom acted as groomsmen, and Misses Helen and Jean Fraser, sisters of the bride were the bridesmaids. The happy couple left for Upper Canadian cities to spend