

The Charlottetown Herald.

NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1916

VOL. XLV., No. 4

Mail Contract

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon on Friday, the 24th Nov. 1916, for the conveyance of His Majesty's mails, on a proposed Contract for four years six times per week.

Overseas Mail Route No. 4 from Wellington Station, P. E. Island, from the Postmaster General's office. Printed notices containing further information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Post Office of Wellington Station and all other offices, and at the office of the Post Office Inspector.

Post Office Inspector Office, C. W. Town, Oct. 13th, 1916, Oct. 18th, 1916-31

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Land Regulations

Any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, may homestead a quarter section, or available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 30 acres wholly owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister. In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $2.00 per acre.

Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption site within 10 miles of the same from date of homestead entry (including the time required to homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $5.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $500.00.

W. W. COBB, Deputy Minister of the Interior

Fire Insurance

Possibly from an oversight or want of thought you have put off insuring, or placing additional insurance to adequately protect yourself against loss by fire.

ACT NOW! CALL UP

DEBLOIS BROS., Charlottetown

Water Street, Phone 321.

June 30, 1915-3m

JOB WORK!

Executed with Neatness and Despatch at the HERALD Office.

Charlottetown P. E. Island

Check Books
Dodgers
Note Books of Hand
Letter Heads
Receipt Books
Posters
Tickets
Bill Heads

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS Prince Edward Island Railway.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT OCTOBER 2nd, 1916.

Trains Outward, Read Down.				Trains Inward, Read Up.
P. M.	A. M.	A. M.		A. M.	P. M.	P. M.	A. M.
8.45	11.50	7.35	Dep. Charlottetown Ar.	11.40	10.15	10.30
5.00	1.15	8.30	" Hunt's River "	10.36	9.20	9.03
5.45	2.06	9.02	" Emerald Jet "	9.59	8.48	6.15	8.00
6.22	2.49	9.27	" Kensington "	9.27	8.23	5.30
7.09	3.30	9.50	Ar. Summerside Dep.	9.00	8.00	4.50
			Dep. Summerside Ar.	8.45	5.05
			" Port Hill "	7.48	3.31
			" O'Leary "	7.03	2.07
			Ar. Alberton Dep.	6.19	12.35
			Ar. Tignish Dep.	5.45	12.00
			Dep. Emerald Jet Ar.	8.35	7.50
			Ar. Cape Traverse Dep.	8.00	7.00
			Dep. Charlottetown Ar.	9.45	5.50
			" Mt. Stewart "	8.35	4.10
			" Morell "	8.07	3.24
			" St. Peter's "	7.44	2.50
			Ar. Souris Dep.	6.40	1.25
			Ar. Elmira Dep.	5.30
			Dep. Mt. Stewart Ar.	8.35	3.50
			" Cardigan "	7.40	2.39
			" Montague "	7.16	2.10
			Ar. Georgetown Dep.	6.40	1.30
			Dep. Charlottetown Ar.	9.45	5.35
			" Vernon River "	8.31	4.01
			Ar. Murray Harbor Dep.	7.00	2.00

FARMERS AND STOCK MEN!

We have a large supply of

FEEDS

On hand which we are selling at lowest possible prices.

Bran, Middlings, Oil Cake, Cracked Corn, Cornmeal, Linseed Meal, Calf Meal, Cotton Seed Meal, Molassine Meal, Shorts, Feed, Flour, Cracked Mixed Grain, Wheat for Feed, Hay, Oats' etc.

Poultry Supplies

Wholesale and Retail.

CARTER and COMPANY, Ltd

P. O. Drawer 38. Phone 70

Many Women Suffer From Pains in the Back.

When the back begins to ache it is a sure sign that there is something radically wrong with the kidneys.

What you want is a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills are not a cure-all, but a medicine for the kidneys only.

Mrs. L. McLean, Plymouth, N.S., writes: "I am sending you this testimonial, telling you what a wonderful cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me. For years I had suffered so with my kidneys I could hardly do any housework. I used several kinds of pills, but none of them seemed to do me any good. At last I was advised to try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. When I had taken the first box I found relief. I have used five boxes and to-day I feel like a new woman. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Doan's Kidney Pills bear the trade mark of a man with a red back. Be sure you get the genuine.

Price 50c a box, 3 for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by THE T. McLENNAN CO., LIMITED, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

POWEA OF KIND WORDS.

Ruskin said that the training which makes men happiest in themselves makes them most serviceable to others, and his statement would be equally true with its parts transposed; service to others is one of the shortest roads to happiness. In fact, there is no such thing as selfish happiness; subjective thought narrows the mind, self-aggrandisement hardens the heart, tangible things alone do not bring lasting satisfaction. Spirituality is the essence of goodness, they who turn sunshine into the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

What an exquisite provision of the all-wise Creator—this reflex effect of kindness, and how blind we must be not to see it! Even on the grounds of selfishness, it pays. Whether the light of one's heart penetrates its object or is rejected, it returns softened, etherealized. "It is another's fault if he be ungrateful; but it is mine if I do not give," said Seneca.

The easiest things to give—the most inexpensive yet the most valuable—are words, kind, encouraging, helpful words. "Words are things," yes and more, they are builders or wreckers and it rests with the speaker as to whether they shall be constructive or destructive. Words of encouragement often give more actual help than money or influence. A friend may furnish us capital or secure the necessary "pull" through duty or obligation, but such assistance touches our personal powers only superficially; what stimulates purpose and energy, makes us believe in ourselves and that our purpose is worthy, are words of cheer—a manifestation of personal interest, with a brotherly pat on the shoulder.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DYPHTHERIA.

Mrs. Flatbush—Does your husband speak any language but English?

Mrs. Bensonhurst—I think so. He often speaks a language in his sleep I don't understand.

A SENSIBLE MERCHANT

Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders give women prompt relief from monthly pains, and leave no bad after effects what ever. Be sure you get Milburn's. Price 25 and 50 cts.

Teacher—What's the greatest nation on earth?

Johnny—Great Britain.

Teacher—No, Johnny, you should never say that a foreign nation is greater than your own.

Johnny—Well, Great Britain is taking away everything we have, with one hand, and pulling our leg with the other, and when we protest, laughs at us. If any boy did that to me I'd ask him to stop, and if he didn't stop, I'd make him. If he got away with it, it would only be because he were a better man than I.

Teacher—Johnny, you are pro-German. I am surprised.

You stay after school and write "America first" one hundred times.

BEWARE OF WORMS.

Don't let worms gnaw at the vitals of your children. Give them Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and they'll soon be rid of these parasites. Price 25c.

"Papa is gittin' kinder discouraged," remarked Hiram Wayback.

"How so?" asked the neighbor.

"Wa-a-l, he's pested nigh onto ten thousand medical receipts into a book durin' the last forty years, an' he ain't had a sick day yet."

There is nothing harsh about Laxa-Liver Pills. They cure Constipation, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, and Bilious Spells without griping, purging or so. Price 25 cts.

About the toughest thing on earth we know of, next to restaurant steak, is the office-boy in a newspaper office.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DISTEMPER.

Sick Headache and Billousness CURED BY MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

Mrs. Willard Tower, Hillsboro, N.E., writes: "I have suffered something awful with sick headache. At times I would become bilious, and would have severe pains in my stomach after eating, and have a bad taste in my mouth every morning. I told some of my friends about it and I was advised to use Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. This I did and they cured me."

When the liver becomes sluggish and inactive, the bowels become constipated, the tongue becomes coated, the stomach full and sick and bilious headaches occur. Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills clean the foul coated tongue and stomach and banish the disagreeable headaches.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c per vial, 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by THE T. McLENNAN CO., LIMITED, Toronto, Ont.

POWEA OF KIND WORDS.

We must dwell a moment on this power of kind words to disarm angry passion; its possibilities are limitless. There is a beautiful philosophy, a cumulative benefit in it that grows at all points simultaneously. It is contagious, this plan of conquest. A man who rises in anger, and finds himself pacified in five minutes, is sure to reflect on the rationale of the bloodless victory. It dawns on him that it takes two to make a fight, and the small voice within suggests that he cultivate the method by which he was overcome to his own advantage.

Invariably, people are surprised at their self-satisfaction when they first prove that kind words turn away wrath. Instead of feeling cowardly or sycophantic, they have a strange consciousness of power, a mastery of self and externals, that shows the folly of a "chip on the shoulder" attitude, and confirms the Bible's words: "He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding, but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly."

And kind words act and react on the body. The recipient is braced for new effort by the kindly interest of his fellow man. He squares his shoulders literally as well as figuratively, drinks in more oxygen—lives a fuller, cleaner life. The speaker feels the current of real, earnest vibrant life within him. The calmness, purpose, breadth of the objective life are sure to improve one's physical state. "Pleasant words are as honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones," says the inspired writer. What folly to neglect such an opportunity of enriching ourselves by enriching others!

Argument is the vehicle of any unkind, and often foolish, words. At first thought, we would expect the debated classes to be the most tolerant, the slowest to anger. They, more than others, should appreciate the utility of such a course, and their respect for fact should outweigh personalities. On the contrary, it seems that a little learning is a dangerous thing, often the educated surprise us with their readiness to direct a friendly argument into channels of personality. Is it that they are originally hypersensitive, or does control of expression decrease with increase of receptivity? Untenable! But it sometimes seems so. Argument among those untrained for it always carries some hostility. The average person "gets nowhere" in argument. Discussion is the proper means of interchanging ideas and beliefs. It can proceed with kindness and need never degenerate into scornful or violent language.

Let us talk with each other. Let each bring to the common centre what he knows, lay it in the crucible of united knowledge, and quietly abide the result. If he is not right, it is worth a great deal to find it out. A concerted aim at fact, at truth, without any thought of "showing up" each other, elevates us collectively and individually.

In any discussion, dispassionate or heated, if one wants his words to carry weight, he must weigh them. "Whom the gods destroy they first make mad." When a person allows personal animus to vent itself in hot words, his intellectual loss is a dual one; his companions no longer seek to inform him, and secondly, his expression suffers by inhibition. "Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools."

Angry words are useless, cruel, poisonous. Anger is a conundrum; its true pathological significance is just dawning on science. The oak, in his great strength, may laugh at the lily's frailty. When the wind blows he stands unmoved, while the lily flower bends to the ground. But the secretion of a characteristic gale rises to a cyclone, and the oak's resistance is his unerring enemy; but man has no such refuge. He cannot bend and stand the storm is over the lily stands serenely above his prostrate form.

POWEA OF KIND WORDS.

We must dwell a moment on this power of kind words to disarm angry passion; its possibilities are limitless. There is a beautiful philosophy, a cumulative benefit in it that grows at all points simultaneously. It is contagious, this plan of conquest. A man who rises in anger, and finds himself pacified in five minutes, is sure to reflect on the rationale of the bloodless victory. It dawns on him that it takes two to make a fight, and the small voice within suggests that he cultivate the method by which he was overcome to his own advantage.

Invariably, people are surprised at their self-satisfaction when they first prove that kind words turn away wrath. Instead of feeling cowardly or sycophantic, they have a strange consciousness of power, a mastery of self and externals, that shows the folly of a "chip on the shoulder" attitude, and confirms the Bible's words: "He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding, but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly."

And kind words act and react on the body. The recipient is braced for new effort by the kindly interest of his fellow man. He squares his shoulders literally as well as figuratively, drinks in more oxygen—lives a fuller, cleaner life. The speaker feels the current of real, earnest vibrant life within him. The calmness, purpose, breadth of the objective life are sure to improve one's physical state. "Pleasant words are as honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones," says the inspired writer. What folly to neglect such an opportunity of enriching ourselves by enriching others!

Argument is the vehicle of any unkind, and often foolish, words. At first thought, we would expect the debated classes to be the most tolerant, the slowest to anger. They, more than others, should appreciate the utility of such a course, and their respect for fact should outweigh personalities. On the contrary, it seems that a little learning is a dangerous thing, often the educated surprise us with their readiness to direct a friendly argument into channels of personality. Is it that they are originally hypersensitive, or does control of expression decrease with increase of receptivity? Untenable! But it sometimes seems so. Argument among those untrained for it always carries some hostility. The average person "gets nowhere" in argument. Discussion is the proper means of interchanging ideas and beliefs. It can proceed with kindness and need never degenerate into scornful or violent language.

Let us talk with each other. Let each bring to the common centre what he knows, lay it in the crucible of united knowledge, and quietly abide the result. If he is not right, it is worth a great deal to find it out. A concerted aim at fact, at truth, without any thought of "showing up" each other, elevates us collectively and individually.

In any discussion, dispassionate or heated, if one wants his words to carry weight, he must weigh them. "Whom the gods destroy they first make mad." When a person allows personal animus to vent itself in hot words, his intellectual loss is a dual one; his companions no longer seek to inform him, and secondly, his expression suffers by inhibition. "Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry; for anger resteth in the bosom of fools."

Angry words are useless, cruel, poisonous. Anger is a conundrum; its true pathological significance is just dawning on science. The oak, in his great strength, may laugh at the lily's frailty. When the wind blows he stands unmoved, while the lily flower bends to the ground. But the secretion of a characteristic gale rises to a cyclone, and the oak's resistance is his unerring enemy; but man has no such refuge. He cannot bend and stand the storm is over the lily stands serenely above his prostrate form.

others on ourselves," said Pope.

Kind words are the more effective for simplicity. A simple expressive word between speaker and recipient is just what a straight line is between two points—the shortest distance, the most direct connection. Flowery diction and verbosity detract from sincerity, or at least make sincerity questionable; they appropriate too much to themselves, whereas the spirit behind them is the all-important matter.

And there is a time for even the kindest words, in some moments silence is the greatest eloquence. Wise is the man who having nothing to say refrains from giving wordy evidence of the fact. —L. E. Eubanks, in The Magnificat.

Obituary.

(The Dover, N. H.) Tribune of Oct. 26th, just past, contains the following obituary notice of Mrs. Ann Dennis, wife of Mr. Patrick, Dunsmuir old and esteemed subscriber of The Herald.)

MRS. ANN DENNIS.

All that was mortal of Mrs. Ann Dennis, wife of Patrick Dennis, and a highly esteemed resident of this city, was laid to rest Monday morning in the new Catholic cemetery, after impressive services at St. Mary's church, which were attended by relatives and a host of friends of the bereaved family. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. J. J. Bradley, who eloquently eulogized the exemplary life and sterling character of the deceased, whose motherly traits, noble deeds, warm heartedness and self-sacrifice for family and friends will live long after her. In the death of Mrs. Dennis the community loses one of the best of mothers, whose friendship and neighborly kindness was everlasting and sincere.

The funeral cortege was one of the longest seen in Dover in recent years, including a hearse, 38 hearse, and two automobiles. There was also a large and magnificent floral tribute, which testified to the worth and esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall bearers were former Assistant Engineer Michael McGuinness, Ex-Police Officer Thomas Fody, former Alderman Patrick Cassidy, and Thomas Coniskey.

There was committal service at the grave by Rev. Fr. Edmund J. Quirk of this city and Rev. Fr. John Boyd of Manchester.

Mrs. Dennis was a native of Prince Edward Island, but had been a resident of Dover for 43 years. Her health was impaired during the past two years, but she was always jovial in spirit, and uncomplaining almost to the end. Death came after only a week's sickness in bed. The deceased, when in health was a faithful attendant at St. Mary's church, and a member of the Altar and Living Rosary society. In her last days she manifested the same interest in the welfare of her family that had characterized her life, and it is in the home now saddened with grief that her loss will be the most keenly felt.

Besides a husband, she leaves three sons, John P., James F., and Thomas J. Dennis; one daughter, Miss Mary A. Dennis and six grandchildren, who in this hour of serious affliction have the profoundest sympathy of the community.

Mrs. Dennis was 67 years of age. R. I. P.

Colored Priests Jubilee.

The colored Catholics of Baltimore, Md., are very much interested in the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. C. R. Ucles, S. S. J., which will take place during this winter. Father Ucles has spent the years of his active work as one of the professors at Epiphany College, which is a school established for the training of priests to work among the colored people.