Message of Praise By King George

London, November 12—(British Wireless Service)—King George has sent messages of congratulations to the Empire, the Allies and the fighting forces. To the Empire he says:

"At the moment when the armistice was signed, bringing to a final end to the hostilities which have convulsed the whole world for more than four years, I desire to send a message of greeting and heartfelt gratitude to my overseas people, whose wonderful efforts and sacrifices have contributed so greatly to securing victory, which is now won.

"Together we have borne the strenuous burdens in the fight for justice and liberty. Together we can now rejoice at the realization of those great aims for which we entered the struggle. The whole Empire pledged its word not to sheath the sword until our end was achieved. That pledge is now redeemed.

"The outbreak of the war found the whole Empire one. I rejoice to think that the end of the struggle finds the Empire still more closely united by common resolve, held firm through all vicissitudes by suffering and sacrifice, and by dangers and triumphs shared together.

"The hour is one of solemn thanksgiving and of gratitude to God, whose Divine Providence has preserved us through all perils and crowned our arms with victory. Let us hear our triumph in the same spirit of fortitude and self control with which we have borne our dangers."

To the Army, the King expresses his pride at the brilliant success which has crowned more than four years of effort and endurance.

Through Fire and Water

The recent disastrous fire caused much damage to the Herald plant. Type, presses, paper, fixtures, office furniture and everything in connection with the business was affected by the raging fire or deluged by water. The plant and premises were left in a condition of utter demoralization and chaos. The damage and consequent delay and dislocation of business constitute a very serious loss.

The building was badly damaged by the fire: the top story where the Herald composing and press rooms were located suffered the most. The windows were completely broken and the rooms for the present, rendered altogether untenable. A start has been made by the proprietors towards temporary repairs at least, but it will of necessity be a considerable time before we get our work going with any degree of facility. In the meantime we are doing the best we can, under much inconvenience, in cramped improvised rooms.

We are in hopes of being able to issue some kind of a paper each week, until our regular rooms are ready. How long this may be, involved in uncertainty, in consequence of the liability of unfavorable weather for operations on buildings at this season.

We must ask our readers to be indulgent towards us at this time of transition. Our paper will have many short comings, and will be far from what we desire; but, confident in the hope that, by Christmas, we shall have so far recovered from our misfortune as to furnish our subscribers with a good, readable paper, such as we have always endeavored to supply.

In order to be in every way successful in regaining our wanted position, we must ask for the assistance and co-operation of our friends. Our loss by this fire, is very considerable, and unfortunately our plant was not insured. We cannot overcome this unfortunate circumstance without money, and we must ask our subscribers to assist us. The most practical way to render this assistance is, for those who have not already remitted, to send the amount of their respective subscriptions without delay. We are prepared to exert all our energies and to make all reasonable sacrifices to overcome the handicap consequent upon the fire, and we are inspired with the hope that our friends will come to our assistance in this hour of trial.

Cham in the Dark Continent of Africa.

Rejected by his father, a fanatical Rabbi, deprived of almost all human advantages, for the greater part of his life afflicted with incurable infirmities, opposed by every conceivable and insurmountable difficulty, this Jewish convert becomes a priest of God, an exemplary religious, a spiritual guide of souls, the founder of one of the largest missionary societies in the Catholic Church and the first Superior General of the Congregation of the Holy Ghost and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

A Curious Coincidence.

Most remarkable is the life of Fr. Francis Paul Mary Libermann, founder of the Missionary Congregation of the Holy Ghost, whose cause of beatification is now in progress in Rome.

At the very moment when the "Association of the Propagation of the Faith" was formed in Lyons by Pauline Jaricot (1821), and when Sister Anne Marie Javouhey, the foundress of the Sisters of St. Joseph de Cluny, arrived in Senegal, a young Jew the son of a Rabbi, came to Paris to be received into the Catholic Church; and twenty years later he was destined to inaugurate the Catholic Apostolate among the "baptized" descendants of

NEVER TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION SINCE TAKING MILBURN'S LAX-LIVER PILLS.

Too often one is liable to diminish constipation as a trade. It is not. When you allow your bowels to become clogged up, there flows a stream of polluted waste into the blood instead of it being carried off by nature's channel, the bowels, and when this waste matter gets into the blood it causes headaches, jaundice, piles, liver complaint, sour stomach and many other troubles.

By taking Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills you will find that the bowels will be kept regular, the system purified, the blood renewed, and the entire body returned to normal condition.

Miss Kate Buchanan, Thurlton, Ont., writes:—"I have used your Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills for constipation, and have never found myself troubled since. I can very truly say I have found something to suit me, and will always be grateful about those who are troubled in the same way as I was."

"Did you ever long for death?" he asked, in a low and moving tone.

"Whose?" inquired the charming but practical young person.
