Great Gain.

ment deal of doctor's mediey complaint during five tring worse all the time un-B. B. I took three bottles, ght from 130 to 159 lbs. recommend Bardock Bloud a good medicure." Thus a Walton, of Springfield,

The Fatal Fry.

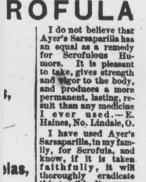

i fry your beefstoak," retramp, with has mouth full the woman shortly ; "how have it conhed, roasted ?' aly not; broited, madame, ay be a tramp," he added. "but I'm no ostrich."- Life

Source of Dauger.

ent source of dauger attend. omplaints during the sommer the liability to chick the to suddenly. D. Fowler's Wild Strawberry will not do mmation of the howels does ts use, as is for often the owerful opates and astringres promptly and in a natur 2

Not a Book Agent

e, druggist, is not a book has the agency in Goderich on's Tonic Bitters, which he y recommend for any com-This valuable medicine ha most astomshingly good re-uses of general debility, weakilarities peculiar to females, leness, jurpoverishment of the nach and liver troubles, loss , and for that general worn z that nearly every one is ith at some part of the year. and $1 per hottle at Goode's Albion block, Goder . h, sole a]

know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.-W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn. slas. For forty years have suffered with Ery-sipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I com me ne ed artime and commenced usi

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bot-tles of this medicine I am completely cured. — Mary C. Amesbury, Bockport, Me. I have suffered, for ears, from Catarrh, h, ears, "Bown on Dosing." Mr. T. B. Terry says this has been this state of mind ever since he "knew ventures of a lady in search of a servant, anything" -though "debootique of dried says the Brooklyn Citizen. She went to there's of every description were often an intelligence of the sthough she might put on or into the other children", and have known that the more aristocratic the recalls a suggestive incident which kind of servants are not usually to be the recalls a suggestive incident which we copy from Gleanings in Bes Culture: "Once when I was quite poorly father called in a celebrated physician, author of a work on family during. He said I was 'bilious,' and left a box of pills for me. I was only eight years old; but I had a herror of pills. Mother fixed one up in a spoonful of sauce and brought it to me. I couldn't and wouldn't take it. Then they discolved it in water, and tried to make me doubt if the take

The Mistides Got the Best of t.

An amusing story is told me of the ad-tried to make me drink it. At last "And do you keep a man to put out they offered me a $5 gold piece if I the asbes ?

The lady was not surprised, of course would take it, but I wouldn't. Worried out, I finally told them to put it in a but she saw that the independent and raisin and I would try it. I took it in particular Abigail wasn't going to suit my mouth ; and as mother turned to after all.

"Oh, no : my husband will do all that put the spoon on the sable the pill went out the open window. Next morning for you," she answered, with a mischiev the doctor called. 'Why,' he says, 'he' ous twinkle in her eye and an internal is much better. How beautiful these smile at the thought that her husband pills do work ! Give another tonight and could be so complacent.

The girl proceeded with her cross ex he will be all right in a day or two." amination, and was accommodated at The second followed the first, and I got well rapidly. It was ten years before I every point. It looked like an exceldared tell the story ; but meanwhile no lent place, and she was ready for an engagement. But the lady suddenly ask pills went down my throat." Mr. Terry notes the encouraging fact ed :

that our best physicians now give hardly "Do you sing ?" The girl was a little mystified, but any medicine, having learned that pure supposing that the question of her cheerair, sunshine, proper food, and exercise are the only remedies, as a rule. It was fulness at work, she answered that she did, and was very fond of doing so. a wise man, though rather ahead of the times, who wrote some thirty years ago "And do you play the piano ?"

ment.

that "doctors do precious little when This was a poser worse than the other. She had, of course, to admit that her early education had been whoily neglected in the matter of this accomplish-

After Long Years. "I was troubled with liver complaint for a number of years, finding no cure

The lines of Little Brooms

they don't do harm."

Ont

want a girl who can entertain my friends I tried B. B. B. J took four bottles in the parlor while I am at work in the and am perfectly cured, strong and hearty." Mrs. Maria Askett, Alma, kitchen."

An Old Scottish Superstition.

"Oh, then, you won't do at all, for Old Scottish people, or those conver-I keep a little broom to clean the kettles, spiders, saucepan, etc. It saves sant with the superstitiors and customs time, does better work and saves the of the country, are well aware of the hands. The little boom helps in this efficacy of the cure which the ass was way : You can scrub around the ears of supposed to have wrought in the case of the kettle with it, and hot suds will soon whooping-cough, and the following incimake a saucepan shine. Try it. The dents will be read with interest :- One same little broom does duty as a veget- afternoon recently a curious display of able cleaner. It washes the turnips and superstitition occurred at Marybill, withpotatoes quite clean and much quicker in view of the police office. Measles than the hands ; and how one does hate and whooping-cough are prevalent to handle dirty vegetables ! Just try it. amongst children in the burgh at pres-After the clothes are brought in from ent, and a travelling candyman and rag the line and ready for sprinkling, a clean gatherer, with a cart drawn by an ass. little broom, kept solely for the purpose, drew up in front of a row of houses is dipped in water, and sprinkles the known as "Pirrat's Row," a little off the clothes quite as well as a Chinese laundry- highway. Two children living in the man can spray the water through his quarter are suffering with whoopingTHE HURON SIGNAL, FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1887.

Poultry Notes.

The Cider Carse

cider is likely to proceed to sour cider

and finish off with rom, gin, brandv, whisky, and all the catalogue of alcoholic poisons which ruin mankind and desolate the world. Boys, let cider

Go at You Please,

stomach and bowels. Small, sugar-coated, agreeable to take, and cause no pain

He Lost Hts Kiss.

or griping. By druggists.

alone !

IL IL LOU SIGNAN FLANAY TIME 22. 188

About the ugliest, sourest drunkard By turning up a few shovelfuls of earth on the globe, is the cider drunkard. on the globe, is the cider drunkard here and there, there will be no necess He does not need to visit saloons, his ity for dust boxes at this season. aloon is down cellar; and he drinks The American plan of throwing and guzzles, and scolds and swears, until earth sgainst stone or brick poultry he makes his home a hell and life a is seen in the more equable temperature within. ourden to all around him. There are some who object to drinking rum or brandy, but think there is no harm in drinking cider. The stimulating and intoxicating principle in cider, wine, brandy, gin, rum lager beer and all intoxicating principle in cider, wine, brandy, gin, rum lager beer and all The dust bath to the fowl is what the washbowl is to the individual. When a these other intoxicants is the same these other intolatence is the matrix washbowl is to the individual. When a poisonous and deadly agent wherever it is found. Distil the alcohol out of cider, wine, beer or brandy, and what is left instinct teaching her that it is the best method to free beneelf of lice. would be simple dish-water. No man would drink cider if the alcohol was advantage, if scalded before fed. It is very taken out of it, "But sweet cider does not do any harm," says one. No; and Do not give all the akim-milk and elab a man puts a barrel of sweet cider into ber to the hege, but remember the fowls his cellar ; he drinks a glass of it, and if you would have them remember you in ogga.

it is sweet ; he takes another and that Do not place one roost higher than is sweeter ; he keeps drinking until the the other. When so arranged the hems barrel is empty, and the last glass is the will all growd to the highest, leaving will all crowd to the highest, leaving the lower ones unoccupied. The better plan is to place them all on a level. There is no necessity for having the roost any higher than simply to allow a space under them for the free circulation of air. sweetest of all, and then he is ready to tap a new barrel. You can no more tell when sweet cider becomes sour, than you can tell when a boy becomes a man, or when a pig becomes a hog. The Poultry Monthly says that when fowls form the habit of feather eating it The man who commences with sweet is hard to stop them. A correspondent says he would give them a bushel of feathers and let them have all they want. But a better way is not to le them form the habit. Give them exercise; make them scratch for their feed; hang up cabbage or fresh meat where they can pick at it, and so give them something to do.

but if you are constipated, or have sick-headache, bad taste in the mouth, rush of blood to the head, bilious complaint, Not a particle of calomel or auy other deleterious substance enters into the or any similar difficulty, you should go at once to your druggist for Dr. Pierce's composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pill's. On the contrary, those who have used Pleasant Purgative Pellett, the most efficient means for eradicating it, by correcting all disorders of the liver, calomel and other mineral poisons, as medicine, find Ayer's Pills invaluable. How to Oll Marness. Mir. J. W. Foote, Hansen, Neb., tells The Indiana Farmer of two brothers who bought at the same time each a set of At election times the Duchess of Gurfarm harness made by him from the don was a terror to the Robertsons, same lot of leather. One, by proper Bruces, Ogilvies, Blackies, Allans, Camcare, kept his in good order over ten erons, and other north Tories. But the years ; the other "never oiled his, but Bonnie Duchess did not kiss for politics used it in wet and mud, and in three alone. When the famous Gordon High- years it was hard and dry, and cracked landers-now the 93rd-were recruiting and ripped, so as to be nearly worthless. in Aberdeen the recruits came up slowly. For all this, of course, he blamed the The Duchess heard of this. She placed harnessmaker." Those who prefer to a cockade in her glengarry, put a plaid copy the example of the former are adof the Gordon tartan over her shoulders ; vised as follows :

and offering a kiss to everyone who "Never oil a harness when dry. Nevwould take "the King's shilling," quick- er hang it in the sun to dry or for the ly culisted a company of "braw John oil to strike in. Some leisure day in It evides the buckess was recounting this and soak thoroughly in warm feat in the saloon of a Whig magnate in water. Then wash off all dirt and gum London. There was present a young and when nearly dry on outside put on, been present, your grace. I would have with just enough lampblack to color in taken the kiss and the shilling myself." well. Lay in a pile in the shade till the "But," said the Duchess, "you would oil soaks in. If very dry and hard it not have understood what I said; my Scotch is so broad." "Oh yes, I would. I know every word of Soutch no matter I know every word of Scotch, no matter es the pores, gives it a gloss and prevents If this be properly done twice how broad." "Well, I will try you," cracking. said the Duchess. "If you tell me what I new and add one-half to its durability." mean by this, I'll give you a kiss : "My canty carle, come pree mi mou !" This A Good Act. Her Grace said with great rapidity of pronunciation, and the English noble laughingly said: -- "Oh, that's French, not Scotch." "You have lost your kiss. "As a cure for all summer complaints I highly recommend Dr. Fowler's Ex-tract of Wild Strawberry, having often used it with the best results. I have Her Grace said with great rapidity of often been thanked for recommending my Lord," replied the Duchess of Gor-William Haw Ancaster Ont 2 it." don. "What I said was Scotch," and means :- "My handsome fellow, come A young lady visited a jeweller and taste my mouth." told him that her father was going to buy her a pair of diamond earrings, and In Brief, and to the Point. that she would like to look at some. Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered The jeweller, knowing her father by liver is misery. Indigestion is a fee to reputation, spread out a number of cost

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic If the Liver be- PILLS bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indi-gestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health. - W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Fills than anything else, to Regulate L my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and do their work theroughly. I have used them with good effect, in cases of Rheu-mailsm, Kidney Trouble, and Dyspepsia. -G. F., Miller, Attleberough, Mass.

Morris Gates, Dewnsvine, N. 1., I was attacked with Billous Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends de-spaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor. John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it in-creased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in

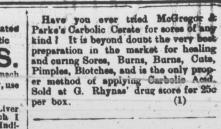

The Bowels.1

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured. -Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made. — S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss. My wife and little girl were taken with My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at onco began giving them small does of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored. — Theodore Esling, Richmond, Va.

Ayer's Pills.

spared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

INK. gent. 1 ANY 4 USE 3 A 0 CAN A 0 þ 1,1 M Ö H -1 -5 U U Writes Thinand Thick GUARANTEED, rice, 0 Mo 0 0 PEN H

EVERY

*3

Every Man in Business should get his Office Stationery Printed.

DO NOT TEAR SHEETS OUT OF YOUR ACCOUNT BOOKS TO WRITE ON.

years, from Catarra, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After try-ing other remedies, and getting no relief. I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparlila, and, in a few months, was cured. —Susan L. Cook, 909 Albaay st., Boston. Highlands, Mass. by Albany st., Bo Highlands, Mass. Highlands, Mass. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula. Canker, and Salt. Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.-Mille Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass. ying bod 's Sarsaparilla,

y Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

rice $1; six bottles, $5.

FOWLERS XTRACT-WILD ERA INFANTUN MMER COMPLAINTS DBYALLDEALERS.

People's Livery NERY STABLE

KNOX, Proprietor. ber is prepared to urnish the public with Finest Rigs REASONABLE PRICES SEE US-Oppo the Colbor , Feb. 14th 1887 19:0

teeth, and it seems ever so much cleaner, cough. It has not transpired what comtoo. Then the washtubs, wringers and pensation the proprietor of the ass rewash! oards are kept in order with almost ceived for the superstitious use made of no labor at all by having a little broom. it, in the belief that it would cure the Even the kitchen windows in fly time children of the cough, but after a short are washed down first by the mevitable conversation the mothers of the children little broom, which cleans the corners of took up a position on each side of the the sashes in less than half the time ne- ass. One woman then took one of the cessary to accomplish the work without children and passed it through below the its help. Blacking the stove is no long- ass's belly to the other woman, the er dreaded. A little broom puts on the child's face being towards the ground. black and does all the polishing necess The woman on the other side caught ary and saves the hands. Then scrub hold of the child, and, giving it a gentle the kitchen floor with a big broom, and somersault, handed it back to the other sit down to the enjoyment of reading woman over the ass, the child's face bewith comfort, such as comes from duties ing turned towards the sky. The prodone and time saved from lavish work cess having been repeated three times, for culture of the mind.

more Remarkable Still. Found at last, what the true public has been looking for these many years and that is a medicine which although and then the second child was similarly treated. While this was going on two other children were quickly brought to undergo the magical cure. In order but lately introduced, has made for itself a reputation second to none, the medicine is Johnson's Tonic Bitters the ass must not be forgotten, and at the of the most complicated and wonderful which in conjunction with Johnson's close of the ceremony each mother must things in existence. It is easily put out Tonic Liver Pills has performed some carry her child to the head of the animal most wonderfal cures impure or im-poverished blood soon becomes purified and enriched. Billiousness, indigestion, sick headache, liver complaint, languor, weakness, etc., soon disappear when treated by these excellent tonic medi-cines. For Sale by Good, druggist, Alscribed course was concluded. When it bion block, Goderich, sole agent. [d]

The son of a well-known New Yorker left the city last summer and went to India to make his home with an uncle who had grown rich in the Orient. Several their children are the better of the en-better of the en-from the uncle saying that his nephew was dead, and the body had been embalmed and sent home in a sailing ship.

N. Y. Mail and Express.

the child was taken away to the house, and then the second child was similarly undergo the magical cure. In order good nature. that the operation may have its due effect of order. and allow it to eat something, such as bread or biscuits, out of the child's lap. irregular habits, and many other things This proceeding having been performed in turn by the four mothers, the pre-began there was not many people present, but before it was finished quite a crowd of spectators had gathered. From inquiries made afterwards, it seems the months ogo the family received a letter chantment. A Drink for the Hay Field.

balmed and sent home in a swiling ship. Last week the vessel arrived here and pleasaut, mild, home-made beer, which this season I know there is a large the young man's parents, attired in deep is very suitable for a summer driuk. As amount of labor lost in farm gardens

When the undertaker opened the chest to give the parents a last look at the body, it was found to contain a large Bengal tiger. The surprised father at once cabled to his brother in India:-"Some mistake, George'e body not ar-rived. Coffin contained Bengal tiger." N. Y. Mail and Express. Are You Going To Travel ?"

Add brown sugar or molasses until it is slightly sweetened. When almost cool, ly gems before her. She looked them The human digestive apparatus is one over critically, and, having selected the most handsome pair, asked if she might take them home and examine Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, them more at her leisure. The permission was promptly accorded, and the which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics. But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be hanny. next day the young lady brought back her taste for diamonds. "That's a great their meals and be happy. Remember :-- No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower -- reception last night, and I thought

- reception last night, and I thought A lady writes : "I have used Ayer's

An Important Truth Illustrated.

Sarsaparilla in my family for many years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the pains couse From observation in my own garden quent upon female weakness and irregu-larities, I consider it without an equal." An Exaggerating Family.

the young man's parents, attired in deep mourning, went to receive the remains. A peculiar shaped box was delivered to them and was removed to their home. When the undertaker opened the chest wood to day ; yesterday I sawed about a

Are You Going To Travel * Add brown sugar or molasses until it is slightly sweetened. When almost cocl, add two dry yeast cakes, or one cup of Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is a superior remedy for sea sickness, and a positive cure for all bowel com-plaints induced by bad water, change of diet, or of climate Whether at home

Statements Note Heads Letter Heads Memo. Heads Counter Pads Parcel Labels Shipping Tags Business Cards Circulars Envelopes, etc

PROPERLY PRINTED ON GOOD PAPER.

and then it will be a pleasure for you to do your corresponding, as well as helping to advertise your business.

READ THIS.

	Our Stock of Printing Stationery, consisting of all	đ.
F 1	the leading grades of Plain and Linen, ruled and un-	G
P 1	ruled papers, Cards, Envelopes, &c., is the most com-	-
B	plete we have handled, and we guarantee the quality	53
F	and price to suit all who will favor us with their	G
F	orders. Call and see our samples and get our prices.	E
	*

"THE SIGNAL"

NORTH-St., GODERICH.

20.