PAGE FIVE

The tariff commission plank in the from the perseverance, energy and Conservative platform was also criti- ability of the people who have made cized by Mr. Marshall, who said that this great gity, but notwithstanding it was getting back to the true Tory, this ability and energy, if they had autocracy doctrine, and taking away not been assisted by the wise policy of the duties of responsible government, the Liberal party in encouraging railonclusion Mr. Marshall stated road development, and in widening the that Mr. Van Wart was the prosperity markets and assisting the homecandidate and that his oppenent was steaders, they would not have been the adversity candidate. lable to build up this city of which we "That is what it is," he said, "and I in America are all proud. (Appladet.)

Reciprocity's Advantages. if we want a fight on this issue of prosperity and adversity, I do not fear | I am not going to talk at any length the result in this or any other city in upon the desirability of reciprocity. Canada." I armiy believe that this measure - is

He pointed out also that through a one that is in the interests of the ennistake in the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill | tire people of the Dominion or I could cream had been admitted into the not support it. It is in the interest United States from Canada with a duty of the people of this great country of only five cents per gallon, instead of that there should be freer trade and five cents per lb. as intended, and that wider markets. Anything that is for while the bill had only been in force a the general benefit of the agricultural few short months, already $1,500,000 interests must also be in the interests worth of Ontario cream had been ship- of the people generally. There are ped into the United States market at many things dealt with in this tariff good prices. arrangement. many things free in ex-"And yet they say there is no mar- change in regard to the various proket," he said, "and they say that vinces so that all the provinces are shipping goods into the United States beneficially affected, but there are two will breed disloyalty. I have not or three in which we in this western heard that any of the Ontario farmers country are especially interested. We wives have been caught hanging the have the best cattle on the face of the Stars and Stripes on the clothes line earth, and the best country in which or whistling Yankee-Doodle while they to raise them. We have the best soil milked the cows since they have been and climate in the world for the raisshipping their cream into the States ing of wheat, and along the slopes of and getting a better price for it than the Rocky Mountains we have inexthey did before when they were forced haustible supplies of steam and cooksell in the home market." ing coal that is required over the bor-The opposition of the millers and der in the neighboring country of Amanners of Canada against the pre- erica for the immense smelting indusposed reciprocity treaty was also ex- tries of that country. And we are told plained by the speaker as in his pre- that it should remain there for hunvious meetings, and Mr. Marshall then dreds of years longer sooner than sell ook up the loyalty cry. it to our enemies across the line and

"They say that our loyalty is liable ruin the feelings of the people of this o be affected by trade with the United | country by bringing across the line the States," he cried. "Let them speak American money received in exchange for themselves. They know the brand for these commodities. But I think of loyalty that is in their own breasts, that the people who are investing their and they know whether they can be money in these mines, and the trades-Opposition to Pact. bought by American gold, but I speak men who are supplying the miners Taking up the opposition being for the Liberal party, and the Liberal with what they need will agree that party has a brand of loyalty that can't anything that will build up this counbe bought and can't be beaten. There try and make open markets for the of Calgary I would like to see it. If British preferential tariff was before I go there as your representative the people Sir Charles Tupper stood is nothing to this cry of disloyalty or sale and exchange of our natural up and said that he could almost annexation. I yield in my loyalty to no commodities is a benefit to the country and Calgary will not be overlooked hear the sorrowful wail of the dying man, both to the Canadian institution at large, and cannot be otherwise than in the future as it has been in the industries of Canada, but that instead and British constitution, but there is a benefit. I am not going to detain of dying these same industries had another thing, and that is, while we you with figuring out the prices on uilt up, had enlarged their factories sing 'God Save the King,' we'll not various products. It is not recessary and built more factories, and were forget the people." to show that wheat is dearer at cne As Mr. Marshall sat down he was time than at another, and the same cheered again and again. Men in the with cattle. We all know that this chairman introduced Hon. Duncan them better wages than they ever did back of the hall stamped and stood up; is so. The question is one that re-Taking up the annexation argu the gallery was a tossing mass of solves itself broadly into this: What ment against reciprocity, he said it waving hats and handkerchiefs, and all is desirable for the people of this was the cheapest argument of then over the packed hall wild enthusiasm country and what is for the good of reigned supreme. It was some time be- the greatest number of the citizens "If dealing with the United States fore the chairman cculd obtain order, of this Dominion? Why can it be and when this was possible he intro- other than a benefit to this country duced Premier Sifton, who was also to have wider markets so long as "I tell you bought $95,000,000 worth of they will still be free to sell in any given a most enthusiastic reception. market that is to their advantage? Premier Sifton's Speech, Premier Sifton spoke as follows:- (Applause). If it is desirable for the Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen,- farmer to sell in the home market, to detain you very long with anything returned to power.

that I may have to say this evening Taking up Mr. Bennett's remark this nation great and who are building toria, and it reads, in substance, as

It was not necessary in the days to election, as it has been necessary re-secured, almost without paying any have found one-third of the houses in

He warned the people against Ameri- per cent to its owner. What do you the United States free of duty.

A Change in Conditions.

The four thousand people who were

Time and time again Mr. Marshall day more than forty thousand, simply ment as this with the United States.

reciprocity was to give a better mar-that took place at that time in 1896. making our legislation subservient to orators that the agreement would the splendid achievement of the Lib-only open to Canadians a market with eral administration. And Mr. Chair-while the Conservatives are the only should do, it should return thanks up-this city vacant at the time of that night Canada had ever seen, and financial advantages of reciprocity, which I have referred to hunt for a that is to say: Animals of all kinds, ing of a railway monopoly in order ket to the Canadian producer, and to We had just the same climate, just the that of the United States. They are

As in his previous addresses here benefit of the conditions that have money into the country, that the re-markable changes that have taken blace have come about."

He also pointed out that instead of a country that is already exporting man, ladies and gentlemen, if there is people who are building the Empire, now being closed down the factories the same products that Canadians nothing else that the city of Calgary waving the flag and bringing the Em-

A Comparison.

been so ably dealt with.

regard to the matters that have gary in this election and to Hon. Dun- additional market cannot be anything can Marshall. These gentlemen have but a benefit if it can be given to explained their views and the views of him, as it will be given by the efforts the Liberal party in this election. It of the Liberal party of this country, if will not, therefore, be necessary for me the present government is again

I am pleased to be again in the city we have adopted this attrocious of Calgary for the purpose of uniting with you in doing honcr to the candi-date whom you have chosen to bear Sir John A, Macdonald, that eminent the standard of the Liberal party and chieftain of the Conservative party, saying a few words, not to the pecple who were here during the days when record appears entirely to the con-this country was under the Conserva-tive administration; not to the four thousand people who: in 1906 gave the same kind of measure that is now majority unfavorable to the Liberal before this country in this present candidate, because the people of those election. I thought I would show you days know well what they had to put the clause where he put himself and of the present who are helping to make record as Sec. 6, Chap. 15, of 42 Vic-committee room for the purpose of an hay, straw, bran, seeds of all kinds, cently to do, for almost every second other roots; plants, trees, and shrubs; building in those days could have been coal, coke, salt, hops, wheat, peas, secured, almost without paying any rent, along Eighth avenue. You could buckwheat and all other grains; flour election. This city had ben prosper- of any other grain; butter, 5sh, lard, ous but its prosperity had gone down. tallow, lumber, may be imported into The Alexander corner, that splendid Canada upon proclamation of the gov-monument at that time to the invest- ernor-in-ccuncil whenever it appears ment of English capital, had been to his satisfaction that similar articles here then and who gave the majority to the Conservative candidate, are to-sworn not to return more than two from Canada may be imported into follows:

A Progressive Policy.

. Yet we are told that the policy of the Liberal party is going to bring this country to destruction because "Any or all of the following articles, vegetables, including potatoes and of wheat and flour of rye, Indian meal and oatmeal, and flour of meal

Anent Flag-Waving.

tives that the Liberal government country they are traitors to the Empire. They forget entirely that this is their own policy, and favored the

We are now told by the Conserva-

EDMONTON BULLETIN

before.

"It is the crowning act in ing there, but we have got a new an-

Wart, and the speakers and the huge the history of the greatest man that nexation policy now and it is bring-wart, and the speakers and the huge the instory of the greatest main that the interval of the free statest in the station poincy how and it is of the greatest interval of the statest interval of the greatest interval of t tish preferential tariff, will go down

Dr. Egbert proved an ideal chairman for the meeting. When order had been of the administration of Sir Wilfrid

Mr. Marshall then touched lightly

"There was no market for the "Canada stood at the cross roads "Taking might hurt us."

ssue, and not for the good of the coun- then," said Mr. Marshall, "and it was at his first meeting that the farmers up a city of which we are all proud.

they have been travelling along it being told he should deny himself the now for over a decade, and it is a best markets for fear that the pros-road of commercial prosperity and de-perity he would share might hurt his

He took up the granting of a British here, but he asks the farmer to suffer preferential tariff in order to provide a little adversity and warns him to provide the farmers with trans-portation for their products. Ret to the Canadian producer, and to give him a choice of the home mar-ket, the British market and the the past thirty years. He pointed out farmers' surplus stock," he said, "and develop the coal industry and take the that Conservative governments had when the home market was supplied coal and sell it in the foreign mar frequently tried to get a reciprocal the surplus product was a drug on ket, bringing back to Canada the pact with the United States passed but the market." A word picture of goods and gold that will help to try, being merely brcught forward for a dark night. It was the blackest of the west should not think of the

Dr. Egbert then introduced Sherifit Van Wart, the Liberal candidate, and choose again the people said we thing for a $100 a day corporation in doing so made a few remarks re- know this old path of quagmires and lawyer to tell the struggling home-in the city, where he had lived for the now. It is true we can't see very versity because it was good for him, not travelled very far along the road velopment under Liberal administra-

The Liberals' Platform.

the inauguration of an immigration the western provinces, and the smash-speaking, an attempt at heckling had been made. It is true that the huge crowd hissed down the heckler, and the irresponsible one was on deck when Mr. Marshall rese to speak, and should a question that could not be should a question that could not be heard on the platform. should do, it should return thanks up-in the campaign. This is true loy-alty, for true loyalty consists in build. should do, it should return thanks up-in the campaign. Should been started so early in the campaign. The provide started so early in the campaign. The provide started so early in the campaign. The provide started so early in the campaign. Should do, it should return thanks up-in the campaign. The provide started so early in the started so early in the campaign. The provide started so early in the campaign. Th when Mr. Marshall rose to speak, and shouted a question that could not be heard on the platform. "What's your trouble?" queried Mr. Marshall looking toward the point from which the voice came. It may have been the fighting look of the minister of agriculture that did it, but whatever it was the voice did not re-whatever it was the vo

The speaker outlined the policy this one, so they took it. They had loyalty.

before the light began to break, and said, vehemently.

far along it, but it can't be worse than had failed, and that now that success closed factories, with windows board- make this country prosperous," Laurier."

John A. Macdonald, Sir John Thomp- out how trade was paralyzed and the cultivated.

son, Hon. Edward Blake, Hon. Oliver farming industry stagnant.

garding Mr. Van Wart's past record sloughs, and there is another road tion."

hospital board, exhibition board and a market for the surplus product of against prosperity."

place have come about."

tion prior to 1896," he declared. It dian farms and become good Cana

The cry that the natural resources

Mr. Marshall then touched lightly discusses before the people in the present on the conditions existing prior to light tariff policy of 1896 under the high tariff policy of the conservative party. As in his previous addresses here he pointed that reciprocity had been the aim of Sir previous addresses here he pointed to the mountains, or farm lands left un-

Development Needed.

"What we want is people who will had failed, and that now that success had crowned the efforts of the Liberal party they were raising cries of dis-toyalty, annexation, etc. These cries he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation, etc. These cries he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling he said were being made to divert the covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexation at a stand to a standstill was drawn with telling covalty annexat steader that he should suffer ad-and a little prospertly might hurt his

"That's what it amounts to," he loyalty. Mr. Bennett admits right there that reciprocity will bring pros-perity. We don't have to prove it.

followed by the Liberal government to attain this desirable state of affairs. admits that reciprocity will come owner? (Applause.)

Reciprocity's Object.

I have in the past been frequent-ly sent to Ottawa in the interests of policy that had filled up and colonized pointed out that the sole object of because of the change of government We are charged with submitting and Cagary, he said, and faiways came back with the goods. As far as re-chrocity is concerned I am for it first, last and all the time, for I believe that if we can do anything for the farming community to get them a bigger market and better prices for their produces. Without them no country beiger the farmers with trans-portation for their products. The ethings are men, money and brack with the said. "and these there things are men, money and brack with the said. "and these there things are men, money and brack without them no country." As far as re-to provide the farmers with trans-portation for their products. "Three things are men, money and brack without them no country." As far as re-to provide the farmers with trans-portation for the products. "Three things are men, money and brack without them no country." As far as re-to provide the farmers with trans-portation for the provide the farmers with the trans-portation for the provide the farmers with the provide the farme

Liberal government under Sir Wilfrid Mr. Marshall showed that the exports since been created by the government Laurier provided the market, found of the United States were falling off, of the Liberal party. They did not the men, and in this manner brought and gave a full answer to the state- have the advantage of the conditions

He also pointed out that instead of a country that is already exporting man, ladies and gentlemen, if there is

"The farmer is the British constitution."

GREAT MEETING IN CALGARY HEARS SIFTON AND MARSHALL

Premier Sifton and Hon. Duncan Marshall Arouse Audience of Four Thousand People to Great Pitch of Enthusiasm by Advocacy of Reciprocity. Candidate Van Wart Makes an Excellent Impression by his Plain and Straightforward Appeal to the Electors for Support. Hon. Duncan Marshall's Address Referred to as One of he Finest Ever Delivered in Calgary.

"I firmly believe that the reciprocity peat the question. "Don't be afraid of $,000,000 we can have $0,000,000 pact is a measure that is in the inter- to ask me questions," challenged the with which to assist Great Britain. It ests of the entire people of the Do- speaker, after waiting some seconds. is for this reason that I am supporting minion or I could not support it." "With a cause like this we have go! the government. They have shown For the first time since the recipro- no worries in this fight at all." But true loyalty in the building up of this city question has been before the elec- the questioner had gauged the mettle country, and I expect them to keep on. tors of Alberta, Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, of his man, and was content to leave premier of the province of which he well enough alone, and this was the was formerly chief justice, addressed a last interruption of the evening. Then pose of drawing more people to Alpolitical meeting in Sherman's audi- Mr. Marshall started on a speech berta, and we want more population terium on Monday night, in Calgary, which will go down as one of the best so that we may build railroa and despite the rumors that had been speeches made in any campaign in people of this country. And it is be-going the rounds to the effect that he Calgary. Arguments Dissected. was against reciprocity, he made a Taking up the arguments of the op. I want to support it. I desire to see fighting speech which thrilled an audience whose numbers ran into the ponents to reciprocity he smashed the 50,000 people of this city grow to tayusands, and in the above words them one by one, and as he finished be 500,000 and the 400,000 people o wed plainly where he stord regard- with each one he cast it aske amid Alberta grow to be 4,000,000. It is ing the pact which is proving the main the plaudits of his hearers and took for this reason that I am advocating issue of one of the thercest election up the next one. One after another this, and that the people in this councampaigns in the history of the Do- he dealt with them, and when he final- try may be happy and contenied and

As he spoke the words which showed liant campaign speeches ever heard in At another stage in his speech he where he stands on this question which the city, the ovation he received was declared that "the loyalty of the peo both Liberals and Conservatives admit | tremendous. means so much to the West, the roar of applause which greeted them show- expect a fighting speech from Duncan cheered again and again. But it was ed that he had only voiced the senti- Marshall, and when the applause had at the conclusion of his speech that ments a the sea of electors, who died away there was a burst of ex-crowded the galleries, filled the stage pectancy as Premier Sifton was an- "I firmly believe that this measure and extended in servied rows almost to nounced and it was plain to see that is one that is in the interests of the the back of the huge auditorium. It many of those present had come to entire people of the Dominion or 1 is difficult to estimate the number of hear just what he had to say on this could not support it," he said in conpeople present, but it would be erring | great question of reciprocity.

No Frills. on the safe side to say that there were They were not left long in doubt. should be freer trade relations, and had a Conservative representative at at least 4,000 men and women in atat least 4,000 men and women in at-tendance, and both from point of num-Plunging into his subject without any wider markets. Anything that is for the markets is the part of the agricultural bers and enthusiasm, the meeting was preliminary frills he soon showed his the general benefit of the agricultural easily the best that has been held in audience where he stood. And his interests must also be in the interests the present campaign in Calgary so far speech rang true, and it found ans- of the people generally. The Liberal wering response in the hearts of his government is a government that does Candidate is Pleased.

"There is no question at all in my audience, for time after time he was not restrict trade, but gives to the mind now; the people of Calgary want applauded as in his clearcut senten- people assistance. And now let me last," reciprocity and they will have it after ces he cutlined his reasons for sup- give you the final reason why I support September 21," said I. G. S. Van Wart, porting reciprocity, but the premier this government, and it is a reason the Liberal candidate, after the meet- was not content to let figures and his that will appeal to every man and sat down, and in a few words the now employing more men and paying ing was over, as, with the Premier, own statements tell his story, and on woman in this audience; it is this, Hen. Duncan Marshall, and a host of one occasion he preduced the Statutes that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the first Marshall, minister of agriculture. It prominent Liberals, he left the building of Canada to prove an assertion he federal statesman to recognize the was plain to see from the recept the cheers of the crowd still ringing made, and as he nailed his point fact that the prairie provinces should he got that Mi, Marshall was an old in his ears, and with electors of all he was cheered again and again. It be on an equal footing with the other favorite with the crowd. stations in life pressing forward to was the same all through his speech, a provinces of this Dominion, and that shake hands and assure him of their speech bristling with points in favor the natural resources should be handed have a good cause, and in Calgary a of reciprocity and full of fight. support at the polls. "They are crying down the very is in the case of British Columbia."

ment. Sitting on the platform facing thing from which their leaders have While Premier Sifton did not go in opening his speech. And he was justified in his statethe huge crowd he had been able to stood for years. They forget entirely fully into the advantages this would boys that Van is a good man to fight from Great Britain and $98,000,000 see the enthusiastic way in which they applauded the speeches of Premier Sifton and Hon. Duncan Marshall. Scanning the crowded galleries and for giving effect to it they are call-ing the Liberals traitors." he said, resifton and Hon. Duncan Marshall. Scanning the crowded galleries and looking down on the sea of faces be-fore him he had been able to see just what they thought of reciprocity and they would so declare.

An Immense Crowd.

for eight o'clock, it was half an hour after that time before it commenced but the enthusiasm of the crowd was in nowise dampened by the wait, and when finally Dr. Egbert walked down he centre aisle, followed by Sherifi

Van Wart, Premier Sifton and Hon.

Duncan Marshall, a roar of applause went up from those in the rear who date and speakers of the evening, and was carried forward to those in front intil the platform was finally reached through a cheering, tossing, turbulent crowd of humanity, who waved hats and handkerchiefs, shouted and stamped and sought in every way

And even when the candidate and speakers reached the platform the applause did not cease. In an ever increasing volume of sound it echoed and reverberated through the auditorlum, and it was some time before the chairman, Dr. Egbert, could obtain a Laurier's Name Cheered through the meeting the mention of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's name was en ough to send the cheers echoing to the roof and the speeches of Mr.

Sifton, Mr. Van Wart and Mr. Mar-took with the crowd.

people of the Dominion.'

Carried Conviction

when he sat down he was applauded took the fighting speech of Hon. Dun-

His remarks carried conviction and of duty.

shall were all punctuated with out- utes of the Dominion of Canada where bursts cf spontaneous applause, which the record appears entirely to the con-caused the speakers to pause time and trary, and wherein it is proved that introduced. In plain, blunt, terse sen- this country in the present election.

all the time, because I believe that it all kinds; fish and agricultural pro-will do us all good," he said. "I be- ducts, lumber, etc., may be imported lieve that it will benefit the farmers into Canada upon proclamation of the of Canada, and anything that will Governor-General in Council, when-benefit the farmers will benefit the ever it appears to his satisfaction that taken with his blunt manner of put-ting his platform before them, but it The Loyalty Cry Again.

can Marshall, minister of agriculture, making speeches and waving the flag to rouse them to the highest pitch of is concerned," he declared, but when Taking advantage of it came to giving preference to the

Mr. Van Wart was the first speaker kind of measure that is now before campaign.

But finally even the most enthusias tic had calmed down, although all known to show their enthusiasm hearing.

were the first to recognize the cand

Although the meeting was scheduled Open Markets Wanted. "We want open markets for the purads for the cause this is the kind of policy that will lead to such a development that ly finished after one of the most bril- growing in prosperity at all times." ple of Canada is not a question of trade But somehow the crowd seemed to or money," and the remark was

> PREMIER SIFTON, who is an Enthusiastic Advocate of Reciprocity, as your representative on September | and develop this western country as 21, I promise you I will do something soon as the reciprocity pact goes into for Calgary," he said in conclusion. force." clusion. "It is in the interests of the people of this country that there "For the past eight years we have there is going to be something doing,

Marshall in Good Form. Mr. Van Wart was cheered as he

"I am glad to be here because we all. r the natural resources should be handed over to the people of this province as leader in the Liberal party," he said is going to annex us, then we are an-nexed now," he said. "Last year we

"Ycu have read in the papers of other provinces in the Dominion. Canada, in the best of their speakers declare There was a brief silence as he "I don't believe there is an the Laurier government, and it need-ed no mind reader to see that the that Sir John A. Macdonald, that emi-crowd which faced him had found both good and that on election day party, was never in favor of recipro-

An Ideal Chairman

Dr. Egbert proved an ideal chairman called he made a few remarks relative to the size of the gathering and the Muyat, and all Canadian statesmen for he said were being made to divert tha attention of the people from the real "Can

An Enthusiastic Reception.

Mr. Van Wart's reception was very

"When I get to Ottawa I possibly Calgary," he said, 'and I always came and city workmen, and the whole

Not An American.

Taking up the statement that had been made that he was an American.

when he sat down he was applauded "And that was placed on the statute to the echo, but his speech was only books by Sir John A. MacDonald him-their produce and cattle we should their produce and cattle we should their produce and cattle we should can prosper, and it was beecause the As in his previous a speaking, an attempt at heckling had the Liberal party which gave the pre- such tactics had been started so early that previous to 1896 were boarded wanted to ship there.

enthusiastic, but he confined his remarks to asking those present to ex-political purposes.

past twenty years.

imported into the United States free that if we can do anything for the

"TIVHSHVW NVONAG 'NOH encade death, and so I throught would bring to you tonight the Stat-again until they could again be heard. these statesmen did favor the very tend him their support during the tences, without any show of oratory, I thought I would show you me won't be filling Hansard with hot he outlined his platform, his past re- clause where he put himself and his air," he said, "but I will be working cord, and his future policy, if returned followers on record in 1879, the same for the City of Calgary." He then the speech of the business-man, un-used to much public speaking, and it proceeded to read an extract from had been in business and also conwith the crowd. "I am for reciprocity, first, last and the statutes placed on record in 1879, showing where the grains, animals, of the statutes placed on record in 1879, showing where the grains, animals, of the statutes placed on record in 1879, the statutes placed on record i similar articles from Canada may be

"And that was placed on the statute the beginning. The crowd had been self," he said, and then took up the do it, for what heip the stockman and farmer helps the manufacturer

Mr. Van Wart's newness to platform manufacturers of Great Britain it was Mr. Van Wart said that he was sorry

"The Tory party are loyal so far as country benefits." as the member for Calgary. His was session in which he introduced his referred briefly to the time he city, nor were his lieutenants after his for Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Van he said.

IPLE FROM QUEBEC.

ree Press; The Englishtors of Canada can have he sort of campaign which aged by the Conservatives lationalist allies in Quebec are told of it by the newsre is a sample from the mns o; L'Evenement, the a car of the city of hich is understood to be trolled by the good Conanator Landry of Sir Wilfrid Laurier of gland is at war Canada is at that of Mr. Fielding, 'Our ve to take part in all the Empire, just and unjust." e axioms of the Imperialmorrow would be effec-us if no solution were erious dispute between nd France. mpatriots had not bee by this idol with feet has presided for the last over our destinies, we aps have escaped these re-days of the Laurier govnumbered.

already said, and we repleasure, that Mr. R. L. conducted this last can st reciprocity with a skill-which only his intimate him capable. For our reciprocity question, aldo not go quite as far as is conclusions, we consid-As safeguarding the holy the Conservative party glad to have the elections They come at a good seaticians will gladly inform on the issues of the day the fight with enthusiasm. mediate direction of Mr k. the valiant representative Cartier, who has had the stand up for the rights of in Parliament. already smiles on ou ve Monk and Vive Auton-N WITH THE NAVY! the Taft-Fielding pact! Laurier and his party! CATHOLICS OF THE D THE FRENCH OF THE L SOON BE REVENG.

WALL IS IMPOSSIBLE.

Tibune:: While Mr some lesser lights oping it up" on the estion it is interesting to even influential Unionist re saying at the seat of the old land. The Specthe view that the recipro nent is Canada's own busidds: The desire to make manently a tied house the delusion that two annot be prosperous at the It is childish to sav to that if they and Americans richer through new opof trading with each othbe guilty of a disloy eat Britain. Of course we Tariff Reformers here do nat directly; but they put on British governments. is no escaping the simple after all, the proposed Reement is an instrument responsible governments ton and Ottawa. Along the and miles of frontier beada and the United States sible to maintain a Chinese eciprocal pressure of hu ence and human wants vo peoples speaking the age would require the rehe wall sooner or later.' If Canadians yield to the otent fact of geography he wall shall go sooner. later, we have no right sav them nay."

ONS FOR HUGH JOHN

nomination in Winnipes with application to the Free litical situation, the es him to answer these s declaration, "A British vas born, a "British subject reciprocity

Free Fress-Hugh John having repeated at the respect, if any, does the agreement now before the anada, exceed the standcdonald made to the Unit-n 1879, and which was still of the terms of this stand-nd of the announcement by

' Macdonald of the reason lution and general elec would not the Cana-who visited Washing-

ately after the elections of accepted eagerly such a reciprority as is provided y the people of Canada?

ord shows-as it does-sent agreement does not what Sir John A. Macdonthe United States in 1879.

ugh John Macdonald bet-his talents than in laudrden at the expense of his Phoenix: In view of Mr.

itude to the fight being

Quebec he can no longer n as anything more than

He) is willing to profit by and dangerous fight Bour-

Monk are fighting, and it a stain on his name which ar: Just a sample head-West Not for Pact." The mpire should consult John Conservative member own B.C. Lawyer Decd. r, B.C., Aug. 22.-Death nly to Mr. A. L. Belyea, While at work

he was seized with and a few minutes later He had planned to go or his health tomorrow. of the best known lawyers

Mail and Empire:

effaced.

od. Alberta.

N AUTHORITY.

ling to accept in

DEN AND BOURASSA.

agreement now

te book on the day of which Sir awaiting

1891.

