Wolves Eat Missionary

Brother Finds James Smith in Centre of Ghastly Circle of Bones.

Springfield, Mo., March 3rd.—James Smith, a woodsman, has been eaten by wolves in the woods near Ally after fighting a desperate battle for his life.

The wolves attacked him while he was alone, awaiting the return of a brother. When the latter returned he found his brother's bones in the centre of a circle of five dead wolves, while an empty repeating rifle showed that he had been over-powered before he could reload the weapon.

Lord Rosebery's Plan of Reform.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, March 22. The large majority by which the House of Lords to-day carried Lord Rosebery's third resolution, which deals with the hereditary principle, is rather the registration of pious opinion than the forerunner of any effective reform of the second chamber. The debate revealed the strong feeling against the resolution, and Lord Lansdowne had to assure the members towards the close of the debate that the resolutions would in no way sacrifice the hereditary principle. He added: A peer may vote for the resolution and then vote that every member of this House should have a hereditary title. Lord Rosebery followed and explained that they were only revealing the manner in which they believed the reform should go. This evidently implies that no reform of the House of Lords will be undertaken on the Conservative side until a Conservative Government is in office.

The Fight for Cotton.

Editor Evening Telegram.

NEW YORK, Mar. 22. English speculators in cotton who showed their dislike for James A. Patten, the Chicago speculator, by the recent demonstration on the Manchester Exchange, are shipping the product back to this country in an endeavour to break the market to the detriment of Patten and his associates. The World to-day says: "Although Mr. Soales who is working in harmony with Patten denies the truth of the report, Soales says bales have been put aboard ship ready to sail from Liverpool to-day." In the meanwhile, according to the article, Patten and his supporters are shipping to the other side for the spinners' supply, at the same time keeping quotations here sufficiently below those in Liverpool to prevent English speculators from buying the stuff there and reselling it here except at a heavy loss.

Philadelphia Labour War.

Special to Evening Telegram.

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 22. All negotiations are off and the fight will go on was the announcement made to-day by the Labour leaders who are conducting the Street Car and the sympathetic strike. Many peace plans have been devised by each side in the controversy, but none has yet been found that is satisfactory to both.

Russian Peasant Immigration.

Special to Evening Telegram.

MINSK, Russia, March 22. The authorities are continuing the efforts to break up the well organized system through which peasant emigrants to America, unable to secure passports, are passed across the frontier. Four parties of emigrants were captured recently and six agents were arrested.

The steady nerves of the influential, successful, well-liked individual, are the envy of the timid, cold-skinned person who lacks initiative—and red blood.

A nervous person is always at a disadvantage.

Coffee is a common cause of "cold hands and feet," nervous trepidity, etc.

What a delightful change it is to feel the power of warm blood and strong nerves! Stop drinking coffee for a week or ten days, and use Postum as the table beverage.

Make your Postum strong and rich—boil it 15 minutes or longer—serve piping hot with good cream, and it is delicious and wholesome, too.

Postum contains no coffee or other drugs (caffeine is the drug in coffee) but only the food elements of clean, roasted wheat and a small amount of molasses.

IN MEMORIAM.

Of Our Cousin "Jack."

The Grim Reaper has again come amongst us. This time so near to our home. And has claimed for his victim—so early, Dear Jack, so young, for his own.

His place, so well filled, is now empty. His voice, once so cheery, is still. And a place in our hearts, too, is vacant. Which no other ever can fill.

We listen, ah yes, for his footsteps. We look for the form often met. But these feet have now trod, and passed over. The dark, lonesome valley of death.

Lonesome? ah no, for our Saviour Has promised to be with us, e'en there, And with him for our Guide, we shall ever Have nothing to dread nor fear.

So with Him we now shall leave him. Tho' our hearts are bursting with grief, For the angels have carried to Heaven Another Golden Sheaf.

F. A. M. St. John's, March 23rd, 10.

C. A. A.

At Cochran Street lecture rooms last evening the Hon. J. A. Robinson delivered a most pleasing lecture on "Memories". There was a large attendance present, and every person thoroughly enjoyed the recital of various experiences by the honourable gentleman. It is, of course, to be expected that a scholar and journalist such as Mr. Robinson should display marked literary skill, but, beside the polished periods, there was that subtle magnetic influence which at once captures the audience and held the attention of every one for the hour, which seemed all too short. Mr. Robinson with genuine wisdom interspersed some reminiscences which caused the audience to convulse with laughter, and the flashes of wit and humor brought out into clearer contrast the more solid portion of his address. Especially interesting were his references to the great political characters whom he met, and these included Gladstone, Disraeli, Bradlaugh and others with a new and living interest for those who had the good fortune to be present at the lecture. Many of us will not soon forget the pleasant evening spent with Mr. Robinson, and we trust that we may be privileged at some future time to hear him again. At the close a resolution of thanks to the lecturer was proposed and carried by a standing vote with acclamation.

Drill Averts Panic.

School Children See Smoke of Nearby Fire and Some Run Screaming to the Street.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—A fire in a one-story frame building on West Second street, Coney Island, caused a small panic among the pupils of Public School No. 100, on West Third street, directly in the rear this morning. Several of the children in the classroom on the ground floor nearest the burning shanty saw the smoke and flames and they ran screaming to the street. The principal, James Smith, who saw the smoke at the same time, rang the fire-drill gong, and the rest of the school in orderly array marched to the street. The building was emptied in three minutes. The smoke was seen, however, by many parents of the children who ran to the school. They found all the pupils in the street on the side opposite the school building and as the principal dismissed them for the rest of the morning the women were questioned.

The shanty was occupied by Mrs. Mary Shields and is owned by Abraham Blumberg. The damage amounted to $400.

A Legitimate Errand.

Mr. Chamberlain, the famous British statesman, who recently celebrated his seventy-third birthday, was leaving his house one New Year's eve when he was met by a band of men. 'Are you a deputation?' he asked. 'No, sir,' replied one of the men, 'we are the waits. We have been playing here every night for the last two weeks, and now we've come—' 'Well,' inquired the tariff reformer leader impatiently. 'The fact is, sir, we've come—' 'Oh, I see,' interposed Mr. Chamberlain, 'you've come to apologize!'

The musicians, however, did not go away unrewarded.

SALVATION ARMY.—Don't forget the annual banquet of the Salvation Army to be held by the Livingstone Street Corps this evening at 6.30, after which a special musical meeting will be conducted at 8 o'clock. A good time is in store for all who attend.

King Will Refuse to Make Peers.

New York, March 1.—A special cable from W. T. Stead the American's London correspondent says:—The crisis has cleared for a moment. The speech of Premier Asquith and Chancellor Lloyd-George have satisfied the Irish party that resolutions on the veto will be introduced. In both the Lords and the Commons a collision therefore is inevitable. When it occurs Mr. Asquith will appeal to the King. The question of the Reform of the Lords will be relegated to another session, which is equivalent to the Greek Kalends.

The radicals do not realise that they are running their heads against a stone wall, as the King will certainly refuse to make peers to swamp the Lords. The Ministers will resign and Mr. Balfour will appeal to the country to defend the liberty of the Sovereign from Radical despotism.

Now Cured of Rheumatism

Cost him $100.00 for medicines which failed—Cured by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mr. James Clark, Maidstone, Sask., writes: "I suffered for four years with rheumatism in my shoulders and could not lift my arms above the head. I tried nearly all the advertised remedies but none of them gave me relief. It cost me at least $100.00 for medicines before I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. With the use of this medicine, I soon found relief. I followed up this treatment for six months and was then quite free from rheumatism. While using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I also used Dr. Chase's Backache Plaster when so stiff that I could scarcely bend. They always found the weak spot and gave relief while the internal treatment was bringing about a thorough cure."

The success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills has been phenomenal. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes will be sent free on request.
