DIRECTIONS

For the Guidance of Electors in Voting. Each Elector on entering the room where the poll is being held, shall declare his name, surname, and addition.

After so doing, he shall receive a ballot paper in the above form.

Each elector, if required by the Deputy Returning Officer, the Poll Clerk, one of the Candidates, or one of their agents shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take an oath of qualification. The voter is not to vote for more than six candidates as Councillors.

After receiving the ballot paper the voter shall go into one of the compartments and with a pencil, there provided, place a cross in the divisions containing the names of the six candidates for Councillors for whom he intends to vote thus—X.

The voter will then fold the ballot paper, so as to show a portion of the back only, with the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer and hand it so folded up to the Deputy Returning Officer, and the Deputy Returning Officer shall, without unfolding it, ascertain that it is the ballot paper which he furnished to the elector, and then immediately place it in the ballot box. The voter shall forthwith leave the Polling Station.

If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the Deputy Returning Officer, who will give him another.

If a voter votes for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

If a voter takes a ballot or ballot paper out of the Polling Station, or fraudulently puts any other paper into the Ballot Box than the paper given him by the Deputy Returning Officer, he will be subject to punishment by a fine of five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a time not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Guy Celebration.

There is great preparations going on at Harbor Grace for the big celebration in August. There is a great deal more work over this than many imagine, but with every one ready and willing to take their part, many hands will make light work.

The project for the building of the Hospital to commemorate the occasion, is backed up from all quarters and is sure to be realized. The Committee are keeping in touch with all their helpers and have a big gathering for Thursday next. The Coughlan Hall, the largest in the town where the Agricultural Exhibition was held, is engaged, and Mr. H. F. Shortis has been invited over to give his promised lecture on the old records of Conception Bay.

Mr. Shortis gave a somewhat similar lecture in the T. A. Hall here last winter, and several hundred people could not find seats, this large hall being so crowded. We bespeak for Mr. Shortis a very successful and delightful people more than hearing some good story about their own acquaintances, and wherever Mr. Shortis gets his information he always has something new and authentic. Mr. James Vey goes with him to illustrate this lecture with many of his beautiful limelight views. He has scenes from Brigus to Baccalieu Island, and views that will do honor to the public buildings of many larger towns. Mr. Vey has prepared some special views of the sealishery taken last winter. They are the finest that ever appeared on this subject in Newfoundland or elsewhere. The audience is sure to be delighted with them. We had the pleasure of seeing some of them in preparation, and one set of views of the S. S. Iceland is especially fine and represents the old ship:—

1st.—As she was brought to a standstill, crushed in the ice; 2nd.—The crew preparing to leave her, and getting their bags out on the ice; 3rd.—The last view of the old steamer, she is now in flames, and this was the last of John Munn & Co's old sealing fleet.

Englishman Murdered

In a Bowery Hotel at New York.

New York, June 13.—A man whose name is given by the police as Frank Slickett, and is believed to have come here recently from Baltimore, was murdered to-day in a Bowery Hotel. A revolver bullet had entered his left temple, causing instant death, the coroner said. There was no trace of the revolver.

The victim of the murder was registered with another man at the hotel early to-day as "John Slickett and brother Frank." The supposed brother was not to be found when the body was discovered.

The murdered man was apparently an Englishman, about 23 years of age. McKinley Edition of 10 cent Music—Five thousand copies in stock to choose from. CHESLEY WOODS, Sole Agent for Nfld.—June 13, 1910.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I met a young person yesterday whom I had tried half an hour the evening before to get by telephone. "Where were you and your mother between seven and eight last night?" I demanded. "At home," she said. "No, let me see. Oh, yes, we went over to the Loomies to hear their new phonograph, and had to stay an hour to hear all the records. Why?"

"Well, I tried and tried and tried to get you by telephone. Marion and I were going to the theatre, but Marion was called on a case at the last minute, and I thought you'd like to go."

"Like to go," she said, solemnly. "Ruth, you ought to be given a week in solitary confinement on bread and water for telling me that. Don't you know I haven't been to the theatre for months, and that I was bored to extinction last night, and that I hate phonographs anyway, and that I'll spend the rest of the day thinking if I'd only stayed at home instead of going over to hear that wretched thing I'd have had such a good time. Positively you are cruel."

I certainly ought to have known better, for haven't I, like the rest of the world, suffered agonies of regret over the might-have-been opportunities and pleasures that the people who just missed being able to bestow them upon me, insisted upon telling me about? Indeed I ought to have been especially thoughtful about that detail, for even now I am tormented with useless but persistent regrets over a beautiful bargain in a horse that would have been just that spirited but obedient, able-to-go-a-m-i-l-e-in-two-forty-and-yet-gentle-as-a-lamb mirage of a horse that I've been dreaming of and saving for many years.

"All but had a chance to pick him up for you, Miss Cameron. The man that owned him had to go away, and sell him at a sacrifice. If I'd been half an hour sooner I'd have cinched him for you."

"Of course I'm awfully grateful for my friend's kindness in thinking of me. But I do wish he hadn't told me about it, for I suppose the ghost of that lost opportunity will haunt me for life; and if I were to own a stable of Arabian mares it would be incomplete without that phantom horse. Regrets are most unpleasant things to feel. It might-have-beens are infuriating out of all proportion to their importance. The pleasures and opportunities we just missed are the most tantalizingly enjoyable things on earth—aren't they?"

Well, then, if you assent to that, I'm going to consider that you have promised yourself never to inflict the knowledge of your lost opportunities upon your friends.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands, and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensive repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Add a teaspoonful of soda to a gallon of water when rinsing lavender linens. Matches can be made waterproof by dipping them in very hot melted paraffin. A delicious dish is made of brown bread cut very thin and spread with caviare. A luxury in the shape of a hot water bag, is the one which comes provided with a silk cover. Try adding half a dozen raisins to a pot of coffee. The slight change in flavor is delicious. Some housekeepers prefer a piece of ordinary screening to all else for cleaning a flat iron.

When washing window panes or cupboard doors, use a little whiting on the flannel instead of soap. The chantecler has invaded the kitchen; the cookie cutters in the shape of roosters are available. Before putting away a plush garment it is well to clean it by sponging it over carefully with gasoline. Cluny lace is used as an edging on some of the dainty hand-embroidered covers for the lingerie pillow.

Put a few drops of ammonia on a piece of bread and rub it over your gift frames; they will look like new. Window shades that seem faded may often be made to do good service for months to come. Reverse them. To remove a scar, make an ointment of 40 grains of boric acid and one ounce of lanolin; apply this daily. If after peeling onions, one peels a raw potato the odor of the onions will entirely disappear from the hands. If coal dust is piled on a piece of paper and then put in the stove it will burn without deadening the fire. For summer use no china is more altogether useful than white with green design; it looks cool on the hottest day. It is now quite the proper thing to have one's tablecloths scalloped and buttonholed instead of hemstitched as formerly. If iodine stains are upon wood, wet the wood with cornstarch and let stand a minute, then rub until the stains disappear. Use hot water for all things that grow under ground; such as potatoes, turnips, and cold water for those growing above ground. If you have not an apple corer at hand, use a clothes pin; by means this makeshift the coring can be done with surprising ease. Do not search linens; to give the garment the much desired stiffness iron it while it is damp and until it is perfectly dry. CHINA CUPS and Saucers, Plates, Dishes, etc., Glass Preserve Dishes, Tumblers, Wine Glasses, Decanters, Vases, etc. We are always fully stocked with the above lines.
