Four Men in Peril One Drowned.

Mr. C. H. Hutchings, Deputy Minister of Justice, last night had the accompanying message from Magistrate Freebairn, of Ferryland:—

"Matthew Street, 35 years of age, married, fisherman of banker Hazel, of Burgeo, James Guy, master, was drowned this morning in Stone Island Gut, Caplin Bay, by sunken rock breaking suddenly. James Guy, Thomas Strickland and Isaac Anderson, all of Burgeo, saved; body of victim not recovered, searching. Street leaves a wife and five children to survive."

New Pastor for Cochrane St. Ch.

By this morning's train the new pastor-elect for Cochrane Street Methodist Church, the Rev. C.A. Whitmarsh, M.A., B.D., arrived in the city. The reverend gentleman is a Newfoundland, is quite a young man, is an energetic worker and an esteemed Pastor. He graduated at Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B., and later attended the Drew Seminary at Boston, taking the degree of B.D. Mr. Whitmarsh was ordained some four years ago and has just closed a most successful pastorate at Bay Roberts. The Telegram welcomes the reverend gentleman to the city, and wishes him continued success in his new sphere of labor at Cochrane Street Church.

Western Fishery Report.

Letters received in town yesterday from a resident of Placentia interested in the fishery, and who has been up as far as Fortune Bay, gave the following summary of the fishery to date: On the whole the Bank fishery is better than last year, but the shore fishery from Flat Islands, P.B., to Point May, at the entrance to Fortune Bay, is a blank. At Lowries traps and boats have not an average of 3 qtls. ashore to date. From Odein down to Isle Valen, "bummers" average 15 qtls. ashore, and the best trap has 65 qtls. under salt, while many do not report for a cod's tail. On the west side of Placentia Bay, from Isle Valen to Sound Islands, the "bummers" do not average 10 qtls. landed. The Cape St. Mary's fleet are even to date with last year's catch for trawls, and the traps have done a shade better than last season, averaging about 160 qtls. landed to date. In St. Mary's Bay, from Cape English into St. Mary's, traps average 280 qtls. and there are 42 traps out on that stretch of coast. From Cape English out to Gull Island, Holyrood and Peter's River included, there are 54 traps in the water and these average to date 300 qtls. under salt, with fish fairly plentiful all round.

Obituary.

There passed away quietly at the General Hospital yesterday William Cantwell, a former employee of the Free Press Office. Deceased was 22 years of age and a son of the late Patrick and Elizabeth Cantwell. Some weeks ago he was stricken with heart trouble and Sunday evening last the attack came with increased violence, and from then up to the time of his death was unconscious. Deceased was well known in athletic circles, being a prominent footballer and skater. His funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon from the residence of Mr. N. J. Vinnicombe.

Strawaways Picked Up

On Tuesday the banker George Rose got into Burin with her third catch and reported having picked up two men who had strayed from the banking schooner Paster Kirby. The names of the fishermen could not be ascertained from our informant, but they belonged to the port where they were brought. They had a trying experience and are none the better of it since. When rescued they were much exhausted, being two days alone in an open story drifting about.

Waiting to See.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Sir Edward Morris has returned and now the public await his action in dealing with the Morison case, for much depends upon the course he will pursue. It is a dangerous practice to condone the wrong doing of men who occupy positions of trust, for it is bound to have a bad effect on the moral standing of a community where such practices are permitted. The eyes of the country are levelled on Sir Edward at the present moment and we await to see what we shall see.

Yours truly,

St. John's, July 16th, 1912.

Another Drowning.

Deputy Minister of Customs LeMesurier had a message yesterday from Mr. A. Keough, of Caplin Bay, stating in effect that Matthew Street, of Burgeo, had been accidentally drowned. The deceased victim was a member of the crew of the schr. Hazel, and it is said he fell overboard. The body has not been recovered. Talk of marine disasters, since the present fund was launched five fatalities have occurred here.

The Annual Garden Party will take place at Portugal Cove, on Wednesday, August 7th.—July 18, 11.

The Governor's Trip in Fiona.

Special to Evening Telegram.

RAMSEA, Yesterday.

The Governor and party arrived here yesterday evening. Ramea gave them a royal welcome with flags, cannon and musketry. His Excellency and party came on shore and took in a part of the settlement, stopping on the way and chatting with many of the residents. Returning from their walk His Excellency and party visited the residence of Mr. Penny where a pleasant time was spent. After taking lunch with Mr. Penny His Excellency and party at 6.30 left and went on board the Fiona and sailed at early morning for Conne River.

RESIDENT.

Insect Stings and Summer Sores.

Insect bites and stings, blistered feet and sunburn! These three things, or any one of them, may spoil some days of your vacation, or make your work a bore! Zamb-Buk is the remedy you need! It takes the "burn" out of these red, inflamed patches where the sun has got home on you; it eases bad mosquito bites, and it soothes and heals blistered feet and hands.

In the hot weather young babies suffer greatly from heat spots and chafed places. Here, again, Zamb-Buk will give almost instant ease! Mothers should always keep Zamb-Buk handy, and should use Zamb-Buk Soap for baby's bath.

For cuts, burns, and more serious skin diseases, such as eczema, blood-poisoning, etc., and for piles, Zamb-Buk is absolutely without an equal. All druggists and stores 50c. box or Zamb-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld.

Hay Fever.

BY H. L. RANN.

Hay fever is a moist and industrious ailment which attacks a man just when his last handkerchief has gone to the laundry. It is a very so-called and tenacious disease, and never lets go until it is pried loose by a hard frost. It assaults both sexes in a vicious and unprincipled manner about the time the fragrant rag weed begins to breathe its healing balm upon man and beast. Hay fever is never mistaken for a hard cold by anybody who has encountered it when it is in good form. It is usually introduced by a series of syncope sneezes which sound like feeding dynamite caps to a goat, and is accompanied by lame back, pains in the chest, hardening of the arteries, water on the knee joint, and extreme lassitude everywhere except in the nose and the territory abutting thereon. Hay fever has a very disconcerting effect upon the sense of smell, and lowers a man's vitality until he can't distinguish the odor of heliotrope extract from the rich perfume of the boiled cabbage. Many a man has been seized around the salivary glands by the hay fever, while sitting at some banquet table, and had his appetite made null and void to such an extent that he couldn't tell a limburger sandwich from a cream puff. There is no cure for hay fever this side of the evergreen shore. In order to avoid being dogged around all summer by this damp and mournful ailment, a great many people take to the pine woods of Wisconsin, where a sneeze is considered a penitentiary offense, while others remain at home and associate with the menthol inhaler and the cold compress. When the hay fever becomes stout enough to cause a man to breathe in monthly installments it is called asthma, and is not interfered with by any of the medical profession. There is nothing that will excite a peaceful, home-attack of hay fever into fendish and eruptive activity quicker than a drive through some placid rural precinct, where the olfactory nerve can be landed on at frequent intervals by the pollen of the inquisitive Jimson weed. Like Christmas, hay fever comes but once a year, but if it came any often-er the hemstitched handkerchief industry would have to put on three shifts.

Only Child of the Earl of Ashburnham Enters the Cloister.
 London, July 9.—Lady Mary Catherine Charlotte Ashburnham, 22 years old, the only child and heiress of the Earl of Ashburnham, has abandoned the world to become a nun.
 She was presented at Court two years ago, and recently it was reported that she was engaged to Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender to the Spanish throne.
 She is a pretty girl, a fearless rider to hounds, and wealthy in her own right. The order she is joining is the Sacred Heart.
