

To-Day's News.

Special Evening Telegram, MARIVILLE, Que., To-day. Speaking to electors of the district on Saturday night, Sir Wilfred Laurier, in what may be said to have begun an extended campaign, referring to the naval question, said: "May my right hand be palsied and my tongue cleave to my mouth, if I ever endeavor to raise up popular prejudices on a great national question on the Navy. I know not what Borden's policy in this regard may be, but I can state that it will be studied and examined by us on its merits, and on its merits alone."

Special Evening Telegram, LONDON, To-day. The Pall Mall Gazette publishes an announcement to the effect, that Prince Arthur of Connaught will receive a Dukedom on his return from Japan. The probable title, which will carry a seat in the House of Lords, will be the Duke of Kent.

Special to Evening Telegram, PARIS, To-day. Hols-Holmer, the Halifax long distance runner won the Paris Marathon of 26 miles in 2 hours, 43 minutes.

President Coaker Back.

Mr. Coaker, President F.P.U., arrived in town by the Fogota from the Treaty Shore via Seldom Come Bye. He came to Seldom by sch. from Conche. The Treaty Shore is disgusted with the Reid Coastal Service. No notice was given the residents about taking off the Solway or cutting off the Home at Battle Harbor. The service has given no satisfaction. Mr. Coaker was held up nine days on the coast through the bungling of the service. He held several splendid meetings and was accorded a splendid reception. He says the officials were notified by Mott of the Premier's visit and were asked to get up a reception for him. He reports the fishery from August a blank, and the hook and line fishery on the Treaty Shore as the worst for twenty years. There is no bait anywhere, with no fish catching. Weather was never worse. All the dry fish in Green Bay has been sold at $5.80 and $6. Labrador fish is being purchased in Green Bay at $4 and a considerable quantity has been shipped. Cod oil is very scarce, the large proportion of it has been disposed of. The fishermen are grumbling about Morris's failure to provide bait depots as requested by the F.P.U. two years ago, and the prospects of even a fair fall's catch is very poor.

McMurdo's Store News.

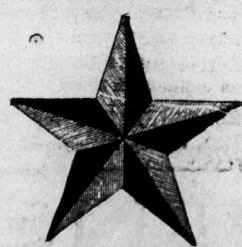

MONDAY, Sept. 9, 12. There is no doubt that the Crown Lavender Salts is the queen of smelling salts. It is kept "off" over the world as the most agreeable and refreshing, and withal the most lasting thing of the kind. We have been selling these salts for many years and can safely warrant them unsurpassed. For nervous headaches, cold in the head, and as a gently stimulating salt for general toilet purposes, they give quick and grateful relief. Two sizes, price 40 and 70 cents.

Rat Corn has demonstrated its value as a vermin destroyer here in town. It dries up the vermin that eat until they are quite hard and entirely odorless. Another good point about Rat Corn is, that it will not poison a child or domestic pet, and is therefore safe to use round the house. Price 15, 25 and 50c. a tin.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Dear Sirs,—I had a Bleeding Tumor on my face for a long time and tried a number of remedies without any good results. I was advised to try MINARD'S LINIMENT, and after using several bottles it made a complete cure, and it healed all up and appeared altogether.

Borden's Welcome Home.

Special Evening Telegram, MONTREAL, To-day.

Few more enthusiastic welcomes have been accorded any Canadian Minister than those which have marked the progress of Premier Borden since his landing at Quebec on Friday. There, irrespective of political complexion, a welcome was heard all sincere. His triumph in the centre of Liberalism was repeated at Three Rivers. Enthusiasm was the one outstanding feature of the demonstration accorded him at Montreal on Saturday night. Liberal and Conservative alike have done him homage at all the receptions he has held since his return and partisan elements have been eliminated. Adherents of both parties greeted him as a Premier worthy of respect who had in foreign countries worthily upheld the best traditions of his utterances in reply to several addresses was for a continuance of the cordial relations which exist between England and France and between the two great races of this country.

OTTAWA, To-day. Borden arrived here yesterday. He will be accorded a civic welcome to-day. A series of cabinet councils will start out without delay. There must be a very busy fall season for Ministers, if the house should meet in November.

Sweeping

BY H. L. RANN.

Sweeping is one of the unbridled passions of the American housewife which is usually good for six strenuous hours, after which it tapers off into a pole-vaulting headache.

The object of sweeping is to stir up all the adjacent microbes and chase them from room to room. They are then allowed to settle in a new place without fear of interruption for a week.

Whenever a woman gets ready to sweep, she takes a good night's rest and an unsullied corn broom and lands in the middle of an Axminster rug with a desperate look. Her attire consists of a long apron in the fashionable box effect so much in vogue and a dusting cap which reclines gracefully over one ear. She is also accompanied by a dust pan, in which she deposits any loose germs which were not quick enough to get out of the way.

After a woman has chased a bulky broom over several rag carpets and under a dozen beds, in the effort to renovate a ten-room house, she will not be in any mood to dispartate at the ice cream parlour, but will prefer to sit down at full length on a hair mattress and see if her breath is going to come back that week. She will also have a stitch in her back which would send the average man to the sanitarium for a month.

One of the neatest forms of sweeping is to turn a power vacuum cleaner loose in the house and allow it to run from floor to floor with its purifying presence. The vacuum cleaner does not leave any sting, except in the monthly light bill. It never complains of a lame back or has to put sweeping until to-morrow on account of a club meeting. Also it never meets a man at the front door on sweeping day and informs him that there is no MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES BURNS, ETC.

"There's a Reason"

The Police Court.

A fisherman of Bay de Verde, apparently insane, was sent to the Asylum.

A fisherman of Conception Bay charged with the larceny of a watch, the value of $6.50, from Edward Snow. He was convicted and sentenced to $10 or 30 days.

Five drunks were discharged.

A drunk for the fifth time was fined $2 or 7 days.

Three drunks were fined $1 or 3 days.

A drunk and disorderly for the 6th time was fined $4 or 14 days.

A young man summoned by Hong Yuen for assault, on the 5th inst., was fined $10 or 30 days.

Another case of assault on the same complaint was withdrawn.

A postponed case of assault on two young ladies by a well-known shopkeeper was heard to-day, and in each case the defendant was fined $5 or 14 days.

Sergt Oliphant summoned five keepers of unlicensed dogs; they all settled up.

On Second Thought.

BY JAY E. HOUSE.

We have noticed that the "reliable family horse" usually matches the delapidated surrey it draws.

The most popular token of esteem for a man is a gold watch. Next to that a gold headed cane.

When a man gives a parade it is always with the idea of attracting the attention of a woman.

Nearly every woman who has grown children explains it by saying she was married very young. "I was nothing but a child," she will add.

A dog can sleep comfortably sixteen hours out of every twenty-four. But a man must stay awake and submit to being bored.

Talk to an elderly man long enough and he will tell you he is trying a new kind of medicine.

Every newspaper is looking for an opportunity to print your picture in connection with the details of the scandal.

When a woman horsewhips a man she justifies the man's offense, whatever it was.

Most men show up better in the preliminary practice than they do in the game.

Eph Wiley says a good many men who do not belong to any church are as unreasonable in their beliefs as the preachers are in theirs.

thing for dinner except forlorn relics of yesterday's menu.

After the sweeping is done, woman takes a dust rag and assaults the furniture with great violence. She feels better after this is done, and so does everybody else. However, her activity in this line enables us to sit down in the front parlor without being frescoed with cobwebs, and we ought to be thankful.
