STRIKE SITUATION CALMER.

BOSTON, Sept. 12. With the threat of a sympathetic general strike held off by action of the Central Labor Union last night in opposing all local Unions to act on the proposal at once, thus giving fuller expression of opinion, an atmosphere resulting from the strike of policemen assumed a calmer aspect today. Soldiers of the State Guard continued in charge of the streets, aided by a force of voluntary policemen and such members of the regular force as had refused to desert their posts. The death list as a direct result of the strike stood today at 7.

BIG FIRE IN MANITOBA.

LOED FRENCH OPENS FETE.

LONDON, Sept. 12. Viscount French, opening a fete at Belfast for the comrades of the Great War Association which in the north of Ireland numbers 87 branches with 15,000 members, said they knew that evil influences were at work in their unfortunate country to put obstacles in the way of men who had served their country faithfully, from earning a livelihood in peace and contentment. It was for them to band themselves together in this great organization. If they done so well and faithfully, no evil influence could befall them. Speaking subsequently, Lord French said it is not for me to talk politics at this moment. The Government of Ireland has at the present moment only one policy to secure for law-abiding subjects: that freedom and protection from outrage which as citizens of the Empire they are justly entitled to. To the fulfillment of that policy we shall bring all our efforts. We shall not shrink from adopting the most drastic methods to secure it. This last statement was greeted with cheers.
