Forty-Four Years in the Service of the Public—The Evening Telegram.

Notes on Tuesday Night's Meeting.

The largest in the history of local politics.

Not a single interruption excepting the continuous desire to cheer the speakers and the name of leader J. R. Bennett.

Note: The Mail and Advocate wisely declined to make any comments whatsoever.

Mr. Fitzgibbon's friends freely admit Joe will have to hustle some to save his nomination fee.

Linear will be over 600 votes ahead of Squires is the way the betting is made since the great demonstration.

There were 2,000 circulars issued, one to every person and long before the meeting started the supply was exhausted.

There were more than enough to fill the large theatre again counting the hundreds who left because they could not get standing room.

The large corridors, aisles, boxes and gallery were packed tight, yet all remained until the last speaker concluded his remarks.

The reception tendered Mr. Monroe, Chairman Ayre and the candidates is a clear indication of what the voters of the city intend to do on Polling Day.

The Star Theatre is without exception the largest in the city and on Tuesday night the largest audience that ever attended this fine theatre was present.

Doc Campbell has thrown up the sponge and all he is sorry for is that he must give up his seat in the upper chamber.

Mr. F. W. Ayre sounded the key note when he said, "If the Humber is a good proposition it would go through but it needed the confidence of the people." The Bennett Government will boost the Humber much better than the present administration.

Sir M. P. Cashin produced facts and figures showing the per capita tax to be increased from $34.60 per head in 1919 to $65.00 per head in this year of 1923.

"Our exports," he said in 1919 were thirty-seven million dollars, to-day they are slightly over ten million dollars.

$4,000 lost on steamer scandals is the record of Mr. Cave's management.

Mr. Monroe and his colleagues are going to give Coaker and Coakerism as big a thrashing as the Squires men are going to get in St. John's East and West.

Mr. Higgins said, "This is a job for everybody not alone the fisherman but every voter in the country."

Sir John showed up Mr. Cave when he stated he left $182,000 in the shipping dept which was squandered in a few months.

Sir John refused Coaker's offer of leadership of the F.P.U., which neither he nor Sir Michael would have anything to do with.

Mr. Hunt in his canvass of the West End said that widowed the story that while they were inside, Dr. Campbell was outside issuing scripts for their sons. Women in the West End to-day were praying for the return of the Opposition.

Unlike the Coaker-Squires candidates, who are pleading for personal and split votes all the speakers advocated the straight ticket or none.

Squires will get such a drubbing that he will not face St. John's West to contest the bye-election.

And they are blaming everything on the Gibbs, a poor excuse for their three and a half years' misrule.

Now Conception Bay, West Coast and the Northern Districts, its year turns to complete the victory with unheard-of majorities.

Bennett will have at least 26 seats.

BENNETT & BETTER TIMES.

S. U. F. Soiree.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S FUNCTION WAS ENJOYABLE.

One of the best social events for the season was held on Tuesday night in the S.U.F. Hall, when St. John's Lodge No. 5 held a real old-time soiree. A very large gathering attended, and dancing was indulged in up to the wee sma' hours of the morning. The catering, which was provided by the lady friends of the Lodge, was of a very high order, and was done full justice to by all. The music was furnished by the C.L.B. Orchestra, and was of its usual high standard. The affair was voted an unequalled success and one of the most enjoyable functions held by the S.U.F.

M.C.L.L. Meets to-night at 7.45 sharp. Annual Meeting. Motion to amend Section 9 of the Bye-laws will be voted on. A large attendance is expected.—April 11.
