The Conquering Hero

IN THE FIGHT AGAIN.

The announcement that the con-uering hero of many political bates, Wm. Woodford, is into the fight again, leading the forces of progress and genuine Liberalism against the levastating influences of Coakerism, has made the enemy tremble in the district of Hr. Main. The Gibbs-Hibbs candidate Hawco, s doomed this time to a big defeat and realizes it more than ever now that Woodford is to lead the Monroe ticket against him. All the more is Hawco embittered at the prospects of his defeat when he considers that it was Gibbs and Hibbs who dragged him into the plight he is placed in. That Hawco is Gibbs, and is pulled admits himself; what Gibbs orders so must he do, that and nothing else, and as both are tools of Coaker and nothing else. Hr. Main voters will turn Hawco down with a big majority this time in favor of the conquering hero Woodford, who will have as his colleague Cyril Cahill, one of our most intelligent, honorable and respected citizens. Woodford and Cahill the Monroe party candidates, as contrasted with the Gibbs-Hibbs-Coaker pair. Hawco and Carter, are a winning team and will poll a big majority of the votes from the Topsail Road right around Conception Bay to the ther end of Hr. Main district,

Woodford as a renowned and popular campaigner cannot be beaten whilst as an able speaker and a clear convincer of the fact that Coakerism as dangerous to Harbor Main as it is to St. John's, his colleague Cahill cannot be excelled. Harbor Main, therefore, will not consent to be led into the mire of misery by Coakerite candidates, because Hr. Main's interests are wrapped up with the city's prosperity.Look out then for a slashing victory in Hr. Main in favor of the Monroe candidates, Woodford and Cahill

Out of every dollar earned the people are taxed 64% cents because of Coaker rule in the Colony.

The members of the Coaker Government raised their own salaries three hundred per cent whilst fishermen and mechanics were seeking re-

The story referred to by Mr. Merrittwas that of the "stealing" of an Enkimo woman by a white man, employed by the Hudson Bay Company, from her Dakimo husband, thus pre-cipitating a chain of circumstances culminating in the murders for which the Eskimos were tried, convicted and
