

The Opening Bill of The Young-Adams Co.

"The Veiled Woman," written by Wm. Devereaux is a powerful drama with an exceptionally fine plot. Mr. Young has selected "The Veiled Woman" for the opening bill of the season because he believes that St. John's likes the better class of play with opportunities for all his actors. "The Veiled Woman" gives Marie Adams ample scope to act and wear some of her beautiful gowns. H. Wilmet Young will be greeted in a part almost written for him, Donald Hays, a big business man and a manly man who loves Marjorie. Edgar Harris has a very clever actor will be seen as Robert Elton a great Bridge player. Mr. Jason is a good looking well dressed manly young man. Alfred Stretton an English actor who was imported by Mr. Young will be seen the opening night as The District Attorney, Edward Stauffer a clever character man will be Inspector Harris. Harry W. Young a young man who is bound to be popular with the fair and younger people will play Charley Ramsay. Fred Durand will be Parker the butler and will double Officer Thompson. Joe Lynne another juvenile who will become popular with St. John's will play Fred Newcome. The ladies, Marie Adams, Marjorie Marquette Youngs. (Mr. Youngs red headed daughter) will have a wonderful part that will endear her to the hearts of St. John's Theatre goers, it will be a Cute French Girl. Cecile Florent. Lady Anstruthers will be played by Ann McNeil while Mabel LeVerton will be seen as Joe. Miss Durand will be the housekeeper. This looks like a real cast of players and with such an exceptionally good play as "The Veiled Woman" with H. Wilmet Young and Marie Adams in star parts and beautiful gowns of Miss Adams and the ladies with real vaudeville acts between and a fine Orchestra it really looks like a big theatrical season. The advance sale will open to-morrow at Hutton's.

Star of the Sea Association of Holyrood

Pass Resolutions of Sympathy to their Deceased Brother Member, Matthew J. Dwyer, late Station Agent at Woodford's.

The Quarterly meeting of the Star of the Sea Association of Holyrood was held yesterday. When the minutes of the last meeting had been read and confirmed and the Secretary and Treasurer's reports submitted, Resolutions of Sympathy to the widow and children of our deceased brother member, Matthew J. Dwyer, who died since the last quarterly meeting, were proposed by President Hannon. These were seconded, suitably spoken to and supported by Messrs. W. P. Walsh, Secretary, Dwyer and W. Veitch, passed and ordered to be sent to the widow and children of the deceased, together with the Death Benefit of Forty Dollars ($40.00), due them from the funds of the Association. Our deceased friend was born at Spauld's Bay thirty-six years ago, and was a son of Patrick and Mrs. Dwyer. He received a good education—like many other Spauld's Bay boys have—from a typical and capable Schoolmaster, James Peddie, and took up the avocation of Agent in the Reid and Co.'s system in this Colony. During his employment as Station Agent at Woodford's, he met and married Miss Mary O'Neill, who was then Schoolmistress at North Arm. Soon he was promoted to Trinity, and thence to Sydney, where he was seriously injured in an accident. Having somewhat recovered from the injuries he received, he was re-appointed to Woodford's, but later new troubles developed, and his health became so impaired that he was obliged to give up work and seek treatment in hospitals at home and abroad. The best medical aid and nursing could not check the dread disease, and after two years of patient suffering he passed to his eternal reward in the flower of manhood. He received the consolations and last rites of Holy Church from his pastor, Rev. Fr. Finn, who was a frequent visitor at the bedside of the sick man. In the designs of Providence his work was finished, and he died leaving to us all who mourn him the inspiration of a gentle, good and upright life. His remains lie buried in a quiet corner of the Central Cemetery. His early grave is fresh and green, and brothers and friends who visit it will cherish his memory, and will not fail to offer up a prayer for the repose of his soul. He was most devoted to his home and family. Hence the loss to his young wife and three little children is irreparable. To them we tender our heartfelt sympathy and pray that God may comfort them in the loss of a dear husband and father, and give him eternal rest.

SECRETARY.
