It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today. Sold by all druggists everywhere. 100 Doses $1.

The Orpheum Theatre

The Melville, secured by Manager Sherman for next week, will present their act, a farce comedy, and should meet with general approval. Hal and Marion Munson in singing and talking comedy, entitled "The Reporter and the Prima Donna," with special scenery and electrical effects. Dixie Christie in a musical act introducing novelties. One of her instruments being a harp, weighing over three hundred and fifty pounds. Miss Christie plays eight instruments and three.

The pictures and illustrated songs will be carefully selected.

Sherlock Holmes at the Lyric

Another delighted audience, witnessed the fine performance of Sherlock Holmes, which the National Stock company presented at the Lyric theater last evening. The play is one that is familiar to everyone and the production given last night was one worthy of the big metropolitan companies. The scenery, lighting equipment and wardrobe could not be improved upon, the celebrated "Gas Chamber" scene in underground London, is a demonstration of modern stage realism. Regarding the cast Mr. Will Chapman, in the title role, is a most convincing Holmes. Ever quiet but so effective that his every appearance commands your attention. It is one of the clearest character studies seen on a local stage for some time.

Wm. Healer is the intrepid J. Lee Larabee, and Howard Nugent as the famous "Moriarty," and Wayne Ross as Dr. Watson, give excellent portrayals of difficult roles. The ladies of the company are well cast and wear some very handsome gowns. The rest of the company give creditable support. Sherlock Holmes will be repeated this afternoon and evening and big audiences will assuredly attend.
