For the Bible tells me so."

After the echoes of Miss Guillot's fine voice had died away, and a hush had failen on the congregation, the infant voice continued the song, and the people list ened with keen attention, while a ripple of amusement was evident. A glance at the pulpit also showed that the stalwart occupant manifested some uneasiness. This embarrasement was markedly increased, when the sacred song was suspended, and three infantile voices broke forth with "Down on the Wabash" while the amusement of the congregation took an audible form.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT

On Saturday morning last a serious accident occured in town by which the son of Mr. Robt. E. Hemphill was nearly killed outright from a bullet is a rifle in the hands of his twis brother. The two young lads whyo are is years of age, with some neighbor boys were practicing target chooting in Mr. Hemphill's orchard on Main street. Roy, a one of the twins, had shot a couple of settines at the target, and Oliver, the other twin, put a new carridge into the rifle to 22 calibre, and raised the gun past his brother who was standing within a few feet of him. He probably touched the trigger as he raised it for the gun, exploded, the muzile being a few linebes, in the house and medical aid summoned. On Sunday morning the patient was put under the influence of chloroform and it was found the bullet had pierced one of the ribs and several fragments of bone were removed. The course of the bullet, seems to have been through the lung just immediately below the heart. The doctore were unable to find the bullet but on Monday night the doctor's reported the semewhere about the shoulder blade. On Monday night the doctor's reported the patient dofing well with a fair prospect

The Medical Health Officer of Ontario issued his monthly report on contagious diseases for September as follows: Scarlet fever 69; diphtheria 35; typhoid 24; Last month the record was as follows: Scarlet fever 48; diphtheria 27; typhoid?

This record for September, a typhoid month, is better than any month; since any record has been kept.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The roads Throughout the country are in splendid condition now for wheeling and many are taking advantage in touring A couple of young ladies from herd ventured to wheel as far as Mitchell on Sunday last, but both did not return as they went. On the return journey Atwood was reached, but there one fagged and could come no further. A carriage had to be engaged to bring her the rest; of the way and she is now paying the penalty by having to stay in the house a few days.

THE RIGHT OF WAY.

It is a well established principle of law that in crossing streets or highways the person on foot has the right of way. Drivers and bleycle riders should bean this fact in mind. It is law, and if your injure a pedestrain by careless riding or driving you are responsible for it. A person is not required by law up run across the street to keep out of the way of vehicles and bleyclee. The riders and drivers are the ones to look out for a clear track.

While Miss Guillot was rendering her sole, "By the waters of Babylon" there floated through the open windows from the parsunage on the next lot the tones of a child soprano, sweet and pure, as a silver bell, and the burden of the melody was:

"Jesus loves me this I know.
For the Bible tells ma so."

After the schoes of Miss Guillot's fine voice had died away, and a hussh had fallen on the congregation, the infant voice continued the song, and the people listiened with keen attention, while a ripple of amussment was evident. A glance at the pulpit also showed that the stal-

wife of our aged postmaster, at the adsanced age of 85 years, removed one of

The deceased, Margaret Tracy, was born in Limerick County, Ireland, in 1812 and came to Canada in infancy with her paren's who settled in the township of Tecumseth, County Simcoe, then a wilderness. She was married to Mr. W. H.
Hacking at Newmarket, April 21st 1832, over 66 years ago. After residing at Newmarkert, Queensville, Guelph and Salem, she with her hueband and family cam: to the bush where Listowel now stands in the fall of 1855. Her furst residence was on the corner lot now occupied by Mr. Robert Thompson where a frame and log bouse was erected. She suffered all the viccissitudes and hardships incident to early settlers and lived, to see the present thriving town of Listowei grow up on a size then, occupied by the untouched forest.

Her family consists of Mrs. C. M. Taylor, deceased, Jos. H. Hacking, deceased, Mrs. James Evans, Mrs. Thos. E. Hay,
W. F. Hacking, Mrs. J. A. Halsted, J.,
