years of age, but who does not look more than 14, was arrested by Sergeant Ross and says her mother lives in London. The girl is wanted in London for vagrancy, and she was taken there this morning by Detective the girl to one year and eleven months in the Mercer Reformatory.

The Spectator does not think it worth while to suppose the London case reversed and instead of Judge Elliot being a Conservative judge who gave Hyman's seat to Carling's seat to Hyman, under like conditions. But there is not a man living who does not know that if the cases were reversed Judge Elliot would by this time have been deprived of his gown and kicked off the bench. The plea that the bogus votes were good votes is absurd. If they were good votes the Conservative revising barrister, Judge Elliot's son-in-law, would not have struck them off the list. Even the London Free Press, the partisan as it is, declined to claim the bogus votes as good votes until after the election, when it was found that without them Carling was a gone goose. Judge Elliot has sent many a man to jail for a crime less harmful in its consequences than the theft of Hyman's consequences than the theft of Hyman's seat.-[Dundas Banner.
