LONDON'S SOCIETIES.

INDEPENDENT ORDER FORESTERS.

Bro. A. E. White and Wm. Gerry, who last year represented Court No. 10, at the Kingston, Ontario, Convention, have been again selected as delegates to the High Court which convenes in Guelph on Aug. 12.

The delegates in Guelph are making great preparations for the comfort and entertainment of the High Court delegates.

MASONIC.

The remarks of R. W. Bro. Doherty, of St. Thomas, D.D.G.M. of London, regarding his official visit to London, Lodge No. 389, A. F. & A. M. of this city, were inadvertently omitted from the list printed in a recent issue. They are now supplied: "Union Lodge, No. 389, London, visited this lodge on the 11th April, 1930, the W. M. and regular officers in the chair. An average attendance of members present. Two candidates were initiated and the lodge was in good hands. Like the other London lodges they have plenty of work to do, and their prospects are good."

The Supreme Council of the Masonic Order will meet at Hamilton in October. J. V. Ellis, of St. John, N. B., will be the general secretary. There will be 100 delegates present, representing nearly every Province in the Dominion. The council is the legislative body of the Masonic Order, having jurisdiction over all the degrees from the 4th to the 32nd degree will be conferred on R. H. McMillan, the Provincial Treasurer of Manitoba, and the honorary Grand Master of the Western Division of the Order, who is a member of the Hamilton lodge.

About 80 members of the Masonic Order, composed principally of King Solomon Lodge, Thamesford, and some 100 members of Woodstock and Embro, marched in procession, headed by a brass band, to the Anglican Church, Thamesford, on Sunday at 3 o'clock p.m., an listened most attentively to one of the best practical Masonic sermons that has been delivered in the hearing of the oldest Masons present. The officiating minister was Rev. J. W. Hodgins, rector of St. Andrew's, who is a member of Thamesford Lodge and preached a strong sermon which could not fail to convince any skeptic as to the claims of Masonry to respect.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias concluded its sixteenth annual session at Milwaukee on Saturday. Before adjourning, the long talk of liquor question was heard. A long and bitter debate was entered into between the prohibition representatives and the local option men. The latter finally won, the Supreme Lodge deciding that the various grand lodges were to judge whether saloon-keepers should be admitted to membership in the lodge. The two children of founder Rathbone, of the order, who were left orphans at an early age, were present. They are now residing at the Supreme Lodge, while they remain unmarried. Towards of 15,000 members remain unattached to the convention, which was one of the largest in the history of the order.

ROYAL ARCADE.

At the last regular meeting of London Council Bro. A. W. Fraser, collector, resigned his position which he held for seven years with credit to himself and great profit to the Council. Bro. Fraser, referring to the valuable services rendered by Bro. Fraser, were made by Bro. J. B. McKillop, Barrister, A. H. Munson, T. Bland, Robt. Alina, Fawcings, C. W. Smith, and others. Bro. Fraser was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy and duly installed.

The annual picnic on Wednesday next at Port Stanley promises to be a splendid affair.

Six candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order, and one application for membership was received. Several members from sister courts favored Forest City on Saturday evening.

A large number of Foresters from the city are going to Hamilton on Monday next to take part in the demonstration of the Ancient Order of Foresters, which will be held at the Hamilton Convention.
