Around the City

—Mayor Little was back in his office again this morning.

—The Brian Boru Company arrived in the city this morning.

—Rev. R. Hadden, Toronto, is registered at the Grigg House.

—Bicyclists are warned that the same results follow riding on the station platforms as on the sidewalks.

—Judge William Elliot presided at the Minihnick-O'Hearn case yesterday, and not Judge Mackenzie, as accidentally stated.

—Mr. M. McNaughton, Ridout street, city, is not the person connected with the accident referred to in a recent edition of The Advertiser.

—Messrs. Dayton & McCormick held their eighth, sociable last night at the Palace Dancing Academy. The attendance was large, and the programme most enjoyable.

—Ernest Coughtry, a young lad, was arrested yesterday, while in company with several other boys, for promoting dog-fighting in the northern portion of the city.

—Tomorrow afternoon the men's meeting in the Auditorium will be addressed by Rev. Ira J. Smith. The Imperial Quartet will sing "Remember Now Thy Creator."

—Warden D. Leitch, Capt. Tom Robson and Judge Edward Elliott, have completed the audit of the criminal justice accounts for the quarter ending March 31. The amount was about the usual one.

—The firemen were called out twice this morning, and in both cases the cause was a chimney fire. The first run was at 5 o'clock, to Mrs. Taylor's residence, 201 Clarence. The second at 7:30 to 423 Oxford street.

—At the last meeting of Chief Fraser, Order of Scottish Clans, Clief Fraser Taylor and the clan physician, Dr. H. A. Stevenson, were appointed as delegates to represent the clan on the Queen's jubilee committee.

—A meeting of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors will be held this evening to appoint delegates to attend the laymen's convention at Mobile, Alabama, April 20. It is probable two representative business men will be sent.

—The Sabbath evening sermons on the Philipians, by the Rev. W. J. Clark, in First Presbyterian Church, have been attracting much interest, and very large audiences. The subject for tomorrow night is "A Guard Against Anxiety."

—Mr. W. H. Hewlett, organist of Dundas Center Methodist Church, returned yesterday from Leamington and Kingsville, where he gave two organ recitals on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, respectively, assisted by Mr. H. Rubben McDonald.

—Ald. Winnett, Stevely and Carrothers, accompanied by Engineer Graydon, made a tour of inspection through No. 3 ward yesterday, to secure information upon which to base the estimates. The most costly work will be done on Wellington street.

—The London Street Railway Company this morning received two cartloads of steel rails for the new Springbank line, upon which work is being pushed with all dispatch. The pay roll of the company for the past two weeks totals up to over $2,500.

—A large number of citizens attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Robt. Duffield, of Dorchester. A very impressive service was conducted at the Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. A. Baker, and the interment took place at the Dorchester Cemetery. The floral tributes were very fine. Deceased was a sister-in-law of William and Isaac Duffield, of this city. She was an active member of the Methodist Church and very highly esteemed.

—The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club met at Association Hall last night, and adopted the report of the committee recommending that the club retain their membership in the C. W. A. The resignation of Mr. Wm. Spencer as president was received, and Mr. F. H. Hadden appointed. Mr. Heath and Mr. Robt. Kirkpatrick were elected representatives on the meet committee. It was decided to adopt as the club colors headdress and black. There was a large attendance at the meeting, and the discussion regarding the coming meet was lively and hopeful.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Goodge took place this afternoon from the family residence at the corner of Maitland and Dundas streets, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The bearers were W. E. Miller, New York, cousin of deceased; James Daniels, city, brother; Robert Daniels, Detroit, brother; John Scollie, city, brother-in-law; A. D. Smith, city, brother-in-law; and I. D. Smith, Toronto, brother-in-law. Rev. E. B. Lancelotti conducted the funeral services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Millard. The floral offerings were numerous and very beautiful, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by her many friends. Notable among the tributes were a Maltese cross, from the Dundas Center Church Epworth League, and a large cross from the organist and members of the church choir.

—A BIG MARKET.

Overcrowding on the market this morning was painfully visible. Every available inch of ground was taken up, and the movement of vehicles was with considerable difficulty. It was the largest spring market, so old farmers say, that has been seen for some years. Thousands of dozens of eggs were offered at from 7c to 9c, and butter was a drug at 12c to 13c.

—DEATH OF FATHER MURPHY.

[Special to The Advertiser per C. P. R. Line.]

Montreal, Que., April 3.—Father Murphy, the well-known Catholic priest, but who in later years had devoted all his time to the development of the gold cure, died here this morning.

London Satisfied

With the Schedule of the Canadian Baseball League.

The Work is Accomplished at Guelph.

Four Games a Week—London's Matches at Home and Away.

The Canadian Baseball League held its annual meeting at Guelph yesterday. Two delegates from each of the teams were present. London was represented by Messrs. Holman and Sippi, and the most important matter of business, the arrangement of the schedule, got a fair share of favors. They returned today well satisfied. The records of 1896 were submitted and adopted. A club forfeiting a game shall be a balance. The first business was to consolidate the offices of president, secretary and treasurer, and make the one officer the executive head of the league. Mr. Cal. Davis, city editor of the Guelph Mercury, was unanimously elected to the office. It was decided that each club should deposit a guarantee of $10, which shall be forfeited by the side losing.

The matter of appointing and controlling umpires was left entirely in the hands of the president.
