Woodstock, Jan. 15. - In the O. H.

A. intermediate series Guelph defeated Woodstock tonight, 3 to 2. At half-time the score stood 1 to 0 in favor of nelph. Both teams put up a fast ex-bition of hockey. The ice was in good of Mr. Billings, and it is still poorer grace for the members of the joint committee from the three associations

just mentioned to uphold the Bonners' efforts in this direction. Mr. Billings, who has paid thousands of dollars for fast trotters and pacers, is like the late

Robert Bonner in one respect. He does not race his horses for purses.

There the resemblance ceases. In the desire to show that Lou Dillon was truly entitled to be called queen of the turf, Mr. Billings, last fall, decided to have her hooked to a high wheel sulky and driven to beat 2:08%. In the effort Lou Dillon drew a sulky which weighed 17 pounds more than the 38-pound sulky Maud S. drew when she trotted in 2:08 3-4. She covered the mile in 2:05, whereupon the Bonners pro-drew had ball bearing axles. There is no more reason why this protest of Maud S.'s record on the ground that hooked to sulky and one under saddle,

NEW RECORD.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 16.-Four thousand persons witnessed the racing at Oakland this afternoon. John A. Scott, ridden by Hildebrand, covered the 61/2 record. The previous record, 1:18 3-5,

SATURDAY'S WINNERS.

Allegrette, 5 to 1; Gus Heidorn, 30 to Basswood, 20 to 1; Jimalong, 20 to 1.

Game—Government Employes

Up in Arms at Roosevelt.

Sunday-playing section.'

UP IN ARMS AT TEDDY.

CHANGE OF SENTIMENT.

Captain Arnold, 11 to 5; Ascension, uirements of the many amateur and in several of the world's record

BOVRIL

Fortifies Against

Colds and Chill

Vera's

with evident distruct. "Just think of what you are saying. And to deny your own brother, too!'

Mr. Peyton gives way once more to mirth that proves untimely. "Is it a !oke?" asks she severely, fixing him with a stern eye. "Are you be the wife of nobody?"

brother, never had, and only one sister. I've a lot of uncles and aunts," de- would hardly venture here again." precatingly, "if you'd like to hear about them. But they are especially uninter-says Griselda, who is plainly offended. "I only want to go home." "Oh, don't go like this," entreats "I'.

Peyton, taking her hand in spite of her, sigh. and looking down with quite an anterday, that you would be good to me

Griselda having tried vainly, if deli-

'You certainly said you had a bro-"I didn't; didn't I give you my word? It was all a mistake. Won't you believe me? Yes, you will." He has caught her hand by this time, and is looking eagerly with his honest eyes into her face. little smile widens her lips.

'You make one believe," she says, sweetly; and then, "Oh, I must run, I told Vera I should be home soon, and -" She starts to her feet. "Give me your hand," says he, "and we'll make a fight for it." And together they race over the soft smooth grass of that lovers' valley, through the little green entrance, and so on, until the turrets of Greycourt rise before them. "You will come again tomorrow," says Peyton, retaining her hand still, and gazing eagerly, entreatingly, into her eyes. 'Oh, not tomorrow.' "The next day, then. I've any amount of rods at the inn; one a very nice lit-tle one. And I'll set it up for you, and have it at that part of the stream where we met today. No, you sha'n't say you won't come. I won't listen. But I'll be there the day after tomormor, and I'll wait for you till night-

"Oh, I wish you wouldn't. I certainly sha'n't be able to come; and I won't, either; I won't, indeed. Vera says it's Well, I'll wait," doggedly.

"You must blame yourself, then; not me. I'm not coming. And at all events -I couldn't be there until three!" You will come then?" says he, his face lighting up. "Three or five-any time. Only, come!" "Oh, I haven't said that," nervously. "Good-bye. I am almost sure I sha'n't Saturday afternoon, the subject of able." She moves away from him now, it must be confessed, a smothered and then looks back. "Do put even a inclination towards mirth, "that a crust of bread in your pocket," she says anxiously. "It is so wretched to think His face—did you see it?—it was a pic-

"I would if I could," says he genially. "But the fact is, he is neither pleasant nor unpleasant. He doesn't exist."
"What!" says Griselda, eyeing him self off.

CHAPTER XII. Thou only hast stepped unaware-Malice, not one can impute; And why should a heart have been in the low tense way of one who has get through it." How, indeed!

In the way of a fair woman's foot?

This is an unanswerable argument, and Peyton goes down before it.

"You misunderstand me," he says, humbly. "You did, indeed. I haven't a brother, never had, and only one sister.

In the low tense way of one who has been mentally whispering all day, as if a raid of being overheard. "I never moved from this. I felt as if I could not," with a nervous sigh; "I knew I might have met him if I had gone any where else, but here I was safe. He been mentally whispering all day, as if a raid of being overheard. "I never moved from this. I felt as if I could not," with a knife and fork, and a spoon or two," says Griselda. "Well, I do wonder whether he will talk and pass it along, or sulk and maintain a majestic silence."

I suppose I couldn't have a head-would hardly venture here again."

"What folly!" says Griselda, severely, who is nothing if not practical.

"My good girl, have you thought that civilized people almost and maintain a majes the silence."

"I suppose I couldn't have a headache?" suggests Vera, regarding her sister doubtfully.

"Oh, no. Not couldness and maintain a majes the suppose I couldn't have a headache?" suggests Vera, regarding her sister doubtfully. be dinner," says she, nodding a sapient "I must say," says Griselda, with of your starving like that."

"I sha'n't feel hungry the next time," says he, "because I know you'll come. You couldn't be cruel enough to disappoint me now."

"Well, go," says she. "If you were seen—"
"I'm going," says he reluctantly, and presently, when he has shaken hands with her for about a minute and a half, talking rapidly all the time to hide the "Inexcusable? I don't see that, Griselda," says her sister impatiently. "I feel so wretched about it—just as if I hated myself!" She stops for a moment, and flits the palms of her hands and presses them nervously against her hot cheeks. "To have offended anybody in that rude inexcusable way makes one feel so horrid."

"I would if I could," says he genial-Griselda. "I don't see that it was your fault at all. You gave your opinion hear that opinion, whose fault was it?"

"No one's, of course," she seemed a little comforted by this bland disposition of her trouble, and goes on again presently as if agreeing with it. "Yes, really, and besides, he isn't of so much importance and the state of the second se that city, interceded for Ryan, and that tural conditions, like to follow his example. It comes with poor grace for the Bonners, men who have never done anything to advance the interests of the turf, to try to impugn the honesty of the turf, to try to impugn the honesty of the turf. importance, anyway. He's really nothyour assertion?" It is plain she had meant to use a harsher term.

"Certainly I do," says he, now somewhat amazed.

"But, have you forzotten, then?" demands she, rising indignantly to her feet. "Why, only five minutes ago" (oh, how swiftly time runs for the young!) "you told me you were very glad I wasn't his wife, How could I be the wife of nebedy.""

Peeping into the summer-house as speak to one's own sister without besing reviled for it." It is quite plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once there is she runs past it, Griselda discovers, to her amazement, that Vera is still in it.

"What, have you never stirred?" look right to herself. Then all at once the same that you stayed in this earwiggy place ever since? But," hopefully, "I suppose you did stir; you went into the house, the gardens, and came back again?"

But, have you told ne you were very glad I wasn't his wife, How could I be the wife of nebedy.""

No, I didn't," says Vera, speaking the plain of the summer-house as speak to one's own sister without besing reviled for it." It is quite plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is trying to make herself look right to herself. Then all at once the plain, now, that she is tryi sting."

"My good girl, have you thought that Vera, where is your pluck gone? Don't want to hear nothing more at all." civilized people always dine? There will you suppose he would know? It would nner," says she, nodding a sapient only make bad worse: create a moun-"You'll have to face him there." tain out of the merest molehill. I real-"I've thought of that," with a quick by think I should come down if I were

guished countenance upon the pretty ruffled one below him. "I think, if you only knew how miserable I was all yes-MAY BE BUILT THIS SUMMER

Question Considered at Meeting building another rink to meet the re-Saturday—Rinks Now Cannot Meet the Demands.

* HOCKEY THIS WEEK

Junior City League. Imperials vs. Aberdeens. Lornes vs. L. C. I. Waterloos vs. St. John's. TUESDAY. Junior O. H. A.

Stratford vs. Hortons at Jubilee. WEDNESDAY. Intermediate O. H. A. St. Marys vs. St. John's at the Senior City League.

St. John's vs. Y. M. C. A. Seventh Regiment vs. Aberdeens. THURSDAY. Junior O. H. A. FRIDAY.

Senior W. O. H. A. Goderich vs. Aberdeens, at Ju-

SELECTED

At a meeting of the directors of the London Skating Rink Company on > BALL MASKS FOR GOAL. at the present time agitated by the it is not helpful to the game. It says: question as to whether goalkeepers mag "Thus with 20 years of experimenting the Detroit Free Press. This has use are not the best lighted in the of the practice. In the three major under the existing conditions. The the west, and the constant struggle to Granville, at the close of the the O. H. A. rules, and on Saturday the western circuit could not be made self- his letter, but said that he could do contrary to the rules of the associative and discarded 25 cities, nearly all ability. tion. He decided that masks might be of them in the west. The American Now

The Senior City League hockey teams will practice after the Stratford-Horton game tomorrow night. The first practice St. John's, the second between the Aberdeens and Seventh Regiment. The order for the Junior City League rials vs. Aberdeens, Lornes vs. L troit, the Warren hockey team defeat-SENIOR LEAGUE WILL PRACTICE.

The Senior City League hockey teams will practice after the Stratford vs. Horton game tomorrow night. The be between the Y.

M. C. A. and St. John's: second practice will be between the Y.

The Senior City League hockey teams and others in Unice Sam's pay his unnappy nome-going, and further than the threatens to summer on the farm rather than play for less than $3,500.

CORBETT WITH ST. LOUIS.

HORTONS VS. STRATFORD.

NOW AGITATING AMERICAN CITIES Declared To Be Injurious to the ferent. The magnates of the minor leagues are almost unanimous in believing that the two major leagues will be merged into one before the end of 1905, or even previous to that time In that event, the best plan to follow would be the formation of a strong Eastern League-that is, with the added cities from the major league surplus-The Sunday ball question is agitatand a strong Western League, such as ing a number of cities on the other the American Association, with added is having some difficulty over a park. BARROW SQUARED HIMSELF. The Sporting Life discusses Sunday The Toronto Commercial League is ball, and comes to the conclusion that is getting to be dangerous for a manwear baseball masks. The out- with Sunday ball it is possible to surely been shown here in the case of Arthur door rinks which the league has to trace and demonstrate the evil effect Granville, who played third base for world, and goalkeeping is no sinecure leagues this practice was confined to as a possibility for the Detroit infield case was submitted to a test, recently, and the constant struggle to and the referee ordered the player to carried his case to the president of the league, who upheld the ruling of the referee. The league plays under the constant struggle to son, wrote to Detroit asking for a trial, saying that he could get his release and giving it as his opinion that he could make good. Barrow acknowledged refuted by the simple spectacle of the Elmer Flick, according to Cleveland advices is one of the many ball play-ers sorrowing because the good days rock-ribbed stability of the one nonare gone. Flick, when he quit Phila-Government employes in Washington delphia for Cleveland, was signed to a who patronize baseball are up in arms $2,500 contract. It expired last fall, who patronize baseball are up in arms over a recent order from President Roosevelt which compels them to work until 4:30 o'clock each afternoon. Formerly the day's routine ended at d'o'clock, which enabled the Government clerks and others in Uncle Sam's pay to get to the hall grounds in time to the threatens to summer on of Joe Corbett, the star pitcher of Sudbury. One hundred curlers are ex-Hanlon's famous Baltimores, was re-pected to be present to take part in Hanlon's famous Baltimores, was re-ceived by the St. Louis National League Club yesterday. Frank Rob-Since the talk has gone the rounds bout combining the best cities of the son was negotiating with Corbett for wa, the two Soos on the Soo branch American Association and Eastern

AVERAGES NO GOOD.

VICTORY FOR MARLBOROS.

Toronto, Jan. 16. — The Mariboros won the senior O. H. A. match played here tonight, defeating St. George's, 7 goals to 4. The half-time score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Mariboros.

PRESTON BEAT ELORA.

"suffered enough." Hence his restora-

Matinee racing under the auspices of the Rochester Driving Club has been abolished. At a recent meeting the club voted to devote all its energy to a series of race meets during the summer at Crittenden Park, beginning probably on Decoration Day and closing on La-

The reason given for the abolition of matinee racing is that it promotes jealousy and discord among the horse-

VETERAN DRIVER DEAD.

campaign until 1878. He was connected with Glenview Farm for some years.

shown when the 168 head of stallions.

Grand Circuit campaign in 1897, win-out and gave fast records to many Wistful, 2:114; Philonides, 2:114;

Boreal, 2:15%, and others of like merit accepted a position under the Russian conduct a school for trainers, and for a stable of 50 head of Russian trotters

Another of the veteran trainers and hibition of hockey. The ice was in good condition.

STRUTHERS BEAT HOBBS.

A very fast game of hockey was played Saturday night at the Jubilee Rink, between R. C. Struthers & Co.

and Hobbs Hardware Company teams, Preston played better combination than the score being 2 to 1 in favor of the the home team and made it effective.

The Horse World does not like the action of the joint committee in recently deciding to disallow the record of Lou Dillon, made at Cleveland. It scores the committee and goes on to plunger, who is confident that he will be allowed to operate on the Metrorolic.

say: "It cannot be denied that Lou be allowed to operate on the Metropolitan tracks against this year. Ryan's arousing a degree of enthusiasm for from the stewards of the Buffalo Joc-

the light harness horses such as has key Club, it is said, since the news not been manifested before in many came from Detroit that he had been re-instated by the Fort Eric officials, who ruled him off the turn for alleged efforts of Mr. Billings in this direction "ringing" in 1898. It is stated also that the men in control of the National and the Jockey Club's agents will make a

American Trotting Associations and statement," that they will interview the the Trotting Register Association, have officials of the Highland Park Club and taken a stand that cannot but prove that they will make an early report. In very discouraging to that gentleman Detroit the story is in circulation that and to others who would, under natural conditions, like to follow his extractive, interceded for Ryan, and that tested that she should not be credited Fuller began driving horses in 1866, with the record because the sulky she but he did not make a Grand Circuit violation of the rules, proved a boomin 1884; in Nutbreaker, 2:24½, he had erang for Maud S. was accompanied a sensational 2-year-old; in Day Dream, by two horses in her record mile, one 2:21%, and Algath, 2:23, two sensa-

At New Orleans-Knowledge, 9 to 5; In 1899, when 64 years old, Mr. Fuller

Big Ben, 7 to 5; Frank Bell, 3 to 1; those years he had under his charge

Londoners and this should be former. The feature of the game, was treason for the rooters to turn the fine checking by Curley Fields for large assortment of Match Scratchers, Match Holders, Pipe Holders and Photo Frames, handsomely painted, floral and comic designs, value 25c, 2 for 25c Tuesday 15c, or.....

London, Jan. 18, 1904.

25c Match Scratchers Tuesday 15c, or 2 for 25c.

Try our Cream Baking Powder, put up in air-tight tins, value 25c, Tuesday 10c can.

20c Cushion Cord, Tuesday 15c.

Beautiful Large Silk Cushion Cord, beautiful colors, plain or mixed, always sold at 20c yard, Tuesday to clear at, yard15c

Just received 22 dozen very fine English Stone Teapots, beautifully decorated in two sizes, value 40c and 50c, Tuesday, each25c dozen Brown Stone Teapots, large size, value 25c, Tuesday, each 15c

Glass Stand Lamps, complete, "B" burner, value 50c, Tuesday clear-Glass Lamps, "A" burner, complete, Tuesday25c you can read between the lines. Good ed the last rink being completed. A managers are coming to depend less return match will be played at Monupon the figures and more upon what treal later in the season they hear from keen observers. It is easy to stuff averages, and then there is the danger of faulty scorers. A man Milwaukee who dodges chances may run up a fine fielding average, yet be a poor player. The consistent player, the man who goes after everything in sight, regardless of his averages, is the lad all the managers are after.

Snow Shovels and Coal WOODS' FAIF Hods 25c Each.

MONTREAL IN THE LEAGUE. make terms with the local people re- BOWLING garding next season's play. He says there is no doubt about Montreal being in the league.

drivers passed away recently when George J. Fuller died at his home, near Nashville, Tenn., aged 69 years. Mr. DISPOSING OF WASHINGTON. Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.-Ban Johnson, president of the American four games in succession with the should stand than that one should be and how well he had performed his made and upheld against the validity part of the work at Glenview was panied by John E. Bruce, secretary of she drew a sulky lighter in weight and of a different construction than the one Goldsmith Maid drew, when she trotted in 2:14. The other objection that the objection that the objection that the disposal of the Washington Club been equaled. While at Glenview Mr. the National Baseball Commission.

Mr. Johnson is here in connection with the disposal of the Washington Club and before he leaves the city he expects to name the new owners. Mr. trotted in 2:14. The other objection been equaled. While at Glenview Mr. pects to name the new owners. Mr. made to both high wheel and bike Fuller developed and drove Patron to Johnson says that with a change in sulky performances of Lou Dillon, that the 3-year-old record of 2:19½ in 1885: she was accompanied by two horses in Elvira to the 4-year-old record of 2:18½ ownership the team will be strength-

BAN KEEPS MOVING. Cincinnati, O., Jan. 16.—At an intional 4-year-olds. After the breakup formal conference here today, attended of Glenview Fuller went to Forest by President Johnson, of the American City Farm, at Cleveland, where his League, President Herrman and Secformer pupil Patron had preceded him, and with that horse he made a great retary Bruce of the National Baseball Commission, it was decided to call a meeting of the National Commission in ning the $10,000 Charter Oak purse with Chicago during the second week in him, and in another race, a match of February. President Pulliam, of the $5,000 a side, he defeated the then National League, was not present, and champion race trotter Harry Wilkes, there was no meeting of the commis-2:131/2. Later on Mr. Fuller brought pitcher, from entering a solid protest against being shifted to Buffalo at a the condition of players, and the Kis- adelphia.

eague was standing by this agreement. President Herrmann, of the Cincin ati club, has been so pressed by St. Louis and Philadelphia for Jake Beckley that he has put it up to the player to choose which of the two clubs he will play with. ARE KEEPING UP Four Rinks of Thistle Curlers Defeat Detroit by Thirty Shots on Saturday.

Four rinks of curlers from Detroit met defeat at the hands of the Thistle Club, Saturday, the score standing 78

After the game the visitors inspected ago. the new clubhouse and gymnasium, and expressed themselves as greatly pleas-

The visitors were the guests of the Thistle Club all afternoon and evening, for constipation and sick headache. No and were tendered a lunch at the con- griping pains, sure cure, price 25 cents. clusion of the game, after which they were entertained with a dinner at the London Club. They arrived in the city saleh. These are salted and packed in the C. P. and returned via the ice and sent to Hamburg via Trieste, via the C. P. R. and returned via the same road. Following is the result of skip...

C. E. Preston E. Sterling, W. Fulton, Robert Reid, A. E. Barbour.

W. Bartlett. T. Strong. H. N. Gillies, skip..... B. W. Glover G. De C. O'Grady,

Total......48 To Majority for Thistles, 30. A NORTHERN BONSPIEL.

Sudbury, Ont., Jan. 18.-The first week in February, the annual bonspiel of the Northern International Association with be held in the new rink. the roarin' game. The association includes the towns as far east as Matta-

Brookline, Mass., Jan. 16.-The Montreal Curling Club made its annual visit Charge moderate, ages of ball players these days unless match on six rinks, but snow prevent-

TO CLASSIFY FIGHTERS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16. - A movement to organize a national boxing association to classify weights, etc., which was started by Charles E. Davies, of New Orleans, and T. S. Andrews, of Milwaukee, two weeks ago. is meeting with great success. Favorable replies have been received from Montreal, Jan. 16.—Atherton, the new cities in the east, middle west, south manager of the Montreal Eastern and west. It is probable that the meet-League Baseball Club, has arrived to 6 and 7.

BOWLING RECORD.

Denver, Jan. 16.-H. L. Watt broke the season's record for individual bowling in a series of games on the Overland alleys yesterday. He rolled scores of 279, 233, 220, 228. His total for the four games is 1,020 and for the last three 741; for the first three games 732, either of which breaks the former record of the season held by Hassett

FLORIDA.

Personally-Conducted Tour via Penn

The first Jacksonville tour of the season via the Pennsylvania Railroad, allowing two weeks in Florida, leaves New York, Philadelphia and Washington by special train Feb. 2. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth) and meals en route in both directions while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: New York, $50; Buffalo, $54 25 Rochester, $54; Elmira, $51 45; Erie, Pittsburg's owner says that one can- $54 85; Williamsport, $50; Wilkesbarre, not blame Rube Kissinger, the Detroit $50 35; and at proportionate rates from other points. For tickets, itineraries and full insalary reduction of $75 per month. He formation, apply to ticket agents or adows that the National Agreement calls dress George W. Boyd, General Passenfor the advancement and betterment of ger Agent, Broad Street Station, Phil-

LIVED TO BE 112

Mrs. Keith Was 108 Before She Saw a Railroad Train.

Indiana, Pa., Jan. 18. - Mrs. Leah Keith, Indiana County's oldest resiat the age of 112. Although she had THE GOOD WORK at the age of 112. Although she had lived in this county for 80 years she was never in the county seat and never was never in the county seat and never saw a railroad train until about four years ago, when the Pennsylvania Railroad projected a branch into the territory adjacant to her home.

In her younger days she was a great lover of music and was quite an artist in the buckwheat songs then prevailing. Modern tunes and hymns never In later years, when on numerous occasions she fell into swoons, nothing was so potent a restorative as to have and sing the buckwheat songs of long

Old Folks Can't Stand Harsh, purging medicine, but invariably find Dr. Hamilton's Pill of Mandrake and Butternut the mildest cure Use only Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Egyptian fishermen receive $20 thousand for eels caught in Lake Men where the ice supply is renewed Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat silments are quickly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists

MEN AND WOMEN. Use Big & for unnatura discharges, inflammations

HOTEL ALBERT

Corner of Eleventh Street and University A homelike, comfortable hotel, at moderate rates. Location most central, yet quiet. Away from the rattle and noise of Broadway. Convenient to wholesale district. Near the larger retail Rooms $1.00 Per Day and Up L. & E. FRENKEL.

Bind Your Books. Have you any Magazines or old Books that require binding? Bring them to us.

P. Bock.

LONDON LANCET.

The Purest Form in which Tobacco can be Smoked.

MILD & EXTRA FINE

angements for skating and hockey makes the sports conflict. The rink owners in the city say they cannot nearly meet the demands of the hockey clubs for practices and games. It is property immediately east of the preshockey blood in the city, which is the its many patrons and lovers in this WON SECOND GAME.

hockey clubs in this city was serious- performances previous to those of 1903, ly discussed, and at its conclusion one two horses have accompanied the reof the directors stated that the pro- cord maker. posed rink would in all likelihood be constructed during the coming summer, and be ready for use for the sea skating in the city will welcome this news with delight, as the present arturlongs in 1:181/2, making a new world's intended to use the present Queen's avenue rink for skating only, and the 1; Stella Allen, 9 to 1; Vipeune, 8 to 5; Government to go to that country and new one for hockey practices and matches. The new rink will be constructed along modern lines and will have every convenience for players and to 2; Vestry, 16 to 1; Major Mansir, 13 and a class of 30 embryo trainers. spectators. The proposed site is the QUESTION OF SUNDAY BALL IS ent rink and the new rink will be fully as large and probably larger than the present one. Without practice it is simply impossible to develop the new foundation of future teams, and any effort to encourage good clean amateur hockey will be hailed with delight from

By defeating the London Printing and Lithograph Company in hockey at the Jubilee Rink on Saturday afternoon, the Southam Printing and Lithographing team won their second game. The game was close, the score at half being 0 to 0, and the final score Brooklyn, where the club management fellows.

C. I., Waterloos vs. St. Johns. Before a crowd of 800 people Friday night on the Warren avenue rink. De-

M. C. A. and St. John's; second practice, Aberdeens and Seventh Regijuniors at the Jubilee Rink tomorrow night in an O. H. A. championship game in which the Hortons figure highly towards winning the series. Hugh Jack, of Brantford, will referee the game, and the line-up of the locals will be as follows: Goal, Reynolds; point, Young; coverpoint, Evans; forwards Abraham. Powell. Carrothers and Arthurs. The above boys are all been cared for. Now the feeling is dif-

side of the line, and particularly strength from the leavings of the big

In these days of organized baseball it lager to write to any man other than one whom he has under contract, says Colorado Springs, Western League, last O. H. A. secretary was asked whether supporting even with Sunday games. the Springs team to let him go. In that the wearing of such a protection was The National League in its long career case Detroit would let him show his worn. Geroux, of the Marlboros, tried one this winter in practice, but he found it a handicap, inasmuch as it obscured his vision.

The decided that masks might be of them in the west. The American probably led away by reports that Granville is to come here, or that Barrow obscured his vision. leads to trouble and ruin. Summing plaint that Detroit is tampering with up, this fact stands out boldly and ir- his men. Manager Barrow has for-The Ottawa hockey team defeated the Montreal Arena on Saturday night in the C. A. H. L. series, by 8 goals to 3. The Ottawas had it pretty much all their own way.

The Senior City League bookey team defeated the American Association was the non-Sunday-playing east; the bulwark of the National League was and is that section; and the chief strength and the chief strength and the wastern last year and baseman in the Western last year and baseman was a la hope of the American League today lies this side of the Alleghenies! Thus all the arguments for Sunday ball are GOOD DAYS ARE GONE.

about a month, permission to do so having been granted to him by Manager Hanlon at the December meeting of the National League in New wa, the two Soos on the Soo branch, and Chapleau on the main line west. The new rink, 150x175 feet, will allow of seven sheets of ice for the bonspiel.

YANKEES BEAT CANUCKS.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—President James A. to the Country Club today, and in the Hart, of the Chicagos, says: "You contest was defeated on four out of