A GOOD Paying Investment

The demand for fruit farms in Ontario The demand for trust farms in obtains its continually increasing, which is partly is continually increasing, which is partly due to the large number of canning factories in the province and the large indue to the large number of canning factories in the province and the large increase in the population of the cities and towns where they are unable to grow the fruit they require. These conditions make a market for a large quantity of fruit, and this market will continue to develop as the population of the country increases, and Ontario is in a most favorable position to supply this demand. Although land suitable for this kind of farm/ng is more expensive than land used for ordinary purposes, still from a few miss this clanes, if you want good value. for ordinary purposes, still from a few acres, if attended to properly, there is more money made than from a large farm. Fruit of all kinds has always a ready sale, and generally at high prices.
We have a number of farms suitable for this kind of farming. Write for our list and you will be sure to find something to suit you. Your railway fare (up to 1,000 nules) direct from your home to the property you purchase through this agency will be paid by us to you as soon as you receive the deed of the property.
