Johnny Summers, a Featherweight, Does the Trick in England.

London, July 31. - Johnny Summers, the English featherweight pugilist, defeated Jimmy Britt, the American lightweight, in the ninth round, at the Memorial grounds in Westham this afternoon, The contest, which was scheduled to go 20 rounds, was for $500 a side and half of the gate receipts. Britt, who was somewhat fat and slow, was outclassed from the beginning, and was finally knocked out. He was knocked down in the second round and took the count of seven, but came back fresh in the third round. Summers had the advantage in the succeeding rounds, and when the gong rang for the ninth he ones in great stple. attacked Britt furiously, raining blows upon his body and face.
