CANADIAN LEAGUE SEEMS
DUE FOR REORGANIZATION

Sale of Hamilton Franchise May Be Initial Step in Re-arrangement of Canuck Circuit—Move To Bring American Cities in Appears To Be a Poor One.

The passing of "Kooty" Lee, founder of the Canadian League, from the organization which he fathered and worked over so hard in order to put it on a paying basis, will probably result in a reorganization of the Canuck circuit. For the past couple of seasons it has been reported that the league will drop Guelph and Berlin, the two poorest-paying clubs on the circuit, and either form a six-club league or take in Toronto and Montreal. The probable purchase of the Hamilton franchise by the Toronto International League club will put an end to any further attempt to place a Canadian League club in the Queen City, and will be a stronger argument for a six-club league.

Six-Team League Should Pay Better. There is little doubt that a six-team organization can be made a better paying proposition than the present eight-club circuit, and with Ottawa, London, Hamilton and one or two of the other clubs favoring the smaller circuit, the change may be taken up and adopted at the next league meeting. The only objection to a six-club circuit is the long jump to Ottawa. With a smaller league the other teams would have to make this jump a couple more times each season than they have in the past two years, and without a pennant-winning club in the capital this would not be a paying proposition.

Keep Out the Americans. Of late agitation has been started to bring two American border cities into the league, Niagara Falls and some other place in that section. Past experience with a league composed of American and Canadian cities such as are mentioned has been a costly one, and every league bordering organized with this circuit has been a total failure. The International League of five or six years ago was the last attempt, and this league broke up in the middle of the season. The Canadian towns were supporting it far better than the larger American cities.

There is need of reorganization in the Canadian League at present, but it cannot be accomplished successfully by replacing Canadian cities with American border cities. What is needed is a complete six-club league or else an eight-team league, with Toronto and Montreal replacing Guelph and Berlin.

Dunlap, Not "Dunlop," Is Way to Spell Shortstop's Name

London Player, Now With Cleveland, Did Not Want to Have It Changed After Fans Had Got Used to Calling Him "Dunlop."

George Dunlap, the London shortstop who was sold to the Cleveland Club, and who got his first chance in a big league game at Washington yesterday, made his debut in fast company under conditions that were enough to try even the most seasoned recruit. Dunlap was sent in to play shortstop in the second game, after Washington had obtained a lead that Cleveland had little chance of overcoming, especially with Walter Johnson out there pitching against them.

To have to face the best pitcher in the world on his first appearance in a big league game does not often fall to the lot of the recruit, so that it is little wonder that Dunlap is not credited with a hit. His game in the field, however, was perfect, having three chances without a slip up.

His Right Name Is Dunlap. Dunlap's right name is Dunlap. When he first joined the London Club it was Dunlop, but later Manager Eddie Donohue said it was Dunlap. However, Dunlap himself settled the question by stating that the last syllable was spelt with an "a," but as the fans had come to know him as Dunlop, he did not want the name to change. It, however, will appear in the Cleveland lineup as Dunlap, and local fans who see it will now know that instead of being a typographical error, it is the real spelling of his name.

May Return to London. Dunlap will likely return to this city after the American League season closes. He stated before departing that he liked London, and would stay here all winter if he secured a position. A couple of good positions were offered him, and he, together with Looney Bierbauer, may remain here until next spring.

Big Bowling and Curling
Revival Occurs in Ingersoll

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, Sept. 10.—Ingersoll never experienced such a bowling revival as during the present season and the prospects appear unusually bright for the success of the game next year. In this connection it might be stated that the prospects also are bright for an increased membership of the Curling Club. It is a singular fact that the two games are very similar, and many of the men who bowl are also enthusiastic curlers. The competition created by the Rogers' trophy has proved beneficial to the competition of next season. The Rogers' trophy has been won by the rink skipped by Mr. G. A. Myers. Their opponents were a rink skipped by Mr. C. H. Sumner and the Myers' rink won out by a score of 22 to 8. The games have been contested with a spirit that must necessarily build up the club and a banner season is expected in 1914.

2:50 PACE SPLIT
INTO TWO RACES

Owing to Big Entry List Management Decides to Hold Another Race Friday.

CONSOLATION CANCELLED

Otto Bars Took 2:24 Trot, While Red Smith Captured Part of 2:50 Pace.

Another fine program of racing was provided in front of the grandstand at the Western Fair yesterday afternoon. A much larger crowd than on Monday gathered in the stand and enjoyed the sport.

Consolation Cancelled. One of the biggest entry lists of any trotting event ever pulled off at the Western Fair was brought out in the 2:50 pace, a mile heat, for green horses. Secretary Eastwood had 16 entries in this event, and it was decided to divide the race in two and only let nine of the horses start in yesterday's race. To do this it was necessary to cancel the consolation race on Friday and hold instead the 2:50 pace in order to let the other entries run. The Fair management deemed it advisable to make this change owing to the risk of accident if such a big field was allowed to run in the one event.

Red Smith's 2:50 Pace. This race provided the feature for the afternoon, four heats being necessary to decide it. Liberty Lass captured the first heat, but the next three went to Red Smith, Charlie Barrett's likely looking little horse. Red Smith nosed out Liberty Lass in the stretch in the second heat and captured the other two rather easily. Liberty Lass took second money, and George Hodgins' Trench Wilkes II. copied third place.

Otto Bars Won 2:24 Trot. The first race of the program, the 2:24 trot, was won in straight heats by Otto Bars, George Graham's bay stallion. Otto Bars was hard pushed by T. J. Lewis in the last two heats but he had the staying power and out. Rose S. won third money. The time was rather slow in all three heats.

The summary:—
2:24 trot, $400 purse.

Griffith Is Making
Good on His Threat
To Kill Naps' Hopes

Cleveland followed its 1913 custom on its first day in the east, of missing chances to gain that would give the Naps a possibility of winning the pennant. While Chicago was trimming Mack's team, the Naps, with an opportunity to get within four and a half games of the leaders, lost twice. They are therefore now six and a half games behind.

Griffith is making good on a statement that he ventured while in Detroit. He said then that Connie Mack's team was slipping, and that if the Athletics won the pennant it would be because Washington did it for them. Then he went to Cleveland and won twice. Now he has taken two more. And the Naps may have to look at both Johnson and Beahling again this week.

Arthur Pelkey Claims
Burns "Framed" Bout

Has Cancelled His Contract With Tommy Burns as Manager and Accuses Former Heavyweight of Crooked Dealings.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 9.—Angered at alleged crookedness of Arthur Pelkey, world's heavyweight title claimant, today cancelled his contract with Tommy Burns as manager.

In a statement Pelkey charged his former manager with having taken advantage of his depressed financial condition to force him into a "fixed" match with Burns at Calgary on March 26. According to Pelkey, rehearsals of the battle were staged in a garret.

"Our six-round fight was called a draw," the statement declared, "but we had it all framed up. I could have whipped him easily, but he wanted to make a good showing before his friends there, and make me take two knockdowns to one for him. From that time on he made me virtually a white slave to his whims."

Burns at one time was a world's champion heavyweight. He was Pelkey's manager at the time Luther McCarthy was killed.

Burns Refuses to Believe It. Calgary, Sept. 9.—"I refuse to believe that Pelkey has made the statement that is attributed to him by the news dispatches," said Tommy Burns, promoter of the Calgary fights, which Pelkey hears of the battle were staged in a garret.

"As to the statement that the fight between myself and Pelkey was fixed, I will only say it is ridiculous. The fight was on the level."

Jake Stahl May Be New
Leader of St. Louis Browns

Press Dispatches from Chicago Tuesday morning indicate that Jake Stahl, deposed leader of the Eastern World's champion, will be manager and part owner of the St. Louis American league club in 1914.

According to one source of information President Ban Johnson, of the league, proposes putting Stahl at the head of the club, and the only hitch that can possibly arise is a difference of opinion between Stahl and Owner Hedges, of the Browns, as to the worth of the stock.

Stahl, undoubtedly, wants to protect himself if he returns to the game, and the only way he can do so is to control a good block of stock. He was a shareholder in the Boston club, but his influence there was small in comparison to the power held by President James McAleer, part owner. It was Johnson who influenced Stahl into taking the managerial position in Boston, and if there is one man in the world who can induce Jake to return to the sport it will be the same Johnson.

TORONTO FANS SAW
EMBRYO GIANT TEAM

Famous Stars of McGraw's Team Were Missing, and Recruits Took Their Places—Toronto Lost.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—It was a patchwork team of Giants that beat the Leafs 10 to 3 yesterday afternoon. It was also more or less a patchwork team that Joe Kelley presented in opposition. Both sides made battery changes with almost bewildering rapidity. The National League champions took few chances in view of their prospective struggle for the world's championship, and the game lacked fight and aggressiveness.

Among the Giants' stars who were missing were Manager McGraw, Mathewson, Tesreau, Marquard, Demaree, Markle, Fletcher, Meyers and Snodgrass. The only infielder to get into the game was Larry Doyle.

Games such as yesterday's will do little to popularize the visits of the big league teams to this city. More than 50 per cent of those who attended went for the purpose of seeing some of the celebrities who were absent. It was taking an unfair advantage of a tolerant and confiding public. The score:—R. H. E.
New York 5 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—10 9 3
Toronto 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 0—3 9 5

Cobb Again Gains
on Rival; Speaker
In the Race Now

Tris Speaker, who up to yesterday had made seven hits in his last three games, has begun to challenge Cobb and Jackson, the batting race rivals. He is only about ten points behind the Detroiters, and is hitting better than either. The records to date:

	G.	A.B.	H.	Pct.
Cobb	101	352	133	.3784
Speaker	131	470	176	.3749
Speaker	131	485	178	.36722

Cobb gained on both men yesterday, hitting .333, while Jackson batted but .250 in two games, and Speaker got no hit. Some of the scorers gave Gardner an error on Cobb's safety, but officially he was credited with a single, and Gardner was penalized for his overthrow.

TORONTO, July 22nd, 1913.

The Simplex Sales Co., Toronto:
Dear Sirs,—About a month ago I had you equip my car with a set of puncture-proof tubes. When the tubes were installed your Mr. Shaw drove a nail into one of the tires six or seven times to test the self-healing qualities of the tubes for some friends of mine, who were present at the time. Since then I am pleased to state that the pressure in the tube has remained the same, and I have no trouble whatever with my tires. I now feel confident that I can go as far as I like and get back without stopping on the road to replace a punctured tube.
Wishing you every success with the new tube, I beg to remain, yours truly,
GEO. A. SPEAR.

We Will Make This Sensational
Test to Fully Convince You

We have a demonstrating Simplex Puncture-proof Pneumatic Inner Tube, with more than 100 punctures, which we will place in the shoe and drive you 50 miles WITHOUT ANY APPRECIABLE LOSS OF AIR.
