SARNIA TEAM WILL DROP OUT OF O.H.A.

Will Retain Players and Play Exhibition Games Instead as Result of O. H. A. Deal.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Dec. 29.—Following the refusal of the O. H. A. to grant certificates to five Sarnia players, it is altogether probable that the local intermediates will drop out of the O. H. A. and play exhibition games instead. The team will be kept together, declare the management, despite the O. H. A.'s action, but it will play exhibition games with Detroit, Cleveland and other clubs outside of the O. H. A. It is the intention of the Sarnia Hockey Club to keep the players here, if possible, for another year, and the same team will represent Sarnia in the O. H. A. intermediate series next season.

An effort may be made, however, to have Grannary and Dore reinstated. Both these men have been in Sarnia since last March, and have been employed here all summer. Grannary claims that he left London because the London hockey club officials were sore on him and would have tried to bar him out of hockey there this year. He believes that his present predicament is largely due to the London club. The local club feels that it was mainly because of the two former Detroit players, Farlow and Frouth, that the O. H. A. acted in the matter. These two players wrote the Sarnia management that they would like to play O. H. A. hockey there next winter if jobs could be secured for them. As work is plentiful in Sarnia then, this was an easy matter to arrange, and both men were employed here all summer. Frouth moved his family here and he moved himself into a splendid position.

ST. THOMAS TEAM PLAYS IN INGERSOLL TONIGHT

Fast Intermediate Game Will Open
Hockey Season in Ingersoll—Both Teams in Shape.

Ingersoll, Dec. 29.—To-night's intermediate hockey game with St. Thomas has got the fans by the ears. Being the first of the season the enthusiasts are naturally anxious to get a line on the locals, and the indications point to a big crowd. From what has been heard here the Saints have strong aggregation, and the battle for possession of the rubber will no doubt be a lively one. Owing to the mild weather the Ingersoll players were unable to have a practice in the arena until Saturday night.

Man and Woman Shot to Death

New York's Police Suspect a Double Murder—Suspects Under Arrest.

New York, Dec. 29.—A young woman and a man were found shot to death early today in the rear of a little apartment on the Lower East Side. She was identified as Mrs. Wm. Ashau, wife of a musician. The dead man, who lay beside her, had papers in his pocket indicating that he was Albert Rogowski, a chair-canner. There were two bullet holes in his head and one in his chest. A bullet through the brain had killed the woman.

The police were at first inclined to put the case down as one of murder and suicide, but subsequently began work on the theory that double murder had been committed. Two men were locked up as suspects.

LIBERTY AND LIFE.

[Rev. Charles Ferguson.]

Over against Nature stands the Man, and deep in his heart is the passion for liberty. For the passion for liberty is only another name for life itself. Liberty is a word of much sophistication, but it means, when it means anything, opportunity to live one's own life in one's own way. The original sin of the world is not contempt for arbitrary laws, but respect for them.

"MY STOMACH IS FINE Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets"

Mrs. J. Merkhuger, Waterloo, Ont., enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why.

"I was greatly troubled with my stomach," she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. Anyone having anything wrong with his stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."

One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take. The relief they give from heartburn, flatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like a new person.

PRETTY WEDDING AT WYOMING RECENTLY

Miss Sara Canton Is Married To Mr. Oliver M. Fisher—Couple
Will Reside at Camlachie.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wyoming, Dec. 29.—About thirty guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Canton, London road, recently, to witness the marriage of their second daughter, Miss Sara, to Mr. Oliver M. Fisher. Promptly at 11 o'clock, to the strains of the Wedding March, rendered by Miss Margaret Fisher, the groom's sister, the couple entered the parlor. In a charming gown of white crepe de chine, with trimmings of white satin and shadow lace, the bride looked sweet and attractive, carrying a handsome bouquet of roses and white heather. Little Dora Canton, the bride's sister, dressed in pink mull, made a dainty little ring-bearer, and the marriage was performed by Rev. J. W. Johnson. After congratulations and a bounteous wedding breakfast, the young couple drove to Wyoming, boarding the 2:37 express for Hamilton and other eastern points. The bride travelled in blue serge, with blue hat and marabout trimming. Many handsome gifts testified to the popularity of the bride, china, cut-glass, silverware, and a handsome emerald brooch, a gift from the groom. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will take up their residence in the house recently completed by the groom on his farm near Camlachie.

This is the second marriage in the home of Mr. Canton during December, as his daughter Zoetta (Mr. Orville Hubbell) was married just three weeks previous.

"DOC" REISLING WILL BE LONDON'S NEXT MANAGER

Is Anxious To Secure Position, and London Club Has Sent Him Terms—Will Be Appointed This Week, It Is Expected.

[BY JINX.]

Present indications are that "Doc" Reisling, the Caldwell, Ohio, dentist, who was with Washington last season, will be manager of London's 1914 Canadian League team. The local directors are in touch with Reisling at the present time, and it is only a question of terms between them. Reisling is anxious to come to London. So anxious is he, in fact, that he called up President Stevely on the long-distance telephone Saturday evening, and wanted to know if there was still a chance to land the position. He has secured his release from Washington, and is now free to sign up with any team. President Stevely informed him that a letter had been sent him Saturday by the London club, and it contained the terms of agreement offered him by the local club. His reply is awaited with interest.

Just a Question of Terms. "If the terms are acceptable to Reisling, will the London club engage him for next season?" the writer asked President Stevely this morning. "Yes, I think we will," he replied. "Reisling is the pick of the candidates we had for the position," he continued, "and if our terms are agreeable to him we will sign him up right away."

Reisling Well Fitted for Position. Reisling is a pitcher, and one who has had a lot of baseball experience. He is well fitted for the position of manager, being capable of handling men and being

ALCOHOLISM BLAMED FOR WOMAN'S DEATH

Jury Decides In Case of Mrs.
Thomas Merchant Who Fell
From Her Bed Dead.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrolia, Dec. 29.—An inquest was held Saturday afternoon touching the death of Mrs. Thomas Merchant, whose dead body was found in her home early in the day under somewhat suspicious circumstances.

The woman had fallen out of bed about 10 o'clock Friday night, and had pulled her eleven-months-old baby with her. She fell on the child, which might have been suffocated or died of exposure had not the infant's eight-year-old sister come to the rescue. She managed to free the baby and get it to bed.

The father is night porter at the Hotel Petrolia, and was of course absent at work. The child did not know her mother was dead, but when morning broke she left the baby and called neighbors, and they summoned Dr. Dunnfield. Coroner Calder empanelled a jury in the afternoon, and evidence was taken sufficient to bring in a verdict of sudden death due to excessive alcoholism.

The Salvation Army took charge of the remains, and assisted the father in caring for the children.

What a Savings Account is

A savings account is the best and truest friend on earth. It asks no whys and wherefores, but returns your dollars with interest when required most. It tides over trouble and makes advancement possible when no other friend can. The growth of a savings account depends largely on the interest paid. Our depositors receive 3½ per cent. compound interest.

Doings in Hockey Circles

Andrews, the Simcoe lad signed up by the A. M. C. team, is a find. He played a great game for the Army Medical Corps team Saturday night and showed a bunch of speed.

Both O. H. A. groups London teams are in will open the season tonight. The junior season opens here, while the intermediate group will start in Ingersoll tonight when St. Thomas plays there. St. Thomas intermediates will open the local intermediate season here on Friday night.

Sarnia intermediates' action to drop out of the O. H. A. is to be regretted. The Tunnel Town had a good team, and local fans would have liked to see London and Sarnia meet. Sarnia is no worse than a lot of other O. H. A. teams, but the difference lies in the fact that Sarnia came out in the open and advertised the fact that it had brought in some players. The other teams keep it quiet. One of these days the O. H. A. will wake up.

The A. M. C. would like to arrange a game for New Year's with some team in a nearby town. Teams willing to accommodate notify Campbell, Galbraith, Huron and Erie Companies.

KITCHENER SETTLES EGYPTIAN TROUBLE

Strong Hand of the Viscount
Adjusts Religious Endowments Question.

New York, Dec. 29.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Viscount Kitchener's strong hand recently achieved another notable success by securing a satisfactory settlement of the vexed question of the religious endowments of Egypt. It has only just become known that this settlement was not explained without serious friction with the Khedive, and the presence of a strong British fleet in the Mediterranean, too, may have been a strong influence in inducing the Khedive to withdraw his opposition.

"On Nov. 8 the Khedive returned from a journey to Cairo, and on the following day Lord Kitchener opened negotiations with him, inviting his consent to a thorough reform of the vaukufs."

The endowments are the estates left for the maintenance of the Moslem faith in Egypt, and the Egyptian ministry considered they ought to be placed under a responsible minister. Lord Kitchener supported the proposal, but the Khedive showed hostility to it, and a ministerial crisis appeared imminent.

Finally a compromise was arranged, the Khedive agreeing to refer the question to the Sultan, who, in theory, has control of all Moslem endowments, and to abide by his decision. Before allowing the question to be referred to the Sultan, however, Lord Kitchener had taken special precautions to insure a favorable reply from his majesty. This arrived within 24 hours, the Khedive instantly concurring, and the affair ended.
