Several Points of Interest Are Visited During the Day.

Special to The Advertiser. Thomas, Aug. 21. — Delighted with the tour of West Elgin farmers yesterday, those in charge are endeavoring to arrange another outing before the season closes. Leaving early Thursday morning, the tourists went to the Carnation Milk plant in Aylmer. After spending an hour in they journey to the Springer Gully to see the improvement work being done there. After being joined by the inspecting the operations at the plant East Elgin representatives in Straffordville, they examined the famous Ayrshire cattle of Mr. Stansell's model farm. Proceeding to Port Burwell, lunch was served, after which they inspected Memorial Park, by invitation of Deputy-Reeve Mc-AUCTION SALE Lean. A large patch of ever-bearing strawberries belonging to the Mc-Connell Nursery Company was greatly admired. Following a few minutes' stop at Stalter Gully, the party inspected the Sparta fruit belt. after which they returned to the city. Plaintiff Wins. Judgment for the plaintiff for $325 has been entered by consent in the case of Daniel McAlpine, Dunwich as follows: Chesterfield suite, 3 pieces, chesterfield table, practically new upright piano, piano lamp, music cabinet, Sonora phonograph, writing desk, smokers' stand, Axminster rug, 9x12, Wilton rug, 9x9, fernery, parlor suite, china cabinet, buffet, table, chairs, walnut dresser, brass bed complete, oak dressers, beds, bedding, carpets, mats, Congoleum rug 9x12, odd chairs, rockers, china, glassware, ornaments, kitchenware and furniture, gas range, heater, range, electric washer, electric sweeper, curtains, drapes, garden tools, etc. farmer, versus the village of Dutton and William Riddell and Ralph Coates of that place. The question involved was whether the defendants had removed from the plaintiff's property more gravel than was stipulated in a contract. It was also alleged that defendants, drawing gravel for the village, had broken down fences and assaulted the plaintiff. The case has been awaiting disposition since October 24, 1922.

Rumor Denied. Doubt as to the feasibility of a gasoline-propelled train over the Canadian Pacific Railway between St. Thomas and Woodstock is expressed by local officials, and a reort that such a service was con templated is genied. The reported intention was to pick up perishables between here and Woodstock and transfer them to limited trains running into Toronto.

Vienna Dislikes Attack On Jews, May Force Chancellor To Quit

Special Cable to The Advertiser and the Chicago Dally News. Copyright. Vienna, Aug. 21.—Chancellor Ramek's government, which never has enjoyed the support given former Chancellor Seipel, has not been strengthened by the anti-Semitic and anti-government demonstrations. Already the Nationalist newspapers have demanded Ramek's resignation. Some think the Ramek government is about to fall, with former chancellors Seipel and Schober competing for the chancellorship.

It is pointed out that the Communists and Socialists are both anti-Zionist. Indeed, the Vienna Socialist burgomaster has not attended the Zionist congress. Outside of the hall where the Zionist congress is being held the police have succeeded in discouraging anti-Semitic demonstrations, but the storm seems to have been transferred within the congress, where an agitated session shows how difficult it is for the Zionists to unite their efforts.
