

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-tives"

NEWBURN, ONT., Feb. 15th, 1910.

"Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella, (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

"We took her to a hospital in Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done, we were ready, but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her, an uncle came in with some 'Fruit-a-tives' and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent, almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

"'Fruit-a-tives' saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health."

DOING RUSHING BUSINESS.

The various insurance adjusters are having a busy time, but the heaviest of the work is over.

HAND INJURED

Mr. John Robinson, jr., manager for Pratt & Robinson at Holms Lake, had two of the fingers of his right hand badly injured some days ago. Mr. Robinson was leading a bronco by a rope when the animal bucked and gave the hand a bad squeezing.

AND WHY NOT

A fair idea of the remarkable spirit of the people can be gleaned from the fact that the Campbellton Graphic scarcely ten days after the fire which completely destroyed the plant, is being published at present just as if nothing had happened.—St. John Standard.

PILGRIMS RETURN

The pilgrims from St. John who visited the Shrine at St. Anne de Beaupre, returned Friday evening. About one thousand six hundred and forty persons in all were in the pilgrimage. Twenty-five prelates accompanied the pilgrimage, among them His Lordship Bishop Casey. No miraculous cures have as yet been reported.

BECAME DERANGED

The announcement that Robert Shives, who was operating the automobile that capsized and killed Charles Anslow, had gone insane and been sent to the asylum, has created a profound impression in Campbellton. One other man has already gone insane through brooding over his fire losses.

ATTENDED FUNERAL

Messrs. J. R. McKenzie, Reg. Shives, A. H. Ingram, F. E. Lockhart, J. M. Cantwell and H. R. Picketts, from Campbellton, attended the funeral of the late Lieut. C. W. Anslow. Among those from Chatham were Messrs. Fred Benson, Albert McLeannan, Allon Riss, Clifford Cassidy, J. D. Lahay, Arthur McKenzie and P. C. Johnson.

OUR STAFF.

Yesterday the editor of the Graphic took a walk about town and among other things discovered the foreman of the Graphic working with pick and shovel, while the Graphic's "devil" was busily engaged piling bricks. Although offered positions out of town, they preferred to stand by Campbellton. Such is the spirit shown in many cases.
