The Situation in Chicago.

Private advices from the Chandler-Brown Co. of Chicago say: Manipulation in wheat was again the order of the day. Bloom got another whip-saw. Lyon and Baker sold out some wheat at top prices. A report of 10 cents advance per bbl. on flour was one of the stimulants but the one word "manipulation" sums up the whole. July wheat doesn't seem to be influenced much by the action in the May deal and it is getting to be quite a popular month to deal in. Our market for this option is nearly 9 cents above St. Louis, and ordinarily we receive quite a little wheat here in July and with the stimulant of any such difference arising we would receive much more. The report of a sale of wheat to Buffalo millers is claimed to be a sale made by one portion of the clique to another member of same and simply done to influence the market.

Corn opened lower and sold off sharply, but at the decline there were large buying orders on the market and a slight improvement occurred. The export trade was better than yesterday but speculators sold May corn on the weather, thinking that it would grade better. The weather has continued warm so late in the season, and so much corn has been damaged by it, that we think a great deal of it is now in such a condition that the weather cannot improve the grading, still there is a good deal of corn in the west that will grade, but this is mostly Nebraska corn and that is what cribbers are disposed to hold. We believe in corn and think it will be better in the near future. Oats are firm at the decline and the Milwauke syndicate still buying. Provisions showed a firm tone and there is a better feeling.

Grain and Produce.

Flour.—Steady and firm but very little doing at the advance. Buyers seem willing to increase stocks at old prices but are not making many bids for lots at the advance. Millers and sellers are holding fairly firm.

Wheat.—Steady. Sales at the advanced prices are not numerous and the continued manipulation of the Chicago brokers in the leading futures makes buyers wary and inclined to hold off.

Barley.—Unchanged. Holders are generally firm and seem inclined to wait for a turn in the market. Farmers' deliveries are comparatively light.

Oats.—Steady and slightly easier. Quotations are nominal at 35c to 36c.

Peas.—Sale reported at 57c, G.T.R. west. Quiet and in poor demand.

Corn and rye.—Nominal, with no disposition shown to operate.

On call to-day at the Board of Trade No. 2 fall wheat was wanted at $1.05. $1.05 was bid for No. 2 spring and $1.09 for No. 2 red. No. 3 red was offered at $1.08 on Midland, with $1.06½ bid. No. 1 hard offered at $1.35, with $1.29 bid. No. 2 hard offered at $1.30, with $1.25 bid. No. 3 hard offered at $1.20 on track, Winnipeg inspection, with $1.15 bid. No. 1 frosted offered at $1.05, with $1 bid, and $1.01 bid for same at Carleton Junction. No. 3 frosted offered at 80c to arrive, Port Arthur inspection. No. 3 barley offered at 50c, with 46½c bid, and 47c bid for same grade at Northern elevator.

CHEAP LOTS

FIRST-CLASS

LOCALITY.

GREENWOOD PARK

NORTH TORONTO.

This property is nearer the City than property west of Brock-avenue and Bloor-st. It is much nearer than many parts of Dovercourt and places north of the C.P.R. and west of Christie-street. It is also nearer than the corner of Sorauren-avenue and Dundas-street; and in view of the BELT LINE RAILWAY running through the property and a station being built within 200 or 300 yards of Erskine-avenue (a survey has already been made), also that the residents of the neighborhood are about to adopt the improvements which the requirements of the locality demand, such as electric light, water supply, etc., it is reasonable to suppose that property will be in great demand. As the locality is high and healthy and altogether desirable there is no reason why with all the above advantages prices should not rise higher than in the other localities named. Buy while you can get a chance—the best lots will soon be taken up.

Terms—10 per cent. down, balance easy.

Remember that rapid transit by Belt Line Railway or Electric Railway will bring these lots into as close connection with the centre of the City as lots now selling at ten times the price.
