this year on Sept. 2 and continues until features, including a new building for the exhibition of sheep, according to the latest models, erected at a cost of $6000. The drainage of the cattle sheds and horse stables has been improved, and the stalls in the former regraded. Needed improvements have been made in the track, and exhibitors of horses in harness will be pleased to learn that they will be shown on the track when so desired.

The prize list has just been published, having been subjected to a thorough revision. In the horse department fourth prizes have been added in some sections, Many changes have been made in the prizes for cattle, the amount awarded for Devons and Herefords being reduced on account of the comparatively limited competition, while a large sum has been on account of the comparatively limited competition, while a large sum has been added to the prizes in the Jersey, Ayrshire and Holstein classes, a fourth premium being given in all sections under these heads. A third prize has also been added in the Guernsey class. These inducements should result in an extra good ducements should result in an extra good showing of the dairy breeds. A point to be borne in mind by exhibitors is that the ages of these breeds will be reckoned to Aug 1, instead of Sept. 1. Liberal prizes will be given for the milk test on the same conditions as last year. Several special prizes will be given in the sheep department, and a new feature will be the awarding of premiums for wool in awarding of premiums for wool in

It having been found impossible to erect It having been found impossible to erect new pigpens this year, as was proposed, the prizes to exhibitors in that department have been augmented by $100. The pens vill certainly be built next season. The increased interest taken in the cheese exhibition has warranted further increases in the list, white factory cheese being now put on the same footing as colored. An important change in classification is made, June and July cheese being classed to exhibit on the same footing as colored. An important change in classification is made, June and July cheese being classed to exhibitors of the first of Æmilius Jarvis & Co.

tication is made, June and July cheese being classed together, the August output being a separate class.

Many changes have been made, in other departments and all interested can procure a copy of the list by addressing Mr. H. J. Hill, manager, Toronto. Live stock entries close on Aug. 10.

Every indication points to a display of unusual excellence, interest and variety and a success which will retain for Toronto's great fair its pre-eminence among annual exhibitions: The railways and steamboats, as usual, will make specially low rates during fair time, and all who can possibly do so should make and steamboats, as usual, will make specially low rates during fair time, and all who can possibly do so should make their arrangements with a view to availing themselves of its advantages.

Out of Sorts.—Symptoms, Headache, loss of appetite, furred tongue and general indisposition. These symptoms, if neglected, develop into acute disease. It is a trite saying that an "ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and a little attention at this point may save months of sickness and large doctor's bills. For this complaint take from two to three of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills on going to bed, and one or two for three nights in successioon and a cure will be effected.

Bequests for the Poor. Application has been made to the Sur rogate Court of the County of York for probate of the will of the late Mrs. Jacqueline Lesslie, widow of the late Mr. James Lesslie of the Township of York. The executors named in the will are Mr. William Mortimer Clark, Q.C., and Mr. J. J. Gartshore. Under the powers contained in the will of her late husband tained in the will of her late husband she has charged the property with payment of a number of charitable bequests, among which may be mentioned the following: Knox College $2000 the augmentation fund 'of the Presbyterian Church in Canada $1000; the Toronto Home for Incurables $1000; the Young Men's Christian Association, Toronto, $1000; the Boys' Home, Toronto, $1000; the poor of North Toronto, $1000; the Davisville Methodist Sunday School $200; the trustees of the Eglinton Presbyteriah Church $500; the Toronto Industrial Refuge and Aged Woman's Home $1000.

The Best Pills .- Mr. William Vander voort. Sydney Crossing, Ont., writes: "We have been using Parmelee's Pills, and find them by far the best pill we ever used." ofr Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions these pills act like a charm, Taken in small doses, the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.

Joseph J. O'Connor, president of the Metropolitan Athletic and Musical Club, will spend the next 60 days in the county jail, on a conviction of keeping a common gaming house. The conviction was registered Friday, but W. G. Murdoch, solicitor for O'Connor, had applied for a reserved case on a point of law. Magistrate Denison asked for time to consider. trate Denison asked for time to consider. His decision, announced yesterday, was that O'Connor had been fairly, clearly and justly found guilty of the charge against him, with no room for a reserved against him, with no room for a reserved cese. Mr. Murdoch asked for a nominal fine for his client, but His Worship evi-
