

Peep again in your oven.
See those loaves, those pleasing
loaves you've made.
How fat—rounded—substantial.
No, they won't fall when colder.
Because the Manitoba strength that is in FIVE ROSES will hold them up till eaten.
This sturdy elastic gluten has kept them
from dropping flat in the oven.
No unsightly holes 'twixt crust and crumb—never.
All risen evenly—to stay risen.
Never heavy—sodden—soggy—indigestible.
Yours are the FIVE ROSES loaves—
Crinkly and appetizing of crust.
Golden brown and tender.
Swoovy of crumb—light as chiffonade.
FIVE ROSES helps a lot.
Try it soon. •

Nervous Condition.

RESULTS FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE

Sick kidneys make you feel sick in a number of ways and it is now known that a nervous condition often results from kidney trouble. When the kidneys are sick the whole nervous system becomes irritated, causing headache, dizzy spells, fits of "blues," neuralgic attacks, rheumatic pains, weak eyesight, dull-tired days and a constant inclination to worry over trifles.

Booth's Kidney Pills strengthen sick kidneys, cure backache, regulate the urine and restore to normal conditions. They are guaranteed. All dealers sell. 50 cents a box, or postpaid from the R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. If you would like to test them free write for a trial box.

Sold and guaranteed in Watford by T. B. Taylor & Sons.

Skipping the Schedule.

"My dear," says the husband, interrupting the wife in the midst of her remarks about his latest peccadillo, "may I ask one favor of you?"

"What is it?"

"You are now in the scolding stage. Can't you shorten it and get right into the tartar stage? I'd be glad to go through the usual program this morning, but I've got to catch an earlier train than usual, and unless you can favor me I shall have to leave before you have wept and we have made up."

One Point in Common.

"Art and business have nothing in common," said the idealist.
"Oh, I don't know about that," replied Mr. Cumrox. "The value of a painting, like the value of a check, depends a great deal on whose name is at the bottom of it."

Maoris Well Liked.

Australia's Acreage.

ESKIMO FAMILY LIFE.

A Glimpse of the Home When White Guests Are Present.

The usual sights on entering an Eskimo habitation are: On the way opposite you a steamer-like berth covered with skins—the sleeping quarters of the family; underneath, or in front, sit one or two women, busily sewing; to the right, a man making bunting gear. Never will you find an Eskimo family idle. All occupants are naked to the waist, sometimes only covered with a loin cloth. Along the wall on either side burn several lamps. These lamps are shallow soapstone basins filled with the oil of the seal, whale or walrus; along the edge is placed a little ridge of moss, which answers the purpose of the wick in our lamps. The lamps do not smoke, and, besides illuminating, throw a great heat. Above the flame hangs a piece of blubber, to replenish the oil, also a teakettle.

You are cordially invited to take off your things and stay awhile. This means disrobing to the same extent, for the air is foul and the temperature that of a Turkish bath. If you come during meal time, which is at any hour of the day, you are cordially invited to partake; you decline and no offense is given. If the meal consists of frozen fish, blubber or something they know the white man abhors, some joker will especially entreat you to join his dish and then there is a great laugh all around. The Eskimo loves to laugh, play practical jokes on his friends, respond in witticism, and is of a happy, childlike disposition. Treachery, stealing and lying are practically unknown among them, the two latter only since some of them have imitated the white man. I am not including the Siberian, Greenland or Labrador Eskimo.—Captain F. E. Klein Schmidt in Pacific Monthly.

ILLICIT DIAMOND BUYING.

Dodges the Traders Worked in Kimberley's Early Days.

There are as many stories of I. D. B.—I. e., illicit diamond buying—in South Africa as there were of smuggling in England a century ago. Louis Cohen tells of some of the dodges in his "Reminiscences" of Kimberley's early days. "Dogs were enlisted in the traffic and used as carriers. Often the poor animals were first kept without food until they were on the verge of starvation and then given lumps of meat containing diamonds, which they bolted. Safely arrived at Christiana, across the Vaal river, the faithful dumb friends of man were immediately rewarded for their services by having their stomachs ripped up and the imbedded baubles taken out. Horses, too, were utilized, being fed with balls of meat containing diamonds and driven across the river under the very noses of the police. Carrier pigeons were requisitioned to fly through the air with the greatest of ease laden with the brigands' booty. Hollowed beels inclosing diamonds sealed down with wax were also expedients employed with decided and profitable success."

One lady had an ingenious way of getting out of a scrape. She was cooking dinner when a Cape boy knocked at the door and sold a forty carat diamond to her husband. "It was a trap. A detective immediately rushed in to arrest the buyer, searched the house, but no diamond could be found. The good wife had placed it in the stuffing of a goose she was basting."

The Use of Esquire.

The recovery of a letter which had been sent to a little town in Germany, and never delivered to the person addressed cured the writer of the custom of adding "esquire" to a name on the superscription of mail matter. The letter in question would probably have been promptly delivered had the address read simply "Mr. John Brown." But the sender had addressed it "John Brown Esquire," and the communication rested comfortably in the "E" compartment of the poste restante department, waiting to be called for by "Mr. Esquire." One of the popular guide books warns against the use of "Esq.," saying that it might be mistaken for a name.

Real Leghorns.

Little Willie was taken out into the country on a bright spring day. As he played with his sister in the farmyard a group of Leghorn chickens approached, led by a Leghorn rooster.

"Willie," said the little girl, "why are those chickens called Leghorns?"
"Look at their ankles," Willie replied. "Don't you see the little horns on them?"

Very Much Alike.

The late Frank Work once defined humorously the difference between a curbstone broker and a legitimate broker with a seat on the stock exchange.

"It is much the same difference," he said, "as the one between an alligator and a crocodile."—Buffalo Express.

The Petrolea Advertiser says:—"The large fortune of R. P. Smith, formerly of Petrolea, will go to relatives in England. The fortune of the late Montague Smith of Forest, went to relatives in England. The fortune of the late Geo. H. Griffin, of Sarnia, went to distant relatives in England. The total of these three represents about half a million dollars gone out of Lambton county all to indirect heirs."
