THE WEEKLY MONITOR, BRIDGETOWN, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6. 1918

****** THE WRONG KEY

Page Six

to be once, a real bad lot.

"Talking of ciphers," said the in- from a firm of typewriter agents in spector as we sat drinking our coffee Vrijstad about a new set of type that the end of the message, the letters of after dinner on the broad, cool stoop I want to order for the office machine. "that wagon down there I want to send off the order tonight, of a rather amusing case so as to get the new set Friday.

was once nearly taken in by "I opened the mail bags and set a cipher, so simple that a child might to work. There was nothing beyond have invented it. If I hadn't happen- the usual sort of thing that one would of to sprain my thumb in a row a day expect to find in a c untry mail bag. leaving a space wherever there was two before. I'd never have spotted There was a letter addressed to Bartwould have been the man among them, in an envelope with was touched up a bit: 'Van Zyls ence to pay in this district." He broke off to watch a heavily it, and, as a matter of form, I opened Neem Stewart weg.' Translated into loaded wool wagon, drawn by a fine it. Here it is: team of 16 oxen, treaking slowly down "'Dear Sir,-With reference to your the dusty street in charge of a grinning esteemed communication of the 12th Take Stewart away," inst., we beg to submit for your ap-Hottentot voorlooper

"That wagon of Van Zyl's looks in- proval a specimen reprint from the nocent enough, doesn't it?" the inspec- numeral type you mention, pattern or went on. "But it's had its noxious No. 15: youth-a regular night prowler it used

 $7\frac{1}{4}$   $7\frac{1}{2}$   $\frac{1}{2}$  4  $(\frac{5}{8}$   $718\frac{1}{4}$ ") $9(\frac{5}{8}$   $08\frac{1}{4}$  (\$7) 15% 7" 01/4 \$7% 84 £5%))7% 1/488 "It was in the early part of the 2% ("8'7"% '81. Boer war, when we were all wondering "'Trusting that it will fulfil the conwhether the Boers from over the border would invade the Colony, and are, yours obediently. whether the Cape Dutch would rise

"'P. E. Bosman & Co. and join in with them if they did. Typewriter Agency, Vriistad.' sent here to Keurstad, to "There was nothing of any interes be a sort of all round assistant to the Magistrate in the adminis- in this; but for some reason or other affected districts, and moste of the tated for a moment before putting it Bosman in that town-had arranged "What are you driving at, curse work had to be left to the civil au- back into its envelope. thorities. Here in Keurstad it was a long time before we had even a mili- had typed the letter had been care- that evening, and wanted me taken pretty savage it sounded in the darktary commandant, and the magis- less in the way he'd arranged the out of the way while it was being ness of the shed. trate had to take his place, with me sample print. He had repeated the unloaded in Van Zyl's big wagonshed, and my four policemen as an intelli- same figure in several places, and the where he kept his wool bales. gence department to punish them for it afterward; and a cipher, it wasn't like any that I'd ugly temper, I can tell you, by the "Van Zyl wasn't a fool, and he saw a lot of hot-headed Dutch | come across before.

Colonists who wanted to make troubefore any harm was done.

worried "Look at this. Stewart." he said, handing me an official telegram.

the whole row of figures had been pistols and one eye across the doortyped out in this way I had: post. VANXZYLS QWAGENHUIS QWOENS "Presently a voice, it sounded like DAGQAVONDX ELFQ UURXNE EMQS that of Conradie, one of my four policemen-called out from the back of TEWAETXWEG the shed, in an undertone, 'Who's

It's that

"I stared at this, and scratched my daar head again. It didn't seem to be

"'Is that you, Conradie ' I called much use after all, until I saw, near back. 'Yoo're just the man I'm looking for. Thre's a job on tonight that my name-you know how they will alyou'll have to give a hand in-catching ways catch your eye anywhere

"Then I remembered that the lettrs X and Q are never used in Dutch-Stewart! came another voice, with that is, in pure Dutch; and the whole gasp of dismay; then, 'Rush him thing was plain. I wrote it out again, kerels! Knock him out!' "'Go softly: I've got a revolver in an X or a Q. This gave me (when it my hand, and it might go off if you the name of a Vrijstad firm printed on wagenhuit, Woensdag avond, elf uur. luster me. I'm nervous in the dark." "That's all right, kerels; it's not loaded!' shouted Conradie. 'Bartman English, this meant: "Van Zyl's wagonshed, Wednesday evening, 11 o'clock. ridges.

"So some one was going to 'take Stewart away,' was he? I doubted it! Then I remembered that I had been 'taken away' several times, without my having known it at the moment. There had been false alarms of various kinds-and in each case there had been evidence to back up the report when game, too, after all?" litions for which you require it, we I arrived at the spot-a handful of

"'I don't know what "game" you're Mauser cartridges split on the road; a talking about,' I said. 'But if you stripped farmhouse and crying women; or a gang of 'excited armed Kaffirs stored up at the Court House, and not "The meaning of this message was down here; it's more -it must have been that the look plain nough; the agent in Vrijstad- have the rifles in the centre of th "We hadn't enough troops to spare on Bartman's face when he asked for and the Trades Directory showed that town, where they can't be got at by list then for the patrolling of the dis- his mail came into my mind-I hesi- there was a storekeeper called P. J. any possible rebels.

> that a consignment of arms should you? asked a deep voice in English "Then I noticed that the clerk who reach Keursetad at about 11 o'clock that I recognized at Van Zyl's, and "'That you, Mr. Van Zyl?' I asked. 'Ah, a sensible man at last! Well, Mr. whole letter, figures and all, and then "It was as plain as daylight now Van Zyl, I want you and your friends "Part of my work was the censor- the typing. Yet Bartman had seemed that my own four policemen must have just to take all this stuff up to the ing of the mails, a thing that had to be very anxious about that letter. I'm been in the game all along, or the Court House, and help me to store it done all over the colony under mar- a bit of a dab at ciphers. 'I can gen- rifles could never get through. Good there under lock and key, with all the It's better to prevent people erally puzzle out the meaning of the Heavens! there wasn't a soul that I other guns that were handed in. I'm from making fools of themselves than ordinary run of them. But if this was didn't suspect now. I was in a pretty sure you won't mind that?"

time I'd made up my mind what to do. that the game was up. He thought "All the same, just to satisfy my- "I went into my own office and took for a bit, sucking in his breath through ble. We used to find signs of it in self, I made a careful copy of the cut of my desk a long Mauser pistol his teeth; then he laughed in a sick, their letters and quietly deport them whole letter, figuers and all, and then that I kept for my own use. It was a sort of way and threw out his hands. sealed it up with the usual gummed lovely thing, any amount better than "'All right, Stewart,' he said; you've "One afternoon I went into the slip marked 'Passed Press Censor' that the regulation revolver that I kept got us fairly this time. Shove those chief's office, and found him looking we had to use, and called for Bart- hanging from a beg in the other office; boxes back on the wagon, boys, and but of course I wasn't supposed to pray for better luck next time."

rolled solmenly up the street, with me

from this part of the room, Mr. Stew-

The inspector knocked the ashes out

Will Know What to Do

He took it easily enough, but I was have it. As I was stowing it away "When it was all done we started watching him, and I noticed his hand in my coat, there came a sound of feet off the oxen, and the whole pro

IJEEN HEATERS

The Queen Heater is mo e of a heating macchine than it is a stove, can be regulated like a lamp, you can keep your room at a any temperature you wish, has a vertical hot blast draft tube, feeding the fuel with hot took all the powder out of the cart- air all the time, will save you 25 to 50% fuel. No "Sorry to disappoint you friends," ashes, dust or sout can

I returned; 'but I also have a Mauser can get out, the cleanest pistol in the other hand. But why stove in the world, no all this talk of pistols and knocking trouble to operate, made of Russian Iron, lined with out? Isn't it a bit foolish, seeing that sheet iron. We have them plain and with nickle plate I am here to give you a hand?" "'What d' you mean?" asked sev- trimmings, from $6.25 to $12.75. eral voices excitedly. 'Are you in the since I commenced using tives', and I know now w not known for a good man that is, the blessing body and clear think WALTER J. M 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, At all dealers or sent po receipt of price by Fr Limited, Ottawa. TRAVELLERS' GUI CROWE & MAGEE want to know, I came down to tell you Hardware, Stoves, Ranges and Cooking Utensi DOMINIO ATLANT RAILW

MORE KI

Since He Comme

to Take "Fruit-a-ti

**Three years ago, I beg

run-down and tired, and very much from Liver an

Trouble. Having read of tives', I thought I would :

The result was surprising.

I have not had an hour

Gen'l Passe

TIME TABLE

IN EFFECT

Jan. 13, 1918

STATIONS

Bridgetown

*Karsdale

W. A. CUNNIN

WINTER SERVICE

Yarmouth Wedness

saturdays for Bosto

leave Central What

mesdays and Frida

in the

Also the Cheapest

"dead" immediately the

CHEAPEST, because there.

more perfect matches to sized box than in any other

War time economy and your good sense will urge the nee

of buying none but EL

is extinguished.

on the market.

MATCHES.

10 a.m. Ly. Middleton

2 p.m. Granville Centre

.49 p.m., Granville Ferry

12 p.m.

73 LEES AVENUE, OTT.

Queen St., Bridgetown

Travelling Salesman for Digby and Annapolis Counties

shake, and as he opened it he glanced running along the road outside. Then sideways at me, as if to see what I I heard Bartman's voice explaining behind as chief mourner, though I of the farm post offices on the outto the sentry that he wanted to see me wasn't over mournful; it was the othskirts of the district, and underneath thought of his precious letter, it, in pencil, was the chief's trans-"'Seems a decent sort of type,' he urgently. 'Rifles and ammunition in said, "better than what we've got on

"'Mr. Stewart. Mr. Stewart- where better. large quantities found at Klein Spruit, the office machine at present. I think are you? You're wanted.'

Stop further importations at all costs.' I'd better order a set. If you're not in "'Here I am!' I called back, going looking so glum about this job; you've "I whistled. It was a serious matter, a hurry, Mr. Stewart. I'll just go and into the room, quietly. 'What is it got to do a bit of forced labor for once. for we were trusting entirely to the type off the order at once, so as to this time? but for my sake try to look a bit unarmed state of the district to pre- save another journey to the post office." "He was standing in the corner of ful about it!

vent a rising just at present. A sharp "He went into the inner office, the room near the door, next to the "'It's all very where I heard him tapping away on table where I had been using the in the heavy voice of old Van Zyl; 'but watch had been kept on all wagons coming into the town by way of the the machine, rather slowly, it seemed typewriter; and on a peg just behind you needn't expect us to laugh at your pass through the mountains, and they to me, and then he came back to take him hung my revolver in a holster. had all been searched, either by myself away the sealed bags. or by one of my four policemen, for gau to get hold of rifles again, they to find out whether it had any meaning been most awful trouble out at Klas- Hotentot! wouldn't be disarmed this time with- other than the obvious one. I tried sen's farm. out bloodshed, and in all probability all the little dodges that I knew for I mean to say, three-' a general rising. solving ciphers, but it was no good;

It must have been going on for weeks, have got in must have been by the what it pretended to be, a plain busi- yelp like a strangled puppy, and made would have done. mountain road from the south, the ness letter.

silly jokes You take my Mausers and "'By Jove, sir, he began, breathless- my cartridges, and you get me sent "When he had gone I unfolded my ly. "I'm glad I managed to find you to prison-and more, possibly-and we knew that if the farmers once be- copy of the letter, and settled down before you'd left the office. There's then you try to be funny like and-Three of the-of the-"'Who's talking about prisons?"

asked, for the old boy was really up "He stuck fast in the middle of the set, and no wonder. 'Not I. There's "'Now look here. Stewart," says I couldn't get the least glimmer of sentence, and then I saw that he nothing criminal in helping the govthe chief very gravely; 'this won't do, meaning out of it. After about an wasn't looking at me, but at the pa- ernment to collect a lot of arms that hour I saw that I'd been making a per lying on the table-my copy of may have been meant for a crowd of and the only way those rifles could fool of myself; the message was just his cipher. He suddenly let out a rebels, as any other loyal Colonist I've got nothing to a grab for the revolver behind me. do with your reasons for taking them

"I got out the official letters that I "Hands up!' he called out in a very to the woodshed first, but there's no one that leads through the town." "That's rather rough on my men, had to answer, and started to work shaky voice that wouldn't have scared harm done, anyway. sir, I said, 'but the fact is-though it's on them, so as to be able to leave the a rabbit. 'If you don't let me leave your names in case the magistrate a nasty thing to say I don't think office early; but after a little while I this room, and swear not to say any- wants to thank you personally, 'and much of them. Three out of the four found my sprained thumb so painful thing about that letter. I'll shoot you then we'll get to work. have got relations fighting on the oth- | and awkward that I gave if up as a on the spot!

"The idea took some time to soak er side, and can't be expected to be bad job. Then it occurred to me to "'Do it, then you rat!' I cried and into their minds, and they woudn' over loyal, and the other one is a have a shot at using the typewriter ran at him. He yelled with fright believe at first that there wasn't go to finish the job; so I went into the and dropped the gun, but it was too ing to be a court-martial. pretty soft mark at the best." "I saw that things must be getting inner office and began to examine the late to prevent my fist smashing into unloaded the wagon and carried the retty serious. But in the evening, thing, his taw rifles (200 of them) and the ammuni when the bugle of the post-cart sound- "After spoiling a few sheets of "I called the sentry outside, tion boxes into a little cell at ed down the street. I saw my way to paper with experiments, I began to told him to see that Bartman didn't of the lockup, where all the begin the work, at any rate. pick up the idea of it. Each key would, get away until I came back. I was arms were stored "I told young Bartman, the magis- print three signs, according to wheth- in a murderous sort of temper by this journed to the court room clerk, to bring me the mail er you pressed down one or other of time, but I hated the idea of having a supplied by the jailer's wife bags as soon as they were received two keys in the centre of the keyboard row with Van Zyl. He was a decent "As we sat on the benches facing the by the post office, so that I could go marked 'Cap' and 'Fig.' and each had old chap and rather a pal of mine. magistrate's seat, drinking our coffee over them before they were delivered, a letter and a number marked on it. "It was a little after 11 by the time I noticed that my guests seemed much "He came back from the post office | "But where I got stuck was in hold-I reached the shed, as far as I could interested in the fitting of the room. about half an hour later with the ing the key down with my sore thumb see without striking a light; and Then I heard a grunt from old Van bags, and as he laid them down on while I worked the other keys; it was against the sky that showed between Zyl, who was sitting next to me, the table he asked casually whether I very awkward. So I hunted round the black masses of the trees on each "'Dat's der dock, niet waar?' said wanted any assistance. until I found a catch that was meant side of the street I could make out he, jerking his head toward the oth-

"'No,' I said shortly, 'I don't. This to keep it down when one was writing the top of a big wool wagon showing er end of the room. is a confidential job, so just get out in capitals only, and jammed it down over the line of the mountain. Sev-"'Ah, that's it, Mr. Van Zyl!' and leave me to get on with it." with that each time I began a sentence. eral men were talking as they stood "'All right. Mr. Stewart,' says he, "Presently I forgot to lift it up, and round the wagon, and not with any air ding his head thoughtfully. 'Zoo, ja!' turning a bit red, 'but I suppose I may went on typing away without looking of secrecy either; they evidently felt he said slowly. Zoo! it looks nicer have my own mail before I go I am at the paper, until, on shifting the line. Quite secure, confound them! expecting one from a store in Vrijstad I saw that instead of 'It has been' I "It wasn't easy to decide what to art-much nicer!" that has to be answered tonight. Be- had on the paper '9"7 (1/88878." do. It was just in my mind to rush sides, you won't want to read any of "I saw what had happened. I'd for- the door and loose off into the thick of gotten to release the key, and had them, when an idea struck me. I'd of his pipe. "They did try to take

"'No, you can't.' I told him; though carlessly used the wrong key, the one pay them out in kind, and at the same the town a few months later," he addyou needn't think I want to read all marked 'Fig.' instead of the one mark- time do something better for the old ed; "but Van Zyl and his crowd your turtle dove cooings, you young ed 'Cap.' ass! But, for all I know, your cor-"Then I saw what anyone who'd could be.

them, will you?"

respondent in Vrijstad may be in ever used a typewriter would have "I waited there in the darkness Cronje's confidence, so I am going to spotted at once. Bartman's letter had under the trees until I was certain search the letter for seditious matter.' been typed with the figure key held that they had all gone into the shed,

"f was surprised to see him turn down, but otherwise just as one would and then I crept up to the door, with Churchill alluded to the capture of the In a recent speech Mr. Winston nite white at my silly joke, though to recovered binself in a moment. "I copied it out, sign by sign, on the typewriter, picking out the keys that had the right signs on them. When keys interfully from just outside, with both to send the Kaiser." quite white at my silly joke, though write an ordinary sentence. he recovered himself in a moment. he said, with a blash this time; it's had the right signs on them. When cheerfully from just outside, with both to send the Kaiser."

N. H. PHINNEY ers in the lampiight that fitted the part 30 p.m. Ar Port Wade Ly "'Look here,' I said, 'It's no use Connection at Middleton LAWRENCETOWN, N. S. oints on H. & S. W. Rai minion Atlantic Railway Yarmouth 1 The Best Security in the World Canada's Victory Loan There is no Safer Place for your funds that are for tickets stater accuring from time to time. These Bonds may be had in any Denomination or Maturity. THE PRICE is 98<sup>7</sup>/<sub>8</sub> per cent and Interest BOSTON & YARMOUTH S. which is equivalent to the issue price of par, less discound SEND US YOUR ORDER AT ONCE The Safest Matches J. C. Mackintosh & Co. Established 1873. Members Montreal Stock Exchange 166 Hollis Street, Halifax, N.S. Eddy's "Silent 50 AUX HISTORY SAFEST, because they are pregnated with a chemical tion which renders the

The Weekly Monitor

is the only newspaper featuring the news of both Digby and Annapolis counties, and with its rapidly growing circulation is therefore the best advertising medium for those who want to reach the homes in both counties. Try an ad. in its columns and watch results.

未未专志表示表示 本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本

MARITIME BUSINESS COLLE HALIFAX, N. S. E. KAULBACH. C. A.

een wounded in the writes as follows

Colony than any scrap in the dark wouldn't let them.