

and stimulated to reconsecrate ourselves more fully to the Master's work. Will not all the sisters remember the PRAYER TOPIC EVERY DAY and make it the subject of your prayers at the monthly meeting?

CRUSADE DAY:

This has been appointed for October 9th. If you cannot arrange for it on that day, celebrate it as soon as possible afterward. We are looking for grand results from the work done and united prayer offered on Crusade Day. "All together and all at it" this year. Let us all be "workers together with Him." It has been thought best for each Society to make their own arrangements to suit the varied circumstances. The general programme will be, United secret prayer in the morning in our homes. Let there be a continual stream of petitions go up to the father, through all the morning hours, that a great blessing may come upon our Mission work at home and abroad. Hearts and pockets opened and consecrated to the Master at home and hundreds of Telugus won to Christ in India.

Visiting the sisters of the church in the afternoon, soliciting new members, encouraging and stimulating the weak and uninterested, comforting the sick and shut in. These can do a great work for us in their solitude and sick rooms. "Those also serve who only stand and wait. Public Missionary meetings held in the evening.

LITERATURE.

This branch of our work has been transferred from Halifax to Amherst. A large number of leaflets have been procured, also studies in missions dialogues, and
