

by the F. M. C., and published in LETTER LEAFLET of Nov. 1891, it will be seen that a larger sum has been required for the work than was anticipated.

	Estimate.	Expenditure.
India .....	$13,611 00	$17,357 16
China .....	1,056 50	1,256 42
N. West .....	9,280 00	10,329 28
Trinidad .....	600 00	600 00
New Hebrides .....	600 00	600 00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$25,147 50	$30,142 80

To meet this expenditure there has been paid to Dr. Reid.

In his hands unexpended from 1890-91.....	$615 51
June 1891. From Treasurer's special deposit for
Boarding School .....	1,500 00
“ “ For Hospital at Indore .....	634 49
Sept. 2nd. “ For Miss O'Hara's outfit .....	150 00
“ “ For her expenses in New York .....	50 00
Oct. “ Further for her expenses in New
York .....	100 00
Dec. “ For her Medical outfit .....	250 00
Oct. “ For Miss McWilliam's outfit .....	150 00
May 1892. The sum of .....	23,197 50
“ “ For Miss Turnbull's expenses in
New York .....	150 00
June “ For Hospital at Indore .....	4,161 50
“ “ For Boarding School at Indore .....	2,502 35
“ “ For Purchase of property for School
at Alberni, B. C .....	2,000 00
	<hr/>
Total Expenditure .....	$35,461 35
Balance in Dr. Reid's hands. ....	30,142 80
	5,318 55

It will thus be seen that since June, 1892, Dr. Reid has had in his hands, after meeting all other expenditure, the sum of $3,318.55, applicable to the Hospital and Boarding School at Indore and the Alberni School.

These three items are included in the estimate received from the F. M. Committee of amount needed for carrying on the work this year, which will be published as soon as possible.