

BROWNHILL.—In making our annual report to your honorable body we are thankful to our Heavenly Father that we have been spared to see the close of another Conference year. During the past year we have had the labors of Elder L. Clark, who has filled the pastoral worthily and whose labors we trust have not been in vain.

CRAMME HILL.—In sending in our annual report we feel thankful to our Heavenly Father for His kind care over us and we still thank Him for keeping a few of us together; but I am sorry to report that our Church is in such a low state. We haven't had a minister to preach for us in the last year, except Elder James Prosser a few times, and his sermons were with good success. We trust our Heavenly Father that this Church may be built up again and that His cause may prosper in this place. Aid us with your prayers.

CHURCH HILL.—Another Conference year is numbered with the past and we again return our annual report. Elder W. H. Morgan has labored with us for the past year to good acceptance and we have engaged him for another year. We hope and pray that his labors may be blessed. Brethren, pray for us that we may still increase in the good work.

CASTLETON.—Through the instrumentality of Elder W. S. Cowle, our pastor, our Church has been beautifully repaired and rededicated. There was a general rally of the people to the rescue of the Church, so that the expenses of the repairing were immediately met. The meetings through the year have been well attended. Through special meetings we have been blessed. Elder Cowle has been preaching to us with good acceptance. Sister Cowle, our minister's wife, is regarded very highly by the Church and outsiders. Our prospects are bright and we pray that God's blessing may rest upon your sessions of Conference.

CHANDOS.—Elder Gould moved away to Cardiff. He is preaching at our Church, at present, once in a fortnight. Elder Gould has preached for us the past year 8 sermons, attended 7 fellowship meetings, baptized 2, and added 1 to the Church.

DRAYTON.—Another Conference year has gone to swell the records of the mighty past and brings along the time when it becomes our duty to report our standing and give an account of our stewardship. Death has twice visited us and taken away two aged veterans—Brother Isheem West and Sister Ann Hodge—whose loss we deeply feel; yet we trust it is for their eternal gain. Five have been added to our numbers and five have been baptized so that numerically we stand as well as at the commencement of the year. The members and friends of the Church are united in expressing their esteem for our pastor, Elder J. P. Winans. He filled his vocation, faithfully, and well, under adverse circumstances. The true Spirit of Christ has been exhibited. In or
