THEN AND NOW!!

In olden times, newspapers were considered valuable to readers only for their news, and advertisements were mere incidental surplusage, inserted by merchants as a sort of charity to help fill up the paper, and rarely attracted attention. Today the newspaper is indispensable, not only to the merchant, but to the shoppers of the family, as the universally accepted medium of attracting business. Advertisements are no longer the regulation musty affairs they used to be. They are among the most artistic and attractive features of the popular newspaper, and the frugal housewife scans the business announcements as carefully as the dealer or speculator scans the produce or money markets. These business houses that patronize the newspapers are the ones that secure the bulk of trade. The carefully edited, compact, fresh, complete, cheap, and neatly printed newspaper is the popular favorite, and the only channel through which the public can be reached either for business or sentiment.—McKeesport (Pa.) Times.
