

KINCARDINE, KNOX'S CHURCH.—The Congregation of Knox's Church, Kincardine, have agreed, we understand, to give a call to the Rev. Jno. McTavish.

TILBURY.—The Rev. P. Goodfellow, of Bosanquet, has received a call from the congregation at Tilbury. Mr. Goodfellow, however, remains at Bosanquet.

DELAWARE.—The congregation of Delaware have given a call to the Rev. W. Lochhead.

ONEIDA, ETC.—The congregations of Oneida, Indiana, and Seneca, have given a call to the Rev. A. Grant.

REV. D. DUFF.—The Rev. D. Duff, appointed to British Columbia as a second missionary, has proceeded to Britain. Mr. Duff will, D.V., proceed to British Columbia in the Spring.

WEST CHURCH, TORONTO.—The congregation of the West Church, Toronto, have agreed to petition the Presbytery to appoint the Rev. Anthony Simpson to supply the congregation in the meantime.

SPENCERVILLE.—The Rev. Mr. Gardiner, lately received as a minister of this Church, has received a call from the congregation at Spencerville. He has also, we understand, received a call from Winchester.

REV. J. NISBET.—The Rev. James Nisbet arrived safely at Red River on the 11th September. Rev. J. Black gives a good account of the meetings at the different stations during the summer. The prospects of a mission to the Saskatchewan country are not very encouraging or bright at present.

KNOX COLLEGE—NEW SCHOLARSHIP.—Mrs. Gibb, of Woodfield, Quebec, whose husband was a liberal benefactor to the College, has paid over the sum of eight hundred dollars for establishing a new scholarship, to be called the "Gibb Scholarship," for the encouragement of Sacred Rhetoric.

GEORGETOWN AND LIMEHOUSE.—Mr. John Burton, Student of Divinity, who has been labouring during the past summer at Georgetown and Limehouse, was, before leaving, waited upon by a deputation from the ladies of those congregations, who presented him with an address expressive of their respect and attachment, together with a handsome writing desk. His Bible classes, also, presented him with handsome and appropriate tokens of their attachment.

ERIN.—We are glad to learn that the Erin congregation have lately found it necessary to make a considerable addition to their church accommodation. Four years ago the church was not three-fourths full. now the more spacious edifice is already pretty well filled. Other things also indicate progress outwardly. We trust there will be also advancement in regard to spiritual strength and holy zeal for the glory of God.

KNOX COLLEGE—MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Missionary Society of Knox College was held, within the Divinity Hall, on Oct. 23rd, when the following office bearers were elected for the year:—President—Mr. Bauld; Vice President—Mr. McQuarrie; Corresponding Secretary—Mr. McColl; Recording Secretary—Mr. R. N. Grant; Treasurer—Mr. Findlay; Committee—Messrs. G. McLennan, Hubbert, Forbes, Hastie, and Roger; Auditors—Messrs. Davidson and Becket.

EASTERN SENECA—OPENING OF CHURCH.—The congregation of Eastern Seneca was for several years a part of the Rev. George Cheyne's pastoral charge—
