BOULANGER'S SUN SETS-

The Senate Court Finds Uim Guilty of Embrzziement and Conspiracy-The Paristan Populace Accept the Verdict With Strange Nonchalance.

LONDON, August 14 .- Whatever the admirers of General Boulanger may have thought yesterday of his chances of making himself dictator of the destinies of France, certainly to day no one is foolish enough to expect snything of the sort. His sun has set and the "brave general' will probably long remember the 14th of August as the day upon which he was thrust into the darkness of the retirement which awaits him. It is not that the high court found him guilty-that was to be expected, nor that his sentence was pronounced to-day-at that he could afford to laugh, but that the Parisian populace should accept the whole thing with a quiet non-chalance and go about their business without paying the slightest heed to the great condemned or his offsirs, marks a change in the popular current which even the conceited Boulanger cannot ignore. No one even whispered the "Vive Boulanger" which so recencly was shouted from a million throats, and it is clear as the sun that the " idol of the people" is an idol no longer. Magic lan-terus on the buildings about the newspaper offices announce that Boulanger's extradition will be demanded as soon as the sentence of the high court has been formally premulgated.

GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY.

PARIS, August 13.-Upon the opening of the Senate court to day the members of the Right declined to take further part in the proceedings in the case of Gen. Boulanger. The court discussed at length its course of procedure and its competency to try Bou-langer. It was finally decided, by 201 to 7, that the court was competent to try the General on all the counts of the indictment. Two of the senators refrained from voting.

The court then, by 206 votes, found the General guilty of conspiracy. Six of the senators did not vote. The court found Count Dillion and M. Rochefort guilty of senators did not vote. The court found Count Dillion and M. Rochefort guilty of complicity in the plot. It also decided, by 108 to 10, that Boulanger was guilty of a treasonable attempt against the state in con-than the traitorous judiciary trap called a trial by the High Court of the Senate. As an old soldier he feit wounded in his military bonor upon seeing an officer and a high dignatary of the Legion of Homor, after serving his country for thirty years, put in the balance against the evidence of swindlers and a bject spice. Never before had such humiliation been influcted upon the Everything was compromised the army. Everything was compromised— justice, the magistracy and the national finances. Those domineering, he said, under-stand neither their perils nor our pride. Let us with strong hearts make a violent effort to deliver ourselvas. At the conclusion of the speeches there were cheers and shouts of "Vive Boulanger." La Nation says France never intended making a demand for the extradition of Gen.

Boulanger.

LONDON, August 18 .- A manifesto signed by Gen. Boulanger, Count Dillon and Henri Roche-fort is published. It calls the action of the Senate Court an orgy of arbitrary rule, calumny and mendacity, and declares that in spite of freah coups d'etat preparing in the dark, the Signors have continued confidence in the electorate of France.

France, PARIS, August 18.—General Boulanger has issued another manifesto addressed to "The Honest People," and declares in it that it was the Senate Chamber that procured his conviction. M. Constane, minister of the interior, has issued a decree which prohibits the hawking or placarding of documents emanating from Boulanger, Count Dillon or Henri Rochefort. LONDON, August 18.—Five hundred Franch Consol, Boulanger residents of London visited General Boulanger in a body to day and presented him with an adin a speech, said that he had never used money balonging to France except when trying to se-oure her against enemies. If he had been cited by a regularly constituted court of assizes, he and his colleagues would have taken the first boat for France to face a trial. The French Government did not dare to avail themselves of covernment did not dare to avail themselves of the ordinary courts, but formed a special tribu-nal composed of his political enemies which had virtually condemned him before it met. In conclusion he only asked good faith from the French people, and the triumph of the present rulers would soon be a thing of the pash D881.

A CONVICT, YET HE IS FREE.

Pagilist Sullivan Sentenced and then Released on Bail-A Year's [Imprisonment Imposed, But the Case Appealed.

PORVIS, MISS., August 17.—Pagilist Sullivan was to day sentenced to twelve months' im-prisonment and Referee Fitzpatrick to pay a tine of $200 for engaging and participating in the p ize fight at Richburg. Sullivan was seated before the bar, showing up with Clune, before his attorney came to court. He looked as pleasant and unconcerned as usual, although there was a tremble in his eye after the jury was seated, and he glanced at the men who found him guilty. Hardly was the court seated when the grand jury filed in. They presented an indictment to be recorded and filed over again. The Sullivan case was then taken up. Judge Calhoun submitted the motion in arrest Judge Calhoun submitted the motion in arrest of judginent without argument. The papers had been left at the hotel, however, and the case went over. District Attorney Neville called the case of John Fitzpatrick. The District At-torney read the indictment. He then asked, "What say you? guilty or not guilty?" "Guil-ty," quickly answered Fitzpatritk. District Attorney Naville then addressed the court re-

Attorney Neville then addressed the court, re-viewing Fitzpatrick's connection with the fight and the circumstances under which he became referee, and closed by saying he fel: justified in recommending the accused to the court's clemency. Fitzpatrick also made a statement in his own behalf, and concluded by asking the court to be as lement as possible. The court reserved its decision. The Sullivan matter was taken up again and Mr. Green read a motion in arrest of judgment. The court overruled the motion after reading its contents. Mr. Green then submitted a mo ment for the offence for which you stand con-victed, you shall suffer imprisonment for twelve months in the county jail. Sullivan gloomily took his seat, and later, when he got under the railing to leave the court room, he faced the sympathizing crowd with a broad smile. Mr. Fizzpatrick was then sen-Neville was anxious to go home and asked that no more cases be tried until next week. This no more cases be tried until next week. This was consented to and an agreement to allow sixty days in which to file bills of exceptions was put on record Judge Calbout then made a motion for an appeal returnable to the Supreme court on the third Monday in Febru-ary. Judge Calhoun stated that the code for an appeal of mirdemeanors fixed a bond of from $100 to $1,000. The defence had prepared a bond for the maximum amount and presented it. Sullivan was then released pending the re-sult of the appeal. The announcemont of the sentence created

The announcemont of the sentence created great consternation among Sullivan's friends and completely unnerved the big fellow himself. It had been confidently expected he would escape with a fine. The case will undoubtedly be carried to the higher courts. Popular feeling is with the pugilist.

THE BETURN NORTH.

MEBIDAN, Miss., August 18 .- Sullivan left Purvis at 6.37 p.m. yesterday, and came here accompanied by Clune. A large crowd at the depot bade him good-bye. On the train Sullivan had but little to say. As Richburg, Charles Rich was at the depot with a large crowd, bonfires were lit and cheers given to the champion champion. champion. Sullivan said he knew from the start the court was against him. He hoped Kilrain would be able to avoid coming here through a writ of habeas corpus. The only part of his defence he did not like was the statement made in his be-half that Kilrain was the challenging party and had selected the battle ground, as he would not prejudice Kilrain's case. Sullivan thinks his sentence a little severe after his having willing-ly placed himself in the hands of the law when he could have crossed the ocean. Sullivan signed an indemnity bond before leaving Purvis to protect bis sureties should anything happen at Meridan. A large crowd cheered the cham-

CINCINATI, August 18 .- John L. Sullivan arrived to night on a Queen and Crescent train, He was met by John Sullivan, of this city, and as soon as the two left the train they became the head of a rapidly spreading and encircling pro-cession of trainmen and others who had got within the train enclosurse. The crowd cheered Sullivan frequently, but he gave no sign of recognition of the aderation of his admirera.

Sullivan was driven to the Pennsylvania depot where he arrived just in time to take the train for New York. He had not much time to talk and said but little to reporters who tried to interview him.

AFTER KILRAIN NOW.

BALTIMORE, Md, August 18 — Detective Childs, Sent by Governor Lowry to take Jake Kilrain, the puglish, to Mississipi, arrived here this morning and cailed upon Marshal Fry, who told him Jake was out on bail and not return-able until Thursday. Kilrain, when notified of Child's arrival and Sullivan'ssentence, ejaculated "bal"

The law for the collection of forfeited bail in Maryland is quite defective, and should Kilrain skip his bondsman would not likely have to pay the $2,000.

ciliated the Liberals, while it has had the effect ciliated the Liberals, while it has had the Greet of astounding and exasperating the Conserva-tives. The announcement made last night by Attorney-General Webster that the Govern-ment had decided to amend the bill by accept-ing the proposal of the Opposition to make landlords, instead of occupiers, liable for the payment of tithes, will do the ministry no good, and core the observe of the Liberals. With which and even the cheers of the Liberals, with which the announcement was greeted, are scarcely consoling to the Cabinet. The utter rout of the Government was indicated in the remarks of Sir Wm. Harcourt, that the ministerial gymnastics is equivalent to the introduction of a new bill, framed on precisely the points in-sisted upon by the Liberals. At the same time his statement, to which Mr. Smith fully assent-ed, that the Liberals could not accept or even discuss the new bill until the text of the measure is before them, indicates that a fight may yet oc-cur over the clause. The real thing that has been done is the absolute surrender by the Government with the effect of disgusting its friends and of encouraging its enemies to fur-ther opposition. It was a step of necessity to save the Cabinet. The folly of it is already manifest. The landlord party will not submit to the proposal to relieve the tenants of the pay-ments of tithes. Within an hour after Sir R. Webster had announced the Government's deci-cion the land owning section of the Tories got up a protest against the action of the Government This promises foul weather, which the ministers cannot ride through. To escape it it is probable the bill will be withdrawn.

The State Council has annulled the elections in twelve cantons in which General Boulanger was elected to the Councils-General, on the ground that the General was not legally elleible.

General Boulanger has written a letter stating that he gave the sums which he is accused of embezzling to the chief clerks in the War office to be used for the relief of widows and orphans of soldiers,

GUILTY OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

PARIS, August 14,-The Senate court found Count Dillon and Henri Rochefort accomplices of General Boulanger in a felonious attempt against the safety of the state. It all signed it as did all merchants in the city and also declated, by a vote of 100 to 97, that the note charged in the indictments against the accused, in conjunction with the presidential crisis in 1887, constituted a treasonable attempt.

General Campenon, senstor for Neuiliessur-Seine, argued that the charge of embez ziement made against Boulanger had been proven.

Le Royer, president of the Senate, and Margaine, Senator of the department of Marine, argued that the court was incompetent to try Gen. Boulanger on the charge of missppropriation of the funds and that that charge must be referred to a court martial.

The court found Gen. Boulanger guilty on the charge of embezzling public funds, and refused to allow that there were extennating olroumstances. The court then sentenced General Boulanger, Count Dilion and Henri Rochefort to be deported to a fortified place.

Aft:r the announcement of the sentence the court adjourned in order to frame the text of the decree of sentence, which will be voted upon in secret session and read at a public sitting. The Republican groups of the Senate held a meeting and adopted resolutions requesting the Government to enforce the de-

GENERAL BOULANGER WILL ISSUE ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.

PARIS, August 15 .- MM. Naquet and Laguerre and other Boulangists have gone to London to consult with General Boulanger regarding a proclamation to be issued shortly. The sentence imposed on General Boulanger, Count Dillon and Henri Rochefort by the Senate court yesterday occasioned no excitement. Thus far the utmost quietness has prevailed. The Republican journals are convinced that public opinion will ratify the decree of the court. The Conservative and Boulangist papers are sanguine that the general elections for members of the Chamber of Deputies will show that the people do not approve of the verdict.

It is alleged that M. Waddington, French ambassador to England, has been instructed to sound the English Goverment on the questien of extraditing General Boulanger, Count Dillon and Rochefort.

Judge Calboun then asked that by an agree ment with the District Autorney sixty days be allowed in which to file bills of exception

General Ford then read the following petition : The undersigned members of the grand jury. empanelled at the present term of the court, an of the petit jury who tried the State vs. John L. Sullivan, convicted of prize fighting, re-spectfully show to the court that in view of the fact that this is the first conviction for the of-fence named in this state and for other reasons, they respectfully recommend and request that your Honer will imp se no higher penalty than fine of $1,000, and that no imprisonment be inflicted.

Ed. Daves was the only patit juror who re-fused to sign the petition. The grand jurors a number of farmers, as well as the sheriff, clerk and officers of the cours, the justice of the peace before whom the case was first tried and many others. Ford said he had had an opportunity to learn public sentiment on the matter and without a single exception it seemed to be the desire that the court exercise as great clem-ency as possible. The universal desire seemed to be that the court should not impose any im-prisonment. It was the first violation of the statute of 1882. It had been demonstrated that the power of the state and the arm of the law were adequate to bring the defendant to justice and it seemed, from all the history of the case, that the defendant should be adjudged to pay a fine. Judge Calhoum made an argument similar to Ford's. There was a pause. Then there was a stir in the audience. The silence was broken by Sulli-van himselt. The champion stood before the bar and speaking in a loud, clear and steady voice said

Your Honor, I desire to make a few remarks. I can only ask for your clemency in this matter. No doubt I have done something wrong, but, as my counsel told you, I was ig-norant of the law. I am not as learned as the distinguished Distlict Attorney on my right, or my counsel, who have addressed you, and, therefore, I beg to remark that I am your humble servant, John L. Sullivan."

cree after the court has dissolved, calling at-tention to the gravity of the absence of some of the ministers and demanding that steps be taken against all officials implicated in the case. GENERAL BOULANGER WILL ISSUE ANOTHER laid it on the table, shaded his eyes with his hand and his brow wrinkled as if meditating deeply. Every eye was fixed upon him. Sulli van leaned forward and watched the judge anxiously.

SULLIVAN SENTENCED.

The Judge broke the silence by saying, in his quiet way: "Stand up, Sullivan." Sullivan stood up quickly. He threw out his chest, looked the Court full in the face and had evidently determined upon perfect self-control. Judge Terrell spoke slowly :

GENTLEMEN, -- Passing a sentence has always been of considerable trouble and concern to me even in small cases, except where the law has one absolute punishment. It seems to me that this prize fight at Richburg, of which you shand con-victed, was a gross affront to the law of a state where the authorities personally forbade it. It seems, to have been accomplished with systematic arrangement and in the presence of invited thousands. It seems, on the part of all con-nected in it to have been a studied disregard and contempt for the law. They came from many states whose authority and civiliza-Dilon and Kochelort. PARIS, August 16.—A huge Bonapartist banquet was given last night at which 1,600 persons were present. Every mention of Bou-langer's name was greeted with enthusiasm. General Du Barail presided. He said General Boulanger alone among Republicans remained tuber contempt for the law. They came from many states whose authority and civiliza-tion deterred them from any attempt at such public lawless conduct within their limits, and they chose the State of Mississippi as the only utter contempt for the sentiments of her people faithful to the national tradition of the plane.

Home secretary Matchews and the experts assumed that Mrs. Maybrick was not guilty, and then, acting upon this assumption, sifted every scrap of the testimony given, especially that in relation to the case for arsenic, which is of more favorable light, and will, it is believed, turn the scale in the prisoner's favor. It is a noteworthy fact that the Lord Chancellor is seldom consulted in such cases except when a reprieve is meditated. Eighty-eight members of the House of Commons have signed the memorial in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick.

A COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEAL WANTED.

LONDON, August 16 .- In the House of Lords ast night Lord Fitzgerald asked whether the Government would consider the necessity of constituting a Sourt of Criminal Appeal. He referred to the Maybrick case as forcing the question upon the public mind. Baron Halsbury, Lord High Chancellor, said he was opposed to making the question a subject of discussion at a time when the public was excited. It was not desirable to debate such an alteration of the law while jurors, witnesses and judge were being subjected to brutal violence and intimidation. He declared insults had been heaped upon Home Secretary Matthews in order to influence him in the discharge of a solemn duty. Baron Herschell, formerly Lord High Chan-cellor, held that wrong decisions were rare in criminal cases. Nevertheless he trusted the Government would seriously consider the matter during the Parliamentary recess, in view of the widespread feeling that a tribunal of appeal would form a safeguard against injustice.

LONDON, August 19 .- The Berald says to day that there is a great body of scientific opin ion which is working in behalf of Mrs. May brick, to this extent, that there is fair room to doubt whether she administered the arsenic of which her husband died. This opinion, pro-ceeding from every eminent sources, holds that there is equally grave doubt as to Mrs. May-brick's innocence, but the element of uncertainty is such as to justify the interference of the Home Secretary. There would then at least be time left for the production of any new facts which might tend to clear up the mystery of Mr. Mrybrick's death. These views are un doubtedly having their influence with Mr. Matthews, whose position throughout has been of a very anxious and unenviable kind. But that the duty of deciding so dreadful a question should fall upon him is one of the greatest draw backs of an office which is seldom a bed of roses. The abuse which has been heaped upon him is wholly undeserved, for he has given a most conscientious consideration to all the facts of yiable is consideration to an the faces of the set with the sole desire of seeing that yiables is done. Unless some new phase of the case should occur adverse to Mrs. Maybrick, which is scarcely probable, her life is nearly certain to be spared. At the same time it is felt by very many who have taken no active part in this agitation that the institution of trial by jury, supposed to be "the palladium of British liberties," will have received another blow by the reversal of the verdict found at the Liverpool trial. Success in this case will inevitably lead to similar agina-tions whenever a prisoner is convicted of murder who was not actually seen to strike the fatal blow or mix the deadly draught.
