Baden to be French rather than Austrian. August-In consequence of the annexation of Ba-den, that also of Wurtemberg and of Bavaria has become a 'geopraphical necessity' to the Empire.— Austria is delighted to see Prussia loss the support Austria is using the support of Protestant Wurtemberg, and Prussia is delighted to see Austria lose the support of Oatholic Bavaria; Germany stirs not. At Jena the students sing, "What is the Fatherland ?" Napoleon answers this question. "September.—The Empire annexes Hanover, Old-enburg, and Mecklenburg, 'because the possession of the northern seacoast has become necessary to France as a natural frontier.' At Berlin they se-France as a natural Frontier. At before the pointed believes of riously propose to exchange the pointed believes of the army for the kepis. "October.— The possession of the kingdom of Saxony and of the Duchies has become for the Empire a " political necessity," because the European equili-brium requires that Prussia and Austria should be held in check by a third great Power. The Dict flies to Rugen, and in order to calm public opinion now awakened, vote the erection of a statue to Arndt. The committee appointed by the Diet are not yet ready to report on the organisation of the army therefore the troops cannot be marched against Napoleon.

"November .-- The Empire reaches to the Vistula. The annexation of Prussia has become for the Em-pire "a moral necessity," as the Emperor must at any price keep his word. Austria rubs her hands with joy, being rid of other rivals in Germany. Russia stands aghast at seeing the French on the Vistuls, and exclaims, ' this is not what I wished.'

December.-All the territory reaching from the Alps to the Carpathians in Hungary has become for the Empire "a geographical necessity.' The Germanic Diet has completed the military organization. The statue of Arndt is unveiled on le Jour des Innocents in the Isle of Rugen.

We insert the following, not for its literary merits; but as a specimen of the strong attachment to the Pope which prevails amongst the people of Ireland. No better test of the feelings of a people can be found than that of their popular street ballads :---

A New Song on the Roman Catholic Meeting held in Dublia, sympathising, with our

HOLY FATHER POPE PIUS IX. You Catholics all throughout Ireland around, Attend for a while till these lines I expound, Concerning Pope Pius the Bishop of Rome Who in spite of all schismatics must have his own ; For He is our pilot and spiritual guide, That will steer us safe over each boisterous tide Though heresy's winds they may bluster and rail, The true bark of Peter she never can fail.

Chorus:-So hurra for the Pope, boys, hurra for him still,

He's the head of our Church let them say as they will.

The Vicar of Christ, our Apostolic see We'll die or we'll have Him great glorious, and free.

At those great monster meetings in every place, You'll see nothing but joy in an Irishman's face, Where thousands of true born Romans attend, The Pope to uphold and their Faith to defend, Against any miscreant that dare be so weak, With his temporal rights for to meddle or make, For they might as well try to put life in a stone As to think they'd St. Peter's successor dethrone.

Now the enemy rejoices and thinks that they'll see, An end put at last to Pope and Popery, But his foot's in the Park, for I tell you quite plain There's a wiseman in London that has a great brain ; He tells us Napoleon knows what he's about, That he postponed the congress for to find out, And is waiting with patience, for to hear what they'll say, Then just like a Lion he'll pounce on his prey. this monstrous army that Pope Pius raised, The Crown heads of Europe are all amazed, For the Catholic Young Men's Society all, Have volunteered freely to respond to his call; Full twenty-three thousand in Dublin alone, Have vowed that his Holiness must have his own : Vive la Pope Pius they loudly did cry, In hoc signo vinces we'll conquer or die.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

The Weekly Novellette of Sept. 18, says : "Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of our country. This is owing both to climate and the almost universal habit of eating our meals too rapidly to admit of proper digestion. But in spite of these adverse circumstances, this disease, even when it has become chronic, disappears rapidly by the use of the Oxygenated Bitters, which have been found to prove an infallible remedy.

(From the Publisher of a widely circulated Magazine.)

BOSTON, July 1, 1858. MESSRS. W. S. FOWLE & Co .-- I have taken three bottles of the Oxygenated Bitters, and have derived great benefit from their use. I have been much troubled with Dyspepsia for several years, and found nothing that afforded me any relief until I used the Bitters. I most cheerfully recommend them to all who are afflicted with this troublesome and stubborn complaint.

JAMES ROBINSON, of the

"Student and Schoolmate." From GEN. A. C. DODGE, our Minister to Spain. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.

DR. GEO. B. GREEN-Dear Sir-The Oxygenated Bitters with which you were so kind as to furnish me, have had a most salutary effect in my case. I was troubled with Dyspepsia for four years, during which time I tried many remedies, but never met with any so good as your Bitters. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and I hope, and believe, that all who use the Oxygenated Bitters, will find them as serviceable as I have found them. With high respect, your obt. seruant.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.
J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for not knowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for not in ulters on my hands and arms; sometimes it hurst in ulters on my hands and arms; sometimes it interned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ensy with one sore, which was painful and bothcome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was repleced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cheimati and got if, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoolid, and healthy skin son began to form under the scale, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by uny feelings that the disense is gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saving when I (ell you, that I hold you to be one of the aposites of the age, and remain ever gratefully. Yours, ALFIRED B. TALLEY.

Sir: I have been afflicted with a pain-ful chronic likematism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physiclans, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM. Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afficient for years with an affection of the Liser, which detroved my health. I tried every thing, and every thing fuiled to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the lizer. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying.
