

shall endeavour, if practicable, to procure the services of any particular clergyman whom the prisoner may desire to see; but every Gaol officer is strictly forbidden to attempt to make proselytes among the prisoners.

Every prisoner has the right to complain to the gaoler, at his daily visits, or to the sheriff when he visits the gaol, or to the inspector during his inspections, of any act on the part of a gaol official or another prisoner affecting his rights and privileges under these rules and regulations, and to that end a copy of the rules and regulations shall be placed in each ward of the gaol for the perusal of prisoners.

Prisoners convicted of misdemeanours of a political character, or committed on civil process or for contempt of court, persons detained as witnesses, and persons of unsound mind, may procure, either by purchase or from friends outside, their own bedding and food, such bedding and food to be subject to examination, and such prisoners to be subject in all other respects to the rules and regulations of the gaol; if money is given therefor, such bedding and food may be purchased for such prisoners by the gaoler, who shall keep a strict account in respect of such purchases, and submit the same to the sheriff before any such prisoner leaves the gaol.

As a result of the meeting of executive committee of the Good Road Association held in Toronto on the 13th September, all clerks of townships throughout the province have been requested to furnish information in reference to statute labor, road mileage, etc. It is very desirable that these returns should be promptly made, as in no other way can accurate information be obtained on this subject.

During the past year, a great many different suggestions in reference to road improvement have been published, and we cannot think of anything, that would help the association more at the present, than that the representatives or clerks of those townships in which compulsory commutation has been tried, should favor us with the result of their experience during the past season. All who may have new ideas, the result of experience that will assist in advocating this important reform, cannot do better than to put their views in writing and send them to the editor of this paper, who is at present the acting secretary of the Good Roads Association.

A woman out west was elected mayor of a small town. Her husband immediately entered suit for divorce. While the suit was pending the husband was arrested and brought before the wife on a charge of assault and battery. As mayor, the wife imposed a fine on him which was sufficient to pay her lawyer's fees in the divorce suit. The husband is now trying to make up with her in order to keep the fine in the family. These women folk are "a caution!",

Editor MUNICIPAL WORLD, St. Thomas:

SIR,—I see Mr. A. C. Neff's advt. in THE WORLD, and as he has been here and made a thorough examination of my books, as treasurer of East Zorra, and although his report is not altogether favorable to me, however, the most errors were found in my being too free in making payments without having orders from one of the councillors. Mr. Neff does his work in such a masterly and pleasant manner, that I cannot help but admire him as an accountant, and would like if you would give space to the enclosed recommendation, and oblige.

D. W. McKAY,
