

Sgt. H. C. Ashbey carried this in his haversack from 1916 till discharged in ^{June} 1919—

THE ROUELLES CAMP MAGAZINE

Canadian Base Depot, Havre.

October 1916

Printed by kind permission of

Lieut.-Colonel E. B. WORTHINGTON, Officer Commanding CANA-DIAN BASE DEPOT.

Passed by Head Censor, Havre.

Price : 1 Franc.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor. R. S. M. Burney.

Business Manager. Sgt. Wayland.

Magazine Committee.

Capt. Hilay

Capt. Earp

Lieut. Croft

Sgt. Kedwads

EDITORIAL

We offer apologies to our readers for having suspended publication of the Rouelles Camp Magazine since our issue of last April. We can assure them that this delay has not sprung from a failing interest in our little Mag., on the part of either contributors or patrons. It is due, firstly, to an inevitable break-up in our editorial staff, caused by the promotion of several of its members, who have been summoned to other parts of France, and secondly, to a material increase of work at the camp. The area under canvas has had to be extended of late to accomodate an ever-growing concourse of Canadian troops ; both of new levies and casuals. In fact the Base is now a Military Depot of considerable magnitude, reflecting more appropriately the extent of

HC 72